CORRESPONDENCE.

NEER CITY, February 19th, 1884. Editor COLUMBIAN—As your paper has a large circulation here, I thought a few items from Neer City would not go amiss.

There is plenty of snow here and still snowing. Cutting wool is out of the question now, and B. Havard's store is a respect for wool-choppers.

Oh Neer City is a lively place! Abe Neer and his lady and the widow from Tide Creek had a nice sleigh-ride on a wooded sled the other day.

The late snow-storm did considerable damage here. It broke the Neer City boat-house and did considerable damage to one boat.

Mr. Wilburn's sister arrived here today where she intends the winter. Johnnie * * * went to see his girl the other night, and got away with her paws.

Well, Mrs. Fowler has not given up all hopes yet. She thinks there is a lynx left for her, and I really think there is myself.

Well, sir, I will tell you the young folks are having their fun. Mr. Samuel Fowler is the best clown for any purpose that you have a mind to put him at.

Well, the weather is very bad, the snow is deep and it is bad for the stock. Mrs. Fowler has her stock at the Coffin Rock Place, and her son Eddie has to go down there every day to feed it.

Well, sir, there is another family come into Neer City to-day. I think they will be very much toiled when they think they are going into a city like San Francisco, which they think it is; it is nothing out of a hill and mountain of rocks.

Henry Stelman is busy helping C. Fowler watch the bees swarm; they have been watching very faithfully for a month now, but there was too much snow on the ground they could not get out to hive them very well.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican Convention for the State of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday the 30th day of April, 1884, at 11 A. M.

Representative in Congress, Judge of the Supreme Court, three Presidential Electors, and District officers for the several Judicial Districts, and to select six delegates to attend the National Republican Convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the Convention.

The Convention will consist of 206 delegates, apportioned among the several counties as follows:

Table listing delegates by county: Baker 5, Benton 9, Clackamas 10, Clatsop 6, Columbia 4, Coos 6, Crook 5, Curry 2, Douglas 12, Grant 5, Jackson 6, Josephine 6, Klamath 2, Lane 10, Lincoln 12, Marion 18, Multnomah 35, Polk 8, Tillamook 2, Umatilla 12, Union 7, Wasco 8, Washington 8, Yamhill 9.

Total 206. The same being one delegate at large from each county and one delegate for every 125 votes and one for every fraction over one-half thereof cast for Hon. M. C. George, Congressman, at the last general election.

The Committee recommend that the primaries be held on Saturday, the 12th day of April, and the county conventions on Tuesday, the 22 day of April, unless otherwise ordered by the proper County Central Committee.

The Committee earnestly recommended that the delegates elected to the State Convention attend in person, and if not convenient for them to attend personally, that they send their proxies by electors of the county they represent.

The Republican voters of the State without regard to past political differences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, giving true popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the State, by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and principles, are cordially invited to unite in electing delegates to the Republican State Convention.

Sol HINSON, Chairman. PORTLAND, OR., Feb. 21, 1884.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Band Sociable & Dance last Friday was well attended. The supper was bountiful indeed, and tastefully arranged on the tables.

Mr. W. H. Whitney has removed his store to the Taylor hotel building. He has a room commodious and fitted up in elegant style.

Well, the weather is very bad, the snow is deep and it is bad for the stock. Mrs. Fowler has her stock at the Coffin Rock Place, and her son Eddie has to go down there every day to feed it.

Democratic State Convention.

The State Democratic Convention is hereby called to meet at Dales City, on Thursday the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices:

Judge of the Supreme Court, three Presidential Electors, Representative in the Lower house of Congress and District Officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the National Democratic State Convention, and generally to do such other business as may be of right come before such Convention.

The Convention will be composed of the following delegates:

Table listing delegates by county: Baker 3, Benton 6, Clackamas 6, Clatsop 4, Columbia 2, Coos 4, Crook 1, Curry 2, Douglas 7, Grant 3, Jackson 3, Josephine 3, Klamath 1, Lane 6, Lincoln 6, Marion 6, Multnomah 12, Polk 4, Tillamook 2, Umatilla 2, Union 2, Wasco 2, Washington 2, Yamhill 2.

The same being one for each 200 votes, and fraction over 100 cast for Hon. J. S. Smith at the last general election, and one delegate at large from each county.

We also recommend that the new counties of Crook and Klamath send one delegate at large each to represent them in the Convention, and that the number of delegates allotted to the counties of Wasco and Lika, from which these counties were formed, be apportioned between the old counties and the new.

The Committee recommend that the primaries be held on April 5, and the County Convention on April 11; subject however, to the approval of the various County Committees.

The committee deem it fitting to present to the Democratic voters of the State the following considerations: We see approaching an election of great vital import to our commonwealth in all its interests, both public and private.

Deeming honesty the best policy, and in striking contrast with the course of the opposing party, we have named an early day for the assembling of the State Convention. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated and our candidates placed in the field subject to their approval or condemnation of the body politic.

The various in the vote of this State during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the Presidential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory.

Believing that the success of the Democracy is the welfare of the people, we cordially invite all persons, regardless of past political affiliations, who favor simplicity, economy and frugality in the administration of public affairs, to unite with us.

P. H. D'ANON, Secretary. AL ZIEBER, Ch. D. S. C. C.

An Old Friend.

Who of us does not enjoy greeting an old friend, especially when we can congratulate him on looking well? It is with some such feeling that we welcome to our table VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE, which comes to us dressed in the neatest and most elegant cover that enterprising house ever issued.

The prospect is that lands will boom in Columbia City as they never have before this ensuing summer. The emigration will doubtless be unparalleled, and this is the point for a land owner to realize a fortune.

Met. Mr. Hodges of Columbia City. Says the inhabitants raised $30.25 for the Fowler family in their prolonged sickness. This was very kind. Mr. Fowler was worn out with fatigue in watching with the sick and dying, and the charity was not misplaced.

J. S. Davenport has a big supply of cigars and could afford to furnish small dealers wholesale lots at reasonable prices. He has every grade of cigars and dealers in such articles are sure of satisfaction in quality and prices. Give him a call.

The Lewis county (W. T.) Nipper says: The gold mine operated by Kelsey Bros., of Centralia, is showing very favorable signs, and many old miners that have looked the ground over predict for their ultimate success.

On Wednesday 16 emigrants in all arrived at St. Helen from Missouri and Iowa, to wit: A. F. and F. F. Myers and families and Andrew Snyder.

These were from Henderson, Mills Co., Iowa, and Mercer Co., Missouri. Scott Wright and Windel Langgins were from Lincolnville, Iowa. They intend to go to Oysterville and Ilwaco to visit relatives by the name of Greenman.

One said he intended to go into the restaurant business at Ilwaco. The others intend to settle on Lewis River. There is a Mrs. Weaver who came out with them to join her husband who has been here for some time. They stopped at Blakeley's hotel. They came on the Union Pacific Oregon Short Line, and North Pacific R. R.

T. A. Cloninger was in town on Wednesday, and says his District is in want of a school teacher; that a force pump is to be sunk at the school-house to relieve the thirsty and parched student, and that the reason of interperence in Scappoose is from the fact that the school children had to pack their drinking water in a bottle, and so got used to bottles at an early age, and that it grew on them till pulling a cork became as natural as playing on a piano to an adept.

Rev. Mr. Hanna preached at the M. E. Church Sunday evening to a full audience, and lectured at the same place on Monday evening on the subject of Temperance. He illustrated the results of sobriety and interperence by the history of two families. It was very striking and appeared to greatly interest his listeners.

A committee appointed for the purpose have arranged for a reunion of all the survivors of the Veteran Second New Hampshire Regiment at Manchester, N. H., June 20, the 23rd anniversary of the departure of the Regiment from Portsmouth for the seat of war—Dover (N. H.) Enquirer.

Ethilda Ribert has always a poem to deliver in the Good Templar Lodge, when it comes her turn to have a recitation. She pertinently answered the query of where she got her subjects on which to write, in verses noted for their beauty and appropriateness.

Mr. S. A. Miles and wife and youngest son, and Mrs. Emerson and son were out to visit us on Sunday. Mrs. Emerson's child has improved in health since coming up. We had a very pleasant visit. We think all enjoyed their lives at least so they appeared.

A gentleman down the river had a cow called Pet. An old neighbor had a daughter who bore the same name, and being something of a wag, seeing his daughter one day walking with her 'bean, he sang out, "There comes Pet and her calf!"

Mark Swauger lives at Lenore, the city on Tide Creek. He is mayor and all hands; but the owner notifies him to get ready to move any time as he fears the city will become too crowded, and the N. P. R. R. wants some place to put its terminus.

Mr. J. M. Reddick was in St. Helen last week. His sister Rhoda has been very sick this winter. His mother Mrs. Parthena Smith talks of selling her place in Forest Grove, and removing to Arkansas where her relatives reside.

Cho G. Yong came out to see us, and brought another Chinaman who is to work at Muckles, Miss Alta Brons having left for Portland, Oregon. Cho gave us a small looking-glass of much beauty as a present.

LITERARY NOTICES.

The Art Amateur for March gives some seasonable designs for Easter egg decoration, a very pleasing granium design for a brass plaque in etched and rousse work, the last of the series of wild-flower dessert-plate designs, a design of Virginia cropper in Autumn colors for a fire-place facing of seventeen tiles, and a numerous array of monograms, ecclesiastical embroideries, fancy costumes, and French and Japanese designs.

The number is particularly strong in correspondence and in notices of art exhibitions, special attention being given to the displays of the New York Water Color Society, etching Club and Art Association, the Boston Art Club and the Brooklyn Bartholdi Pedestal Fund Committee. Other notable articles are on the work of American artists in Paris, on Chinese porcelains, and on propriety in needlework decoration. "My Note Book" and the Dramatic Feuilleton are as vivacious and entertaining as ever.

The Art Amateur grows more and more indispensable to all who wish to keep pace with the art movement in this country. Price, $1 a year; single copies 35c. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

Good Reading for Boys and Girls.

The Kaleidoscope, a monthly magazine of pure and entertaining reading for American youth, has made its first appearance. It is the best journal of its class ever published for the price, —50 cents a year. Sample copies gratis. An agent is wanted in every county in the United States. Address THE KALIDOSCOPE, York, Pa.

R. W. Prentice & Co's. Musical Journal for February contains many items of interest also the following music: "Great Grand-mother," "In The Starlight," and "Happy School Days." The first two are songs, and the last a galop. All for 10 cents, or 75 cents per year. 107 First Street, Portland, Or.

"House-keeping in Old Virginia" is a gem for the ladies. It tells how many "grievances" are used in all culinary operations. Its price is $1.75 and John P. Martin & Co. Louisville, Kentucky, are publishers. If you want to rival the palmy days of Southern house-keeping, buy this book.

We have received the Outlook, a magazine printed and published by a Boarding School for young ladies at San Mateo, California. It is a gem, and so are all the young ladies gems, too.

We have received the Western Farmers' Almanac, published by John P. Morton & Co., Louisville, Kentucky. It is a splendid collection of useful and entertaining knowledge.

We have received the Pacific Coast No. 3. It has some magnificent engravings of Pacific Coast scenery, and is very instructive as well as readable. Its price is $2.00 per year.

Morgan's "Key to Boston Inside-Out" is intensely interesting. If some good canvasser would take the book he would make a fortune.

GOLD.

For the working class. Send 10 cents for postage, and we will mail you a book, a royal valuable book of sample golds that will put you in the way of making more money in a few days than you ever thought possible at any business. (No trial not required.) We will start you with one work all the time or in spare time for $5 every evening. That all who want work may test the business, we make this unparalleled offer: to all who are not well satisfied we will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing us. Full particulars, directions, etc., sent free. Fortunes will be made by those who give their whole time to the work. Great success absolutely sure. Don't delay. Start now. Address SWINSON & Co., Portland, Maine.
