John Campbell has transferred all his property consisting of nearly three hundred acres of land to the Sisters of St-Vincent Hospital ; They are to furnish him a home and sustinence, and look after his welfare the remainder of his life. They have sent down a young Swede to cultivate, and look after the ranch where so much ditching has been done, and which is really the finest tract of land in Columbia County. It is thought a school and church will be built on the pcint beyond Captain Lemont's house. The site is a splendid one, an^{it} nowhere is there such a commanding view of the Columbia River.
