

THE OREGONIAN.

U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER.

NEWS DROPS.

Mr. T. Cooper is still doing a rushing business as butcher.

G. W. McBride has increased his stock lately in many articles.

Judge Moore is all the time increasing his stock of law books.

Rev. Mr. Webber, the boy preacher, will hold services here on Sunday.

W. H. Whitney was elected J. P. by a handsome majority, also C. H. Hodges.

W. H. Whitney manufactures ice-cream. He treated us to a delicious plate of the same.

Mr. J. S. Davenport always carries a full stock of goods, and a great variety of desirable articles.

O. M. Hofstater & Co.'s Art Gallery will be in St. Helens the 1st of June 1884 to stop two weeks.

Nehalem Valley has a tri-weekly mail. Charles Perry has been carrying the mail lately for Mr. Konkle.

We have received D. M. Ferry's Seed Annual and Seed packages, all first class. The book is a bright and useful too.

J. S. Davenport has got a big ice, and an ice cream freezer, so he can make delicious ice cream. I scream with delight these hot days at the very thought of it.

Mrs. M. E. Adams and Mrs. Julia A. Stewart, delegates to the W. C. T. U. Convention held at Albany returned today. The same State officers re-elected.

Mr. Joseph Dobbins has returned from California with his wife. He says the change helped her, but she was homesick for her old home and so he returned with her.

There has been the discovery of a silver ledge on Mulholland creek, a branch of the Cowlitz, by a man by the name of Crawford. It is not far from James Shintaffer's claim.

Mr. W. H. Whitney cuts the close crop to hair with the greatest ease, he has the tools to do it with. A grand thing in political times and hot weather to keep the head cool.

G. W. Harris has Lindley Shintaffer as partner in Pichney's hotel at Columbia City. We understand they are doing a good business, and have quite a number of boarders.

The rambling of the cars and the shriek of the engine is once more heard in our land. Engineers are gathering from near and far, and Mr. Benjamin is beleaguered by railroad men desiring to board at his convenient residence.

Transo & Morrow, of Portland, have painted a most elegant sign for A. H. Blakesley. It spans the sidewalk in front of the hotel. The name given is "Oriental Hotel." It is as well as the sign are ornaments to St. Helens, and a credit to the proprietor.

We have received D. W. Prentice & Co's Musical and Home Journal for May. It is enlarged, and a great credit to the enterprise to Mr. Prentice. The music in this number is "The Arrow and the Song," and "Greeting in the Forest."

All for 10 cents, or 75 cents per year. 107 First Street, Portland.

W. C. T. U. The W. C. T. U. meet on Sunday at 5 P. M.

Sunday School. Sunday School immediately after the morning services, and at 1 P. M. when there is no preaching.

THE WORLD OF AGRICULTURE.

The Agricultural World, one of the best, if not the best, farm papers of its class, is making a great success of the plan inaugurated by its editor a few years ago.

This plan is nothing less than the giving of exhaustive articles by the best writers on agriculture in all the countries of the world.

The articles from the different States and Territories of our own country are particularly entertaining and instructive.

Judge Parrish's articles on "The Farmer's relation to Law" are alone worth the price of the paper.

Judge Parrish, who is one of the ablest Judges and lecturers in the West, will soon leave for the South, with the view of supplying the paper with a series of articles on the agricultural features of that section.

This journal also has a fine household department which makes it particularly attractive to lady readers.

The price of the Agricultural World (now in its fifth year) is only One Dollar per annum (24 numbers).

In clubs of five: 80 cent each. Six months, 60 cents; three months, 40 cents. Sample copies, 6 cents.

Two-cent postage stamps received on subscription. Address Agricultural World, Grand Rapids, Mich.

THE ART AMATEUR.

concluded its fifth year with an admirable May number. Notable features are the frontispiece, "Morning Prayer," from C. S. Pearce's Salon picture; and the profusely illustrated article on the National Academy Exhibition, and the first of an invaluable series of articles on "The Modern Home," treating of the vestibule and hall.

Louis Leloir and George Fuller, artists recently deceased, receive appreciative biographical notice. The work of Solon, a famous French ceramic artist, is described and illustrated.

Other articles of much interest are on spurious old faience, the drawings of the old masters, the Pastel Exhibition and "How we Lost the Castellani Collection."

The supplement sheets include designs for monograms, jewelry, wood-carving, etched and hammered brass, and china paintings, (pansies, roses and rhododendron for vase and tiles); a pom egratinate design from South Kensington on an embroidered screen, and a child's head in color from a drawing by P. A. Willer.

With the May number The Art Amateur is to be introduced in England after the manner of Harper's and the Century, and we doubt not the British public will give it a cordial welcome it deserves.

Price, $4.00 per year; single numbers, 35 cents. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

Compilimentary Notice.

The attention of our readers is respectfully called to the advertisement in another column, of D. M. Ferry & Co. Detroit, Mich., the celebrated seedsmen.

They do the largest business in their line in the United States; raise the bulk of their seed on their own farms, by the most approved methods, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for the quality and variety of the seed they put upon the market, and their integrity in filling all orders entrusted to them.

Their beautiful Seed Annual for 1884, sent free to all who apply for it, will be found of practical value to all who desire to purchase seeds true to name.

Ame's Guide to Self Instruction in practical and artistic Penmanship is given free as a premium with the "Journal." The "Guide" has thirty-two pages devoted to instruction and copies for plain writing, fourteen pages to the principles and examples for flourishing, sixteen pages to alphabets, package marking and monograms. Price by mail, in paper covers, 75 cts.; handsomely bound in stiff covers, $1. Given as a premium (in paper) with the "Journal" one year, for $1; full bound (in stiff covers) for $1.25. DANIEL T. AMES, Author and Publisher, No. 205 Broadway, New York.

Ridley's Fashion Magazine for Spring contains interesting stories in prose and verse, useful home articles, amusing and instructive sketches, Mammoth Fashion Plates, profuse illustrations of the Fashion of the day and invaluable shopping information. Only 15 cents per number, 50 cents per year. Address E. RIDLEY & SONS, Grand, Allen and Orchard Streets, New York City.

His Late Hours. "See here," said a fault-finding husband to his wife, "we must have things arranged in this house so that we shall know just where everything is kept."

"With all my heart," she sweetly answered; "and let us begin with your late hours, my love; I should dearly like to know where they are kept." He lets things run on as usual.

"Little baby is very ill, Charley; I am afraid he will die." "Well, if he does die, mamma, he won't go to the bad place." "Why, Charley, how can you know that?" "Oh, I know he can't, mamma; he's got no teeth to gnash."

The proper way to check slander is to despise it; attempt to overtake and refute it, and it will outrun you.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

The most successful Remedy ever discovered as it cures in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

ST. CHARLES, ARK., Aug. 23, 1883. B. J. KENDALL & Co., GENTS.—I take pleasure in informing you that I used nearly all of the bottles of Kendall's Spavin Cure that you sent me from St. Louis, according to directions, and to my satisfaction (and I must say to my surprise) in about two weeks my mare was entirely well of her lameness caused by a bog spavin of over one year's standing, and in three weeks time the swelling was all gone and the mare is now entirely well and can trot as glib as ever.

I consider the bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure worth to me $10.00 as the animal was worthless as she was on three legs and could scarcely get around on them and now she is the finest buggy animal in these parts and with the remainder of the bottle after curing the mare I have nearly cured a severe sore on the ball of my big toe that has given me great pain for two or three years. I have only applied Kendall's Spavin Cure four times and the corn was nearly out by the roots and without any pain. In short I think it is the best liniment that is in use. I have Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases and I would not take any money for it if I could not get another. Hoping you great success I remain

Yours respectfully, R. C. MARTIN.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE ON HUMAN FLESH.

VERVAY, IND., Aug. 12, 1881. DR. J. T. KENDALL & Co., GENTS.—Sample of circulars received today. Please send me some with my imprint printed on one at one only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments. I have used it on the neck of one of the leading farmers of our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for rheumatism, I used it on my neck. It did far better than he expected. Cured the pain in very short order.

Yours respectfully, C. O. THRELAND.

Price $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to you by express on receipt of price by the proprietor, Dr. B. J. Kendall, 111 Broadway, New York, N. Y. Send for illustrated circular.
