THE WORLD OF AGRICULTURE

The AGRICULTURAL WORLD, one of the best, if not the best, farm papers of its class, is making a great success of the plan inaugurated by its editor a few years ago. This plan is nothing less than the giving of exhaustive articles by the best writers on agriculture in all the countries of the world. The articles from the different States and Territories of our own country are particularly entertaining and instructive. Judge Parrish's articles on "The Farmer's relation to Law" are alone worth the price of the paper. Judge Parrish, who is one of the ablest Judges and lecturers in the West, will soon leave for the South, with the view of supplying the paper with a series of articles on the agricultural features of that section. This journal also has a fine household department which makes it particularly attractive to lady readers. The price of the AGRICULTURAL WORLD (now in its tnth year) is only One Dollar per annum (26 numbers). In clubs of five, 80 cent each. Six months, 60 cents; three months, 40 cents. Sample copies, 6 cents. Two-cent postage stamps received on subscription. Adress Agricultural World, Grand Rapids, Mich.

THE ART AMATEUR begins its eleventh volume with an admirable June number. The most notable feature is the fine array of drawings by Bacon, Bridgman, Boggs, Mosler, Harrison and other American artists, after their paintings in Paris Salon. There are also some striking drawings by J. F. Raffaelli and a page of Barye bronzes. Excellent illustrated articles are given on "Country Houses," "The Hall and Reception Room," and "Old Ecclesiastical Embroideries." The supplement sheets include: "The Mandolin Player," in color, after Trinquesse; a supurb female head for a plaque; rose and jasmine designs for embroidered screen panels; sweet-briar designs for a vase; a design of horse-chestnut leaves for panel decoration; a capital design for an etched and repousse brass tray; monograms in F, and designs for jewelry, needlework and frieze decoration. There are also pleasing designs for a cup and saucer (swamp rose) and for an album cover ("Cupid Disarmed.") For practical information the answers to correspondents are alone worth the price of the number, thirty-five cents. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York.

Ames' Guide to Self Instruction in practical and artistic Penmanship is given free as a premium with the "Journal," The "Guide" has thirty-two pages devoted to instruction and copies for plain writing, fourteen pages to the principles and examples for flourishing, sixteen pages to alphabets, package marking and monograms. Price by mail, in paper covers, 75 cts.; handsomely bound in stiff covers, $1. Given as a premium (in paper) with the "Journal" one year, for $1; full bound (in stiff covers) for $1.25. DANIEL T AMES, Author and Publisher, No. 205 Broadway, New York.

Ridley's Fashion Magazine for Spring contains interesting stories in prose and verse, useful home articles, amusing and instructive sketches, Mammoth Fashion Plates, profuse illustrations of the Fashion of the day and invaluable shopping information. The most successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. READ PROOF BELOW.

ST. CHARLES, ARK., Aug. 23, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., GENTS:—I take pleasure in informing you that I used nearly all of the bottles of Kendall's Spavin Cure that you sent me from St. Louis, according to directions, and to my satisfaction (and I must say to my surprise) in about two weeks my mare was entirely well of her lameness caused by a bog spavin of over one year's standing and in three weeks time the swelling was all gone and the mare is now entirely well and can trot as glib as ever. I consider the bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure worth to me $150.00 as the animal was worthless as she was on three legs and could scarcely get around on them and now she is the finest buggy animal in these parts and with the remnant of the bottle after curing the mare I have nearly cured a severe corn on the ball of my big toe that has given me great pain for two or three years. I have only applied Kendall's Spavin Cure four times and the corn now is nearly out by the roots and without any pain. In short I think it is the best liniment that is in use. I have Kendall's Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases and I would not take any money for it if I could not get another. Hoping you great success I remain

Yours respectfully, R. C. MARTIN.

KENDALL'S SPAVINE CURE ON HUMAN FLESH.

VEVAY, IND., Aug. 12, 1881.

DR. B. J. Kendall & Co., GENTS:—Sample of circulars received to-day. Please send me some with my imprint printed on one side only. The Kendall's Spavin Cure is in excellent demand with us, and not only for animals, but for human ailments also. Mr. Jos. Voris, one of the leading farmers of our county, sprained an ankle badly, and knowing the value of the remedy for horses, tried it on himself, and it did far better than he expected. Cured the pain in very short order.

Yours respectfully,
C. O. THIEBAND.

Price $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00. All druggists have it or can get it for you, or it will be sent to any address on receipt of price by the proprietor, DR. B. J KENDALL & Co., Enosburgh Falls, Vt; Send for Illustrated circular.
