U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER.

NEWS DROPS.

The mist mist us last week.

El Potter has been helping Frank Henrich.

Louis Edwards has got him an excellent bird dog.

Lee Perry has gone to the Cascade Locks to work.

Tony are taking salmon in Sapporo Creek with gill-nets.

Edward Henrich has to milk 32 cows night and morning.

It is supposed the mist when it does will just float off and evaporate.

The Bee of Chelalis is dead, and the Nugget is monarch of all it surveys.

There was a spelling school and dance at Mr. Heath's near Deer Island last night.

J. Decker gave our hair a splendid cut. His stand is at the old Babesley hotel.

Rainier wants something rainier than the mist just now. Its weather waxes warm.

A bad storm has come and plays havoc with the haymakers on the bottom land.

The Henrichs got no low ground hay wet. They stopped mowing, and hauled in at the right time.

Why is the mist like a coward in battle? Because it is the first newspaper that goes to the rear.

W. H. Whitney is doing a rousing business. "Small profits but quick exchanges" is his motto.

Met E. Hazen has got him a new road-cart and a way up harness. He shines out like a big sunflower.

Rev. Mr. Brown will preach on Sunday in St. Helen at the Church morning and evening at the usual hours.

Mr. Crooks feels good over the fact that he has got Bull upon in Bumbo for crookedness. He smokes muchly.

Brook Meeker says he never raised such crops as he has this year. His ranch is at the foot of Saurie's Island.

The grand opening of the Railroad for passengers will take place on the 23rd of September instead of the 10th the time set before.

George McBride has bought a bird dog of George Strachan. It is a spunky little fellow. No boy can poke a stick at it with impunity.

Miss Mattie Perry came out with Blanche on Tuesday eve. She is a nice little lady. Her mother dresses her very neatly and with much taste.

There are a number of lilies in Beaver Valley have taken claims. They should keep themselves or rent on them or some rascals may jump them.

Mr. E. E. Quick commenced school on Monday with a full attendance. The school-house is nicely painted within, and new black-boards are all along the sides.

Armstrong who is nominated for Delegate of Washington Territory is an old soldier, lost a leg at Chantilly, and is Register of the Land Office at Spokane Falls.

George Russell, the artist, was in town on Tuesday. He had a letter from California reporting that times were good there. Why are they so dull in Oregon?

Georgia Giltner has sent a crazy quilt to her brother Eddie. She stated it was a crazy quilt indeed, for it was made of pieces given her by the crazy girls in the Asylum.

Mr. James Carriero is on his return to his mines in Idaho. He is 63 years old, but looks like a much younger man, and is in excellent spirits over his future prospects.

Miss May Henrich has been on a long visit to her grandfather's near Spokane Falls. She has returned to her other grandfather, Edward Henrich Sen. on Sauvie's Island.

Sydney Wood and wife, and young Gunderson and wife have been in town lately. Sydney has been at work in a logging camp on the Sound, and married his wife there.

Colvin the swift carpenter, has been in St. Helen lately. He resides in Marshallland, which he says is the garden spot of the world for the production of grass and vegetables.

Visitors to Portland

Should not forget to call at Towne's San Francisco Gallery, where may be seen photographs of all the leading men and women of Oregon and Washington Territory. Skilled operators always in attendance, and the most minute attention paid to pictures of children. Don't forget the location, S. W. Corner First and Morrison streets, upstairs. No trouble to show specimens to visitors. Street railroads pass the door every ten minutes, and this is the nearest gallery to the five principal hotels.
