CORRESPONDENCE.

FRIDAY, W. T. May 30th, 1885.
Ed. COLUMBIAN—It may be of interest to the subscribers of your worthy journal to read a communication from your Freeport correspondent. The shades of evening are closing on us. The departure of the above date is coming to a close. Sol, after winding in its orbit, is about to sink in the darkened West. The hand of toil lays down the mechanical or farming implement and proposes to go to rest. The curtain and drapery fall for the weary to sleep and the wounded to die. Steering our course to the happy land of dreams, true paradise lost or gained, the small hours glide along till the lark, soaring aloft, announces the dawn of another day to be placed on the calendar of time. Sol raises his head from his watery couch in the Eastern horizon, while Flora scattering fragrance on the fertile plains, decorates and enamels the flowery banks and clear purring streams of the river Columbia and its tributaries, a stream of beauty not like the troubled Tiber chafing with its shores but like the gentle Arno in its quiet flow through fruitful fields and verdant valleys bearing its commercial burden.

Freeport and vicinity presents a favorable appearance as any town of the same magnitude in the Territory, considering the present financial crisis. The crops look well, considering what they suffered during the dry spell. There has been some failure in the potato crop; some had to be replanted, but there is evidence of an abundant crop.

Our three stores are doing a thrifty business. Stepping into one of our enterprising merchants, Mr. John Rarden's store where you will find a representation of all nations discussing the issues of the day, national, foreign and domestic. He is always found in his free and liberal manner dealing out his wares, nuts and cigars without consideration, with a free heart to give and a hand to get, and doing a sterling business.

Mr. Enoch Shintaffer is doing well in complying with his license for the life of man.

Behold! what next appears to my view, the proud pinions of our beautiful craft, the Steamer Joseph Kellogg with our national emblem at half mast land to be moved to her wharf, calling our attention to the day set apart to do honors and decorate the graves of our fallen heroes who sleep side by side for the cause by which they were bound by the endearment of homes, and whose bones lay bleaching on many a hard-contested battlefield until the carrier dove went forward and brought forth the olive branch of peace (our flag) without a blackberry on it or a star obliterated from its folds. We as a generous and a Union-loving people went to work to lead up the wounds and build and bring the South into practical relation with the Government and the Union. Today we as a loving people regardless of sects unite in uniting, strewing and decorating the graves of those that fell in the clash of battle. Here we take our line of march to the cemetery playing the dead march with reversed arms and the muffled drum to pay the last tribute of respect the living owes to the dead who sleep quietly in the peaceful arms of six by two which they peacefully hold now. This brings forth a nation's grief, an orphan's tear and a widow's sigh.

I say to you Fallen Heroes, whether attired in the Blue or the Gray, may your star never grow dim nor sink in the darkened gloom of the west but melt away into the brightness of Heaven where serows are never known and love and harmony reign forever.

THE LITTLE JOKE.

"WIDE WEST," June 5, '85
DEAR MAJOR—John Flynn, leadman in employ of U. S. Eng. Corps, told me that Bourne (the man back of Rainer who had so much trouble to secure a wife) stated to him at the time our beloved, honored and respected Commander, Genl. Grant was reported dying that he (Bourne) said, "I wish the dirty dog would die." More also it is reported was said. Now I say for myself and comrades that he Bourne dare not repeat any other man who wears a G. A. R. badge.

J. R. FRIERSON.

The Wells man says he has taken the stars out of us. Perhaps he means all the stars he has got to give stiffness to himself, if all reports are true.

VERNONIA, OREGON, June 8th, '85.
EDITOR COLUMBIAN—We are having beautiful weather. Crops of all kinds are looking splendid.

Rev. Kerr preached a very interesting sermon in the Parker school house last Sunday. He has also organized a Sabbath-school which is well attended.

We see many men pass through Vernonia daily for the Rock Creek mines, which are getting somewhat exciting. D. L. Baker and S. Bennett returned from the mines the other day. They report that some ten or twelve men are very busy blading out rock to send to San Francisco to have assayed.

A party of some thirty men started this morning with determined minds to put the road through as soon as possible. They report that a very good road can be got which will follow up Rock Creek. The road is already built from Vernonia eight miles up Rock Creek. About eight miles more will build the road to the mines. There it will be open from St. Helens clear through, so that parties wishing to bring teams with supplies can do so.

The big brave who has been for some time parading around a certain man's house to get a fight out of the old man, got a pounding the other day from his sixteen-year-old boy. He was glad to get away with a pair of black eyes and minus some flesh and blood. Next time, Eddie, you go pawing around people's houses, wait till the children are from home, then make your usual call.

From Mrs. Eastlake who has been sick for some time we are glad to learn, is improving.

NEHALMITE.

The following is an extract from our Washington letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C. MAY 23 1885.

The funeral of the late Robert E. Odium, who met his death by jumping from the Brooklyn bridge, took place yesterday afternoon from No. 504 Thirtieth street northwest. The body lay in one of the parlors, where the funeral services were held, surrounded by numerous floral designs of great beauty; conspicuous amongst these being the fascimile of the Brooklyn bridge which was donated by the Light Infantry Corps. The house was crowded with the friends of the deceased, who listened attentively. Father Ahern, of St. Matthew's church, pronounced a glowing tribute to the dead. Notoriety which the deceased's last exploit gained him attracted many from idle curiosity, and a crowd of about 600 people gathered in the street and waited see the cortege start for the cemetery.

August.

We have received the following invitation.

The citizens of Vancouver and vicinity request the presence of yourself and family at a Basket Picnic and celebration in the City Park, at Vancouver, W. T., on Saturday, July 4th, 1885, at 10 o'clock a. m.

B. F. DENNISON,
THURSTON DANIELS,
ALMIRA PATTERSON,
ANNA EASTMAN,
GEO. H. STEWARD,
Committee on Invitation.

FOUND—The body of Anton Forbes was found at Reeder's landing, down the Columbia, last week Wednesday, and buried near where found. Some one went down and identified the clothing and articles on the body. O. M. Muley remains were re-interred in the Vancouver cemetery, the Columbia band playing for procession. Mr. Forbes has never relaxed efforts to recover the body of his nephew, and I have it properly buried.—Independent.

We call attention to our new Ad., particularly to Moore and Cole's. Judge Moore is so well known, it would be superfluous to speak of him, but Mr. Cole, till late the Judge's clerk, deserves a liberal notice. He is a gentleman of untiring industry, careful able and thorough, always at his post and ready for duty, nothing mean or slack about him, and don't you forget it.

We have received Mrs. Dunaway's celebrated engraving entitled the Coronation of Womanhood. It is large and very well executed in the main. The following parties of Columbia County have portraits in it, Dr. T. Stewart, G. W. McBride, James Muckle, John Diblee and E. G. Adams.

Dr. A. B. Adams has received letters from General Wick Kenner's family in Arkansas, that they intend to start for Oregon. Dr. Adams has written to 40 different individuals who are expecting to make Oregon their home.

WANTED—A good printer capable of taking the whole charge of the mechanical part of the COLUMBIAN. Good wages will be paid to a competent man or an interest in the proceeds of the paper.

Miss Helena Holman, it is reported, will give in tractions in music here and at Columbia City during her summer vacation.

THE USUAL RESULT.

It is not to be denied that a good sewing machine is one of the most important appearances of the modern house hold. We thought we had a good machine until one-day the agent of the New Home presented himself to our door and proceeded to deliver an oration upon its characteristics merits.

"But," we answered, "our machine suits us well and we do not care for another."

The agent, however, begged the privilege of leaving one of his machines with us, "for the ladies to try."

The request was not unreasonable, so we granted it—but, more to oblige the agent than anything else; for we really did not want the machine, and had not the remotest idea of buying it.

The machine once in the house, it was natural that the ladies should look it over; they did so, and as a consequence fell in love with it. They say without the slightest wish to deny or disparage any other machine, this all things considered, is, in their opinion, the most desirable one to be had.

This unrivaled machine is manufactured by the NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO., Orange, Mass., and 30 Union Square, New York.

The enterprising publishers of Dr. Foot's Health Monthly have, by the liberality of their premium offers, outdone all their previous generosity.

The list to select from includes useful articles, standard books and scientific literature, such as one usually expects to find well for, but here they are thrown in with a year's subscription to the most popular and widely grieved Health Monthly at only fifty cents a year. Try it before you buy it by sending for free sample copy and illustrated premium list to the Murray Hill Publishing Co., 129 E 28th St., N. Y. City.

The Public Herald is a Godsend. It goes after the frauds with a picked stick. Mr. Lam Smith makes the bogus advertisers gnash their teeth with rage while he pulls off their lying disguises, and shows the in all their naked deformity. He ought to be pensioned, for there was never a more gallant soldier against fraud and its perpetrators. They are suffice and fly like frightened wild asses of the desert when he approaches. His Herald costs 50 cents per annum, and is published at 705 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Penn.

The publishers of the Floral Cabinet supply to their subscribers each year premiums of a floral nature; and for 1885, they announce six different premiums from which subscribers may take their choice, embracing ten packets of Flower Seeds and some choice Bibles, details of which may be had on application to the publishers at 22 Vesey St., New York. They will also send any of our readers a sample copy at half price (six cents), if this paper is mentioned.

COUNTERFEIT PRESENTMENTS
Of our beloved ones are always treasures. We should never delay in securing them while we can; and to those of our readers who visit Portland, we would say, do not return without visiting the San Francisco Gallery, S. W. corner First and Morrison streets, and getting your photographs taken, you may not have another opportunity to secure a perfect likeness and a highly finished picture. Most centrally located.

D. M. Ferry & Co., Seelmsen, Detroit, Mich., have sent us a copy of their Seed Annual for 1885. It is more beautiful and valuable than ever. The hints on the formation and management of gardens, as well as the cultural directions it contains have evidently been prepared by careful hands, and cannot fail to be of great service to all who garden, whether for profit or pleasure.

Received Ridley's Fashion Magazine. Can buy ready-made clothing cheaper than you can buy the cloth and make them yourselves. Published by Edward Ridley & Sons, for 50 cents per year, at Grand, Allen & Orchard Streets, New York City.

We have received the Western World published in Chicago. It is $1.00 per year and for one searching for land or a home it is just what you want. There is information from every part of the United States.

We have received the Lumber Trade Journal also published in Chicago $1.00 a year, a monthly. This is the book for one who wants to be posted on the lumber business.

LOCAL NEWS.

We were shown some very fine specimens of ore from the Nehalem mines held by George Pierson. He thinks he and his co-partners, James Garnett, Thomas Adams, and John T. McNulty have struck the richest thing yet. It seems to be the general opinion that the mines are no humbug, and that the destiny of Nehalem and Columbia County are onward and upward. Hon. R. D. Cole says it makes the settlement of that part of the county a sure thing, also hastens the aid to extend to tide-water on the Nehalem River.

Dr. Arthur Moore has been up lately back of Vancouver Lake to see a family by the name of Packard suffering from malarial troubles. Mrs. Olive Johnson, sister of Mrs. Judge Moore, at her father's in LaCenter, is recovering from a severe attack of fever and ague. Young Stephens (the Doctor informs us) who broke his leg lately and who is living at Mr. Fisk's is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Judge Moore had a quilting party yesterday. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Quick of Warren, Mrs. Richardson of Lewis River, Mrs. Muckle of Rainer, Mrs. Dolman, Mrs. De Moore, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Dart, Mrs. Watts, Miss Helena Holman Mrs. Sweitzer, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. J. Muckle, Mrs. A. George, Mrs. J. George and Mrs. Adams. The refreshments were sumptuous.

We have received the following painful news. "At Westport June 6th very suddenly, Nellie, beloved wife of Frank K. Lovell." She was daughter of William Adams and niece of John West, founder of Westport. We shall probably have further particulars of this distressing event next week.

We have received a monthly magazine called the Manifesto printed and published by the Shiners in Canterbury New Hampshire. It is gotten up nicely, and the pieces are entertaining and instructive. Christ and Mother Ann Lee are set forth as objects of adoration.

Tootle Elakesley during Court Week saw dog among the crowd of lawyers in front of the Court House, and thus addressed his cursing: Dorgie, did you come here for a lawyer? J. P. Caples quickly returned: "Young man, we will take care of you."

Mr. Decker, our barber, talks of removing with his family to LaCamas which seems to be just now the right growing place in this vicinity owing to the immigration of manufacturers in its midst.
