THE COLUMBIAN.

U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER.

NEWS DROPS.

Judge Moore is at Court at Hillsboro.

Mr. Waud is building $2000 house in East Portland.

Mr. J. L. Allen is soon to return to Columbia County to help view out a road.

We see many strange faces in town, some appear to be miners and some minors.

James Adams sold his mine to a man in Portland by the name of Graham for $500.

We see many strange faces in town, some appear to be miners, and some minors.

A sight of horses packed for the mines is a thing of often occurrance in St. Helen.

The old steadies in the lower end of the County are getting crazy over the silver mines.

Mrs. Adams received a call on Monday from Mrs. Judge Moore and Miss Cora Miles.

Mrs. Dr. Moore has lately returned from La Centre, where she went to visit her friends.

Mrs. El[illegible] possesses much taste in the manufacture of bead and other ornamental work.

The Telephone went by on Tuesday loaded with firemen for the big tournament in Astoria.

The town is full of specimens of quartz but its value has not been determined as yet by assayers.

Arthur Chase, a cousin of Dr. A. B. Adams, is manager for Lawrence Barrett, the celebrated actor.

Mr. T. H. Taylor is manufacturing cord-wood on his woods ranch. He is not one of the idle kind.

Rev. Mr. Campbell from Hillsboro is expected to preach here before long, also Rev. Mr. Plowman from Nehalem.

A man was found drowned in the vicinity of R[illegible]'s last Sturday. It was impossible to identify the corpse.

A stamp mill is soon to be erected at the mouth of Rock Creek and Columbia County intends to turn out her own silver from her own soil.

Mr. James Gill called at our office to inform us Warren post-office had been established and he had received his commission as Post Master.

Joseph Copeland has traded a number of mares for horses with his son William who intends to raise horses principally on his ranch in Klamath County.

S. A. Miles, James Garnett, T. Cooper, Fitzgerald, Freeman and other citizens of Columbia County are absent attending Cloninger's trial in Hillsboro.

Judge F. A. Moore has been appointed Commissioner of deeds for Washington Territory by Governor Squire, and has obtained his seal ready for business.

John T. McNulty says the claim his party located is fifty miles from here: that they went clear through to Astoria. He thinks they have the best claim yet found.

Pedro is dead. He died on Lewis River. The "bloody beastly brute" has gone to the happy hunting grounds where the beef is never too hot or too cold. A mistake, or his ghost.

NOTICE.—After April 10th, No Credit will be given except by special contract, and in no case longer than 30 days.

G. W. McBRIDE.

We have received Prentice's "Musical Home Journal." It contains many fine pieces, both vocal and instrumental. It also has a notice of the new and popular book, "Organ Pearls."

The Adamses make for the Editors of the Welcome "heaps of trouble on the old men's minds." What a happy world it would be for such people were there no Adamses in existence.

The Columbian has the finest rooms in St. Helens, and the most commodious. They are in the best business part of the town, adjacent to the wharves, convenient to the post office and all public buildings.

As my book-keeper Mr. Giltner will soon leave St. Helens to be absent several weeks, I must ask all owing me on account to call and settle before April 5th.

All persons whose accounts were over due January 1st, 1884 will save costs by making settlement by note or otherwise before April 12th, 1885.

G. W. McBRIDE.

"SECURE THE SHADOW"

Ere the substance fade, and when you visit Portland, make it a part of your busines to call on W. H. Towne, at the San Francisco Gallery, S. W. corner First and Morrison streets, and have your photograph taken in the highest style of art.

Visitors to Portland

Should not forget to call at Towne's San Francisco Gallery, where may be seen photographs of all the leading men and women of Oregon and Washington Territory. Skillful operators always in attendance, and the most minute attention paid to pictures of children. Don't forget the location, S. W. Corner First and Morrison streets, up stairs. No trouble to show specimens to visitors. Street railroad pass the door every ten minutes, and this is the nearest gallery to the five principal hotels.

1885 THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, 1885
OF
WASHINGTON, D. C.

A GREAT NATIONAL FAMILY PAPER.

Devoted to the Interests of the SOLDIERS AND SAILORS of the War of the Rebellion.

Eight Large Pages 56 Broad Columns.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

The National Tribune, which is now entering upon its eighth year, is "one of the phenomenal journalistic successes of the day." No other paper in the Country ever attained so extensive a circulation in so short a time. It has now 11[illegible] subscribers at 17,213 Post-Offices—a circulation equalled by less than a half dozen other papers in the whole country—and none of which ever secured the position without scores of years of hard work.

The National Tribune owes its unusual success to its great merits. No expense has been spared in securing the best writers and in making the paper in the highest degree attractive. It aims to sketch events and movements of the war, furnished by men who took an active and frequently a leading part in the events they describe. It has

First-class Stories,
G. A. R. News,
Editorials on Current Topics,
Washington News,
Household Hints and Helps,
Farming Talks,
Answers to Correspondents,
Condensed News of the Week.

In short, everything that can interest every member of the family.

No weekly newspaper in the country spends as much money for original contributions as The National Tribune.

It has constantly grown better ever since it was started, and will grow better continually.

MANY NEW ATTRACTIONS

will be presented next year.

TWENTY GENERALS,

prominent in the war, have promised contributions on great events of the war, and other new and attractive feature will be presented.

It is a paper that every ex-Soldier and every one interested in the history of the war or the Union ought to have.
