THE COLUMBIAN.

U. S. OFFICIAL PAPER.

NEWS DROPS.

We met Genl. Williams on the street in Portland.

There was a big fight on the Clatskanie about a cow-bell.

The Howell mansion on Sauvie's Island has been newly shingled.

Ourself and nephew had a fine time eating cherries in S. A. Miles's orchard.

Great fears are entertained of damage to the crops through the long continued rain.

Captain Lemont and wife will leave in about a month to make a tour to Maine.

T. S. Wilkes, County Surveyor, will be at St. Helens June 29th, and will remain one week.

Mrs. Burke in Portland intends soon to leave on a visit to her old home in Quebec.

Charles Bryant, cousin of the Clatskanie Bryants, is said to be one of the best Greek and Hebrew scholars in the United States.

The Bryant family are descended from the Stouts all fighting men and said to have the rattle-snake's venom inoculated in their veins.

It is rumored that Mr. Alfred Davis; and family are soon to leave St. Helen also Mr. Drew and family, who will go on a farm in Chehalis valley.

Judge F. A. Moore has been appointed Commissioner of deeds for Washington Territory by Governor Squire, and has obtained his seal ready for business.

Mrs. Judge Moore had her quilting-bee in honor of Mrs. Major Adams, giving the ladies of St. Helen a last chance to meet Mrs. Adams ere her departure East.

We have received Prentice's "Musical Home Journal." It contains many fine pieces, both vocal and instrumental. It also has a notice of the new and popular book, "Organ Pearls."

THE COLUMBIAN has the finest rooms in St. Helens, and the most commodious. They are in the best business part of the town, adjacent to the wharves, convenient to the post office and all public buildings.

Dr. H. K. Hines will preach in the Bay View school house the fourth Sunday in June, at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Sacrament will be administered after the morning service.

Mrs. Bonner has fully recovered, and the boy that was born after his mother was so terribly gored by a cow is a very smart child. The Bonners are Illinoisans. Dr. Thomas Stewart managed the case with much skill.

It takes 18000 shingles to cover the new house of John Waud which he is building to take the place of the one that was burned at East Portland. It will be a very stylish residence, and will be built much cheaper than in flush times.

We met Miss Lewis on the Manzanillo, on Wednesday. She belongs to one of the old aristocratic Hudson Bay families. She stated Mrs. Hart was assistant in a hotel at Olympia, and Mr. Oscar Hart was working on Lewis river, both struggling to make a living.

We attended the Casino on Tuesday evening on invitation of Arthur McGraw of Bradbury. that prince of good fellows. The play of Satanella was on the boards, and was very sentimental, and pleased everybody. There was a big rush, and the house was jammed full. The heroine went to Heaven on a rainbow at last, having passed through sheol and other sea-ports.

It is the intention here to have a genealogy and history of the Caples and Waud families. Mrs. Nancy Waud will will donate $1000 to this purpose. Her memory is a great store house of facts. The history will be very interesting, and full of incidents that will rival the life of Joe. Meek. Uncle Joe's history would beat anything we knowof if written in proper shape.

As my book-keeper Mr. Giltner will soon leave St. Helens to be absent several weeks, I must ask all owing me on account to call and settle before April 5th.

All persons whose accounts were overdue January 1st, 1884 will save costs by making settlement by note or otherwise before April 12th, 1885.
