We have leased for a term of years refitted and furnished as a private Hospital and Sanitarium, the "Hawthorn Asylum" buildings in East Porsland. The buildings and out-buildings (laundry, kitchen, etc.,) are more than ample, having a capacity for two hundred patients. The grounds cover some eighty acres, or more, and are acknowledged to be the finest in the Northwest. The location is in every way desirable; being on the east side of the river, we secure the quiet retirement and healthful freshness of the country, while we are in the borders and have all the advan

The sanitary surroundings are simply perfect, the location has been noted for the past twenty years for its healthy, dry situation, its flowing springs of pure water, and its beautiful ornamental grounds. This institution we have opened for the reception of patients, both male and female, that may
