Local News.

Quite a number of new faces appeared upon our streets this week.

Major Adams has been away all week in Portland and Vancouver in the interest of the COLUMBIAN.

Dr. Davis, of La Centre, will purchase Indian relics—especially rare ones, and will pay a good cash price for the same.

A great many steamships are passing St. Helens at this writing. Most of them seem to bear the English flag.

We notice that some improvements were being made to the sidewalks in town this week. A much needed improvement.

Dr. J. M. Roberts has returned from Southern Oregon and will resume his visits to points on the Columbia river, commencing October 23d at Beaver Valley.

All the boats upon the river seem to be doing a good business this fine weather, and the people are taking advantage of this weather in getting ready for winter.

Postmaster Steele is the kindest man we ever knew. His heart is true as Steele. It is a dear name to us, and sounds good and rings good as a Damascus blade.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement that appears this week of the New York Jewelry Store. All trading with them will find that they will get their money's worth.

We received a pleasant call from Mr. B. Wiggin, of Rainier. He renewed his subscription for the COLUMBIAN. He said the people throughout the county were for the COLUMBIAN first, last and all the time.

On Wednesday night of last week we received a regular ovation at the Mechanics' Pavilion from such people as Mayor Gates and wife, Hon. Henry Failing, Judge Shattuck, Judge Stott, Judge Fechheimer, J. B. Congle and others of like standing.

We received a visit this week at our office from old gentleman McNulty. He said he is 88 years of age. He seems to be quite hale and hearty for such an old person. His father is yet alive at the advanced age of 112 years. He lives in St. Lawrence county, N. J. It would seem that the McNulties belong to a long-lived race.

We pleaded two cases on Saturday before Justice W. H. Whitney at St. Helens. One was against Charles Larsen for threatening to kill Driskell. He was honorably acquitted. Bucey, a lawyer from Tacoma, was on the part of the prosecution. We did our best, and every one said we did well. The other case was against Driskell for maltreating Henry Larsen's cow. The defendant, Driskell, was acquitted. The Major will practice hereafter in the justices' courts of Columbia county when requested to do so.

We have received a letter from Mrs. Adams dated Oct. 13th, 1885. We make an extract.

Blanche likes her school and Birney is learning some; he worries about his Papa, and says very pitifully often "I want to see Papa," but Blanche has naturally so much faith like her Grandfathers, that she says "If Papa was arrested every day he would come out all right." It seems hard that all you earn must go to Flagg or the lawyers instead of yourself and family but if you come out all right at last I suppose you can bear it. Many prayers for you and Arthur, for your health and for wisdom to manage your affairs. Affectionately from

M. E. A.
