Local News.

Weather fine very fine for this time of year. We received this week a visit from Ale Near of Near City.

J. M. Densmore of Hillsboro was in town this week Wednesday. Dr. Davis, of La Grange, will purchase Indian relics.

The Columbian is becoming a very pure paper, as proof see its whiteness this week.

We received a letter from the Board of Immigration which will appear next week as it came too late for this issue. Look it for the Columbian! For next month it will be just twice as large as heretofore, therefore this week we have taken a rest.

We received this week from N. W. Ayres & Son The American Newspaper Annual. It appears to be just such a look as is needed in every Printing Office.

Mr. J. M. Densmore is an authorized representative of the Columbian, he also has a number of other first-class papers that he is canvassing for. We commend him to the people of Oregon and Washington, Ty, whom we hope will extend to him a helping hand.

New Goods - Cass System. We are informed that new goods will soon be opened at Mr. Whitfield's store bought for cash and to be sold for cash.

A GIFT. Send this a present and we will mail you a book. It is a book of good, valuable, simple, and of great value.
