Republican Club Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Benton Mc-Kinley Club, at the Court ouse in Corvallis, Saturday evening, December 30th, 1899, at 8 o'clock p. m. Important business to attend to including election of officers, and of delegates to the State League and Republican Clubs. All members are requested to attend. There will be an interesting program prepared including music and an address by a prominent republican speaker.

AMEND THE LAW.

Much has been said through the public print regarding the continual spread of smallpox throughout the state. While our sister town Albany was being troubled with the disorder one of the officials of the Corvallis & Eastern railroad said that the disease had been brought there by persons who had become afflicted up along the railroad where is generally termed "the front," which is near the Cascade mountains. One of our exchanges says that "It is asserted that brewers, in order to reduce the quantity of this a new wrinkle for a general to hops used in making beer, have resorted to the use of acids, which are injurious to health, and this tends to keep down the price of hops by diminishing consumption."
