RESCUED FROM FILIPINOS

American Prisoners Are Now
All Free.

SUCCESSFUL END OF PURSUIT

The Remaining Members of the Yorktown Party Believed to Be at Vigan —Campaign in Cavite.Washington, Jan. 8.—After a silence of several days, General Otis is able to notify the war department of the complete success of the military operations in Northwest Luzon, the main object of which was the rescue of the American prisoners which the insurgents took with them in their flight.Although General Otis does not specify Lieutenant Gilmore, U. S. N., by name, the wording of his message is taken to mean that that officer is among the list of rescued prisoners.General Otis' message is as follows:
"Manila.—Colonels Hare and Howe have just arrived at Vigan, Northwest Luzon, with all the American prisoners. Their successful pursuit was a remarkable achievement."Schwan and Wheaton are now with separate columns in Cavite province.
"Affairs in Luzon, north of Manila, have greatly improved. OTIS."

Manila, Jan. 8.—Advices from Magalang province of Pangasinan, report and horribly mutilated. Three of the men are dead and the other two are recovering. Captain Conhauser set fire to the barracks and the town.

TO BUILD TO GRANT.

Railroad Company Organized, Stock Taken, Work Begun.La Grande, Or., Jan. 8.—Articles of incorporation have been filed for the Hilgard, Granite & Southwestern Railway Company, with a capital stock of $60,000 place of business, La Grande.
The incorporators are: J. M. Chubb, cashier of the La Grande National bank; Robert Smith, manager of the Grand Route Lumber Company; J. M.
Berry, merchant. At a meeting of the stockholders, the following officers were elected: Robert Smith, vice-president; F. S. Stanley, treasurer; J. M.
Chubb, secretary; E. W. Bartlett.All the stock is subscribed, and President Smith has gone to Chicago to close arrangements for the construction of the railway from Hilgard, a point on the O. R. N., seven miles west of La Grande, to Granite, a central point of the Eastern Oregon mining district.
It is announced by Secretary Bartlett that work on the preliminary survey will begin at once. The proposed route is about 60 miles in length, and follows the greater part of the way a water route up the Grande Ronde river.The proposed route, connecting the important mining centers of the northwestern section of Eastern Oregon with the agricultural section of Grande Ronde, and it is assured that La Grande will be virtually the northern terminus.Extensive bodies of timber lie contiguous to the route. The movement is hailed with great delight by La Grande people, who have faith in the financial ability of the incorporators to carry out the project. It is stated by officials of the company that one-half the capital stock was subscribed in Portland. The movement is regarded as one of prime importance in the rapid development of the mineral and agricultural resources of Eastern Oregon.

Another Island Taken.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The United States navy has taken possession of another island in the East. The news of the seizure was contained in the following dispatch:"Cavite, Jan. 8.—On December 21, Washington, commanding the Albatross (a little gunboat), hoisted the flag on Sibutu island and the chief deo provided and raised the pole. Natives and North Borneo authorities pleased.The island lies at the southwestern angle of the boundary line of the quadrangle enclosing the Philippine group.
It is probably outside of the line, and lies very near the coast of Borneo, coming from the Philippine group, but is not one of the islands of the Philippines. The sultan of Jolo, whose group is close to this island, is believed to claim jurisdiction over it, and as his authority is recognized by the native tribes on the north coast of Borneo and vicinity, it is believed his claim is well founded. It was probably at his instance that the naval officer commanding the gunboat moved.

MAKES ONE'S FLESH CREEP.

Wholesale Cannibalism in the Congo Free State.New York, Jan. 8.—A special to the Times from Nashville, Tenn., says: The Southern Presbyterian board of missions in this city received letters today from Rev. L. C. Vass, and Rev. H. P.
Hawkins, missionaries of the church stationed at Luebe, Congo Free State, Africa, giving accounts of the burning of 14 villages and the killing of 90 or more natives by state troops. They report that some of the victims were eaten by cannibals, and that the bodies of all who were slain were mutilated, their heads having been cut off.Mr. Vass was formerly of Newbern, N. C., and has been engaged in mission work at Luebe since February 18, 1899. Mr. Hawkins was formerly at Vicksburg, Miss. Mr. Vass states that the burning of the Zappo Zappo in the Benue-Kameroo country having reached them, and the work of the missionaries being threatened, the Rev.
Mr. Sheppard was sent to make an investigation. He went to the Zappo Zappo camp. They are sent out to be destroyed by fire and plundered.
He saw 47 bodies lying about the camp. From three bodies the flesh had been carved and eaten. The chief said that 80 or 90 natives had been killed and five persons had been captured. He saw 81 right hands cut off and lying about the camp. He said the raid was ordered because the people could not pay the exorbitant tribute demanded by the state. The missionaries say that they reported the matter to the proper officials, and demanded the withdrawal of the troops, and that the chief instituted a counter prosecution on account of the charges made.
The missionaries further say the Zappo Zappo are a tribe kept by the state for to collect rubber, ivory, slaves and goats as tribute from the people, and can then plunder, burn and kill for their own amusement and gain. The missionaries say they are collecting evidence about the matter, and will send it to Boma and to Europe. Mr.
Vass says:"The whole country is pillaged and not a village left standing. The people are driven about in the night in a state of about 75 miles there are possibly 50,000 people sleeping in the bush, unsheltered and weary, in the midst of a rainy season. The state is a terror to every one."

Executors' Big Fees.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Robert T. Lincoln and Norman B. Ryan, executors of the estate of George M. Pullman, were today allotted as compensation for their services the sum of $425,000. The order was entered by Judge Bates, in the probate court. This is said to be the largest amount in fees ever allowed executors of any estate handled by the probate court here.Another order was made, fixing the widow's award at $20,000. The final accounting of the executors of the Pullman estate is expected to be made next week. It is said that the estate, which was listed at about $8,000,000 when the will was probated, will now figure up to nearly $14,000,000.

To Send More Soldiers to Cape Nome.

Washington, Jan. 8.—At the cabinet meeting today, it was definitely decided to send an additional company of infantry to the spring. The points to which they will be sent have not been determined upon, except Cape Nome, where it is estimated there will be 30,000 people as soon as navigation opens.This place is now without a garrison of any kind, and some sort of a force will be necessary to protect the community against lawbreakers in the mad rush of people in the spring.

No Substantial Gains.

London, Jan. 8.—No decisive action is reported from South Africa this morning. The military activity being confined to points of subsidiary importance. In the central theater of operations the British apparently have received no substantial gains. The only displays of dramatic interest in the narrative of useless gallantry at the sortie from Mafeking, where the storm-ers threw themselves hopelessly against a strongly defended Boer work.

Ore Elevator Fell.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—An elevator in the furnace-room of the brass foundry of the works at Thirty-first street and Ashland avenue fell today instantly killing two workmen and injuring another so badly that he died a few minutes after being removed to the hospital. The dead are:

Joseph Middle, 32 years old, and Joseph Sack. The men were using an elevator used for carrying ore and blocks of iron to the upper rooms. When near the top the elevator cable parted and the car fell to the bottom of the shaft.

FOUR HOURS' BOMBARDMENT

Prolonged Attack Made on British at Ladysmith.

WHITE REPORTS A VICTORY

British Make a Heavy Attack on Colonel-Chevaly Camp in the Height of Activity—Hard Fighting on.London, Jan. 9.—The Daily Mail has the following, dated January 6, at noon, from Frere camp:"The daily attack this morning very heavy firing began at Ladysmith. It lasted fully four hours, and must have meant either a sortie by the British or a determined attack on the garrison by the Boers. Our shells could be seen falling on Unbuthana hill and the enemy were replying."Besides the cannon reports, there were sounds indicating small pieces of artillery in action. The fighting must have been at closer range than has been stated up to now."Our naval guns at Chevaly sent their usual fire into the Boer trenches, but there has been no further movement here.The Daily Telegraph has the following from Frere camp, dated Saturday:"A very heavy bombardment went on at Ladysmith from daybreak until this morning. It is believed that an engagement was in progress, for musketry fire was also heard. It is possible the garrison was making a sortie, for the Boers at Colenso hurriedly left their trenches and rode toward Ladysmith."Our big naval gun at Chevaly camp fired several rounds at the enemy as they were leaving their Colenso lines. General Buller has ridden on to Chevaly with his staff."A special dispatch from Frere camp, dated Saturday evening, says:"General White telegraphs that he defeated the Boers this morning. They crept up so close to the defending forces that the Gordon Highlanders and the Manchester Highlanders repulsed them at the point of the bayonet."

SAFE IN MANILA.

Experience of Lieutenant Gilmore With the Tagals.Manila, Jan. 9.—Lieutenant J. C.
Gilmore, of the United States gunboat Yorktown, who was captured by the insurgents last April, near Balor, arrived today on the steamer Venus from Vigan, province of South Luzon, with nineteen other American prisoners, including seven of his sailors, from the Yorktown. Lieutenant Gilmore, after reporting, came ashore and hob-bied to see the city, and then to the Hotel Oriente, where American officers and ladies were waiting through the halls to the strains of "Auld Acquaintance."The high standard and ready from ex-posure, he is stout and narrow, showing the results of long hardships. He speaks warmly of Aguinaldo, and very bitterly against General Tio, declaring that while in the former's jurisdiction he was treated splendidly, but that after he fell into Tio's hands, he suffered everything.Colonel Hare and Lieutenant-Colonel Howe, the latter of the Thirty-fourth regiment, accompanied Gilmore's party on December 18, near the headwaters of the Abulit river, after they had been abandoned by the Filipinos and were expecting death from the savage tribes around them.When the rescuing force reached them, they were nearly starved, but were building rafts in the hope of getting down the river to the coast.Lieutenant Gilmore could not speak enough about the 140 picked men who had rescued him and his party.While they were in the hands of Tio's men he issued an order that any person aiding an American by food or money should be treated as a criminal.
One citizen of Vigan, Senor Vera, was probably killed for betraying them.Lieutenant Gilmore declined to speak regarding political matters, but except to say that he thought the insurrection would last as long as there were any Tagals left.Describing the fight from Benguet, where the Americans approached, Lieutenant Gilmore said:"The Filipinos, completely terrified, left Benguet December 7. They hurried the prisoners from town to town until retreating the trail, not knowing where the Americans would enter."After being almost without food for three days, they killed several horses, and we lived on horse flesh for several days. I did not have a full meal from Benguet until I reached Vigan.Indeed, the rescuing party lived largely upon rice without salt. There was one day when I was reduced to chew-
