SAYINGS OF M'KINLEY.

President McKinley has the faculty of being able at all times to say the appropriate thing, and in few words, meaning so much.

"We have had our blessings and our burdens, and still have both. We will soon have the legislative assurance of the continuance of the gold standard, with which we measure our exchange, and we have the open door in the far East, through which to market our products.

"There are unfortunately those among us, few in number I am sure, who seem to thrive best under bad times and who, when good times overtake them in the United States, feel constrained to put us on bad terms with the rest of mankind.

THE DEMOCRATIC DILEMMA.

Speaking of the proceedings of the democratic national committee in Washington last week, the correspondent of a Boston paper that supported Cleveland says in winding up a report of the meeting: "Behind the scenes it was interesting to observe that the majority of the committeemen do not now expect that Mr. Bryan will be elected."

Marcus Gragg, who has been attending school in Philomath, has returned home, and the bass drum will suffer.

"After doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles of it cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. It cured my grandchildren of the worst cases," writes Jno. Berry, Logan, Pa.

the smallest comparatively in the history of the state.

As far as the facts of the political situation are revealed the democrats can make nothing either with Bryan or without him, so they are disposed to let things drift, knowing at least that another defeat will lessen his superficial popularity, representing now, as always, a great deal more noise than votes.

When we compare the business of the United States with foreign nations during the preceding administration, when the balance of trade was running against us, so was money, interest, all kinds of trade and commerce, as well as having a mighty panic on hand, what a great and wonderful contrast, compared with the last two years of the present administration in which "our sales exceeded our purchases by over one billion of dollars."

It is claimed that all travelers going to Vancouver, British Columbia by either steamer or train are approached by parties who force all to undergo vaccination.

From Dusty.

There is not much complaint about the dust being troublesome. Quite a good deal of plowing has been done in this vicinity, but very little seed has been sown.

One day last week Mrs. David Perin, while on her way to Corvallis, was, owing to a loose seat, thrown from the hack, and in the fall sustained a fracture of one bone in her wrist, also a sprain of the same wrist.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. George Householder, who has been suffering all winter with neuralgia, is no better.

Mr. George Buckingham is very poorly. He has a type of consumption.

Mr. Win Larkins has not yet recovered from the mumps. One day last week ten men met and cut a supply of wood for him. Mr. Larkins is a member of the Monroe camp of Woodmen of the World, from which lodge he has received much substantial aid—a sample of the good work this lodge and other similar organizations are doing in this land of ours.

At the school meeting Mr. Waltz was elected director, and W. S. Humphrey clerk.

Much complaint is heard because the mail here is one day late most of the time. We are supposed to get a daily mail, but for some reason (which is not much of a mystery) it does not arrive on time. But no blame is laid to the present mail-carrier, we think.

My little girl's hair did not grow. It was harsh and dry, and would break off, and her scalp was red and itchy. I used CUTICURA and soon her hair began to grow and was soft and silky. MRS. A. DOWNEY, Alfred, O.

Warm shampoos with CUTICURA Soap and light dressings with CUTICURA, prevent dandruff, and clear the scalp and soothe the skin, and, in fact, soothe irritated and itching surfaces.
