The Albany People's Press publishes a notice which says that "Correspondents will please use no offensive personalities, as such will not be published" (unless indulged in by the editor).

The delegates elected to the Philadelphia national convention at McMinnville, Tuesday, were instructed to elect McKinley.

The Republican County Convention of Benton County, on last Saturday, finished their labors after nominating a complete ticket. The several candidates nominated are long and respected residents of the county, favorably known and thoroughly well qualified for the duties of the respective offices.

One of the most deplorable conditions of American politics is the conduct of many of the newspapers and individual members of opposing parties, after candidates are nominated for office to continue through the campaign preceding the election a persistent and continuous practice of communicating defamatory stories regarding the character and integrity of opposing candidates.

CITY MAY BE BONDED.

Several matters of importance engaged the attention of the council at its last regular meeting. A motion that "The street committee be instructed to confer with the college sewer committee and have a contract entered into as per agreement," was passed.

The following ordinance to submit to the people the proposition to issue bonds not to exceed $10,000 to take up the outstanding warrants, was passed under suspension of the rules: "An ordinance providing for submitting to a vote of the qualified electors, of the city of Corvallis, a proposition to vote for or against the issuing and selling bonds of the city of Corvallis, in a sum not exceeding $10,000.00."

"Whereas, The city of Corvallis, has outstanding warrants in the sum of $14,000.00 drawing six per cent interest, and it is desirable to fund said indebtedness, that the same may bear a less rate of interest per annum, and it being to the general interest of the city, to issue and dispose of bonds to create such a fund, therefore the city of Corvallis does ordain as follows:

"That the proposition to vote for or against the issuing and disposing of bonds to pay the outstanding warrants of the city of Corvallis, not exceeding $10,000.00 be submitted to the legal voters of the city of Corvallis, at its next general election to be held on the 21st day of May A. D. 1900.

"And that the police judge be, and he is hereby instructed to place the following words submitted at such general election, "For Bonds," "Against Bonds," and give notice of such question of bonds to be voted on at such general election, to the legal voters of said city, by publishing the same in newspapers to-wit: Corvallis Times and UNION-GAZETTE for four weeks, and by posting in three public and conspicuous places in the city of Corvallis, one in each ward."

The chief of police was instructed to order the streets and alleys cleaned. Petition for a sidewalk on the east side of Third street, between Tyler and Polk, was referred to the street committee.

A Radir was ordered to build sidewalk on south side of Graham property. Police judge was instructed to give the usual notice of city election to be held May 21st.

Caleb Davis, Wm Cress and J H Simpson were appointed judges, and J H Simpson and E R Bryson clerks, at the election to be held May 21st. Voting place will be the city hall. Bills to the amount of $285 on the general, and $14.05 on the street fund, were allowed.
