

BRYAN A POPULIST.

A brief consideration of Mr. Bryan's traits and surroundings will satisfy those who still claim to belong to the traditional democratic party...

In Nebraska the democratic party is hopelessly scattered, absorbed and practically eliminated. Mr. Bryan feels most at home when addressing the populists of the Northwest...

Every time this country has added territory to her domain the spectre of the Roman republic has been conjured up to frighten her out of her new possessions. When Thomas Benton advocated the acquisition of Oregon he was treated to more ancient history than the average man hears in a lifetime...

We are assured by a disciple of Mr. Bryan that no matter who is elected "the gold standard law is in effect and will remain in effect throughout the coming administration."

It is amusing to see our demopop brethren quarreling over the reason of the present prosperous condition of the country. It suffices the average voter to know that the country is prosperous, and he will vote to continue the party in power that made it so.

"If elected, Bryan can do no harm," loudly protests a demopop contemporary. Can he do any good? This is a progressive nation, and it wants men who can accomplish something. What Bryan can do and not what he can't do, is what we are waiting to hear.

Council Doings.

At its July meeting the council transacted the following business:

W. E. Yates was re-elected city attorney. The matter of framing an ordinance to regulate connections with the sewer, was given consideration, but no action was taken.

Warrants, amounting to $4,000 on the general fund, and $300 on the street fund, were ordered drawn.

Liquor licenses were issued to Kirk & Wiley, and Smith & Kreins for six months.

Petition of I. B. Hunt asking that an alley be opened in the Shaw-Spangler block was referred to the street committee.

The wet weather has somewhat damaged the hay crop. Nearly all the hay in this section is clover. Lobster is the best clover region in the state.

Mrs. Cox, widow of the late Joe Cox, who was killed in an accident at Walters' mill about a year ago, has moved to Lobster.
