with 300 plants in the cotton states and controlling the roundbale process, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The American Cotton Company is shown to have an omnivorous appetite for smaller concerns and for monopelizing an important industry. Senator Jones is not disposed to let the Tammany ice trust put on airs over the western branch of the democratic party. His vallis, Or., to estimate the proportionate cotton bale trusts is one of the fattest monopolies yet taken into the courts.

Hon. Charles Denby, of Indi-ana, ex-United States Minister Corvallis, Oregon, to the northeast cor-ner of the Oreamery building on Lot 7. ana, ex-officed States Minister to China, and a life-long demo-crat, has announced his inten-tion of supporting McKinley. In a public letter entitled "Bryan's Attitude Towards the Philip-pines," he says Bryan had the coveral owners and Clara Hitchens; Lots 11 and 12, Block 5, owner Elmer E. Pad-dock; Lots 3 and 10 and the south 1635 dock; Lots 3 and 10 and the south 16% feet of 4 and 9, Block 5, owner Ceatta C. Hartless; Lots 6 and 7 and the north 16½ feet of 5 and 8, Block 5, owner Isabella Gellatly; and the south 33½ feet of Lots 5 and 8 and the north 33½ feet of Lots 4 and 9, Block 5, owner Core M. Davisor all the above late back power to defeat the treaty with Spain, but preferred to let it create an election issue. In conclusion he says: "I am not de-fending the republican party in this article, but I am defending William McKinley. He has been subjected to more abuse than any president ever was and he has deserved it as little as any one ever did. In the most diffi-cult period of our history he has proved himself equal to all the demands upon him. He has acted with an eye single to the good of the country. The war with Spain was not the presi-dent's seeking, but he met the issue with courser. In diploma. clusion he says: "I am not dedent's seeking, but he met the issue with courage. In diploma-cy he displayed qualities of the highest order, and in military affairs he was remarkably suc-cessful. He eminently deserves re-election." of making said estimate. WM. CREES, re-election."
