BE NOT ALARMED.

A contemporary of questionable sanity, published not a thousand miles from Corvallis, is visibly affrighted over the possibility of this country being inundated by a flood of Filipino immigrants.

But climatic and other conditions in the North and West were not congenial to the negro, and after nearly 40 years we still find him south of Mason and Dixon's line.

Lincoln emancipated 3,000,000 slaves and conferred upon them the rights of citizenship. They were all in this country, but neither our citizens nor our institutions have suffered from that act.

If these people love their country as we are told they do, and are willing to make the sacrifices for it, that we are told they are, they will not desert it for a land uncongenial in climate and customs.

Our Men's and Boys' New Fall Stock of Clothing is the largest and best we have ever owned. Nolan & Callahan.

If by some wonderful hokus pokus or hidden charm our sovereignty over the islands should suddenly find the people of the Philippines seized with a desire to swarm to our shores...

would scarcely be enough to flood the United States. But these people will not come to our shores in any number...

Speaks for Itself.

The exhibit of the Corvallis Sawmill Company at the State Fair attracted so much attention that Col. H. E. Dosch asked for it in order to place in the Chamber of Commerce in Portland.

The whole was most artistic in design and the workmanship was of the highest order. The Sawmill Company have decided to allow the Chamber of Commerce the exhibit.
