

A Woman's Mistake

It is a well-known fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured more women than any other remedy. It therefore must be the best possible medicine for women.

But some women make the mistake of thinking that they will try something else, simply because it is new. That mistake is often a fatal one, fatal to the health and happiness of the experimenter.

It is not foolish to risk the possible results of such experiments? Is it not better to depend upon a medicine which has been tried successfully for thirty years, and which has never been found wanting? Do not therefore let any one persuade you to try something which they say is just as good. It cannot be just as good. Mrs. Pinkham's Compound is the best, and there can be only one best. This is not a mere assertion, but a positive fact, admitted by hundreds of regular physicians.

Rely on your own common sense, and Mrs. Pinkham's life-long experience, and you will make no mistake. Don't experiment with your health, but take a medicine that you know is good, and is backed by such letters as these to Mrs. Pinkham:

Ovarian Troubles Always Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I had been in poor health for twenty years, having inflammation of ovaries and womb trouble. Although treated by physicians, I could not gain strength nor sleep. My health was low-spirited and tired of life. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first bottle strengthened me, and I wrote to you. After taking a few bottles I say that I am well and can even do my own washing."—Mrs. M. W. MILLER, No. 1033 Canal Street, New Orleans, La.

"For three years I suffered with ovarian trouble, having inflammation and an abscess on the right ovary. Had such pain in my back and head, and at times was unable to walk. Had several doctors, but they did not do me much good. One doctor said that I would have to change my residence and have the ovary removed. I became discouraged and gave up all hopes of getting well. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham and followed her directions faithfully, and am better than I have been for three years. I have taken ten bottles, and my friends are surprised at my rapid improvement."—Mrs. H. W. ALLEN, Cold Spring Harbor, L. I., N. Y.

Suppressed and Painful Periods Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I was thin, sallow and nervous. I had not had my menses for over a year and a half. Doctored with several physicians in town and one specialist, but did not get any better. I finally decided to try your medicine, and wrote to you. After had taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three of Blood Purifier, my menses returned, and I feel as well as strong as I ever did, and am gaining flesh."—MRS. LENA GAINES, Visalia, Tulare Co., Cal.

"Before taking the Vegetable Compound I was troubled with irregular menstruation, and suffered great agony. My physician gave me morphine, and I remained in bed, doctored eight years and got no relief, and the doctors told me there was no relief for my trouble. Finally I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. While taking the first bottle I felt that I was improving. I have taken seven or eight bottles, and never had anything to do me so much good. Every month my troubles have grown less and less, and now at this time I am cured."—ELLA QUINCY, No. 22 Stage Street, Haverhill, Mass.

Baackache and Womb Troubles Succumb to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been for ten years an invalid with female weakness, and the torture and pain I suffered no tongue can tell. I never spent one week in the ten years that I was free from pain. My trouble was inflammation and congestion of womb. When I commenced to take your remedy I had been bedfast for some time under the treatment of two of our best physicians without receiving any benefit. You can imagine the benefit I derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I tell you that I have gained forty pounds and am well—a thing I never dared to expect."—MRS. C. E. FOLAND, Monett, Mo.

"For a number of years I was troubled with backache and leucorrhoea. I became so weak and miserable that I could not attend to my work or studies. The least exertion would completely exhaust me. Physicians failed to help me. I felt that my youth was blighted, and the life before me would be one of suffering and misery. Then a friend insisted on me taking your medicine. Before I had used one bottle I was greatly relieved. I had not known a well day for four years, but now I feel better than I have since a child, and it is all due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Miss MAY B. STEVENSON, Alliance, O.

COLORADO GOLD MINERS.

The Development of Gold Properties Has Been Amazing.

It is the frequency of discoveries of gold in all the leading silver producing camps of the state that gives continued new impetus to the development of the mines and adds no inconsiderable part to the mineral wealth of Colorado.

Under such conditions the silver question naturally cuts very little figure politically, although Mr. Bryan, against the counsel of the wise and conservative element of his party, stubbornly insisted that the silver plank of the Chicago platform should be reaffirmed in its entirety as a "paramount" condition of his accepting the nomination. In the mining states, however, "sixteen-to-one" has been weighed in the balance of common sense and found wanting. Whilom silver leaders seem to be disappearing from Colorado, or returning to the Republican fold, and even the repeal of the Sherman act is a blessing in disguise. In the beginning that measure undoubtedly had a bad effect on the mining industry. But, while driving the men out of employment and closing mines, it also impelled prospectors to the search for gold and copper, and as a striking result, Colorado possesses now one of the greatest gold-producing areas in the world. Millions of dollars have poured into the state for investment. New industries have sprung up. Old plants have increased their capacity. More men are employed and at better wages than ever before. City treasuries are full and public improvements are progressing in every side.

What is true of Colorado, applies with equal force to other mining states. Prosperity is visible everywhere, and little attention is paid to silver as a live political issue. "Sixteen-to-one" will doubtless be left to take care of itself in mining sections during this campaign.

The honest miner knows a good thing when he has it. He is not seeking to change. And as natural resources are promoting the great mining industry of the country, he is not liable to support any movement which relies upon extraneous or moribund theories to bring about legitimate industrial and financial results.

JOHN W. POSTGATE.

BRYAN CLAUSES ARE HERE.

Manufacturers Look for Disaster if He Is Elected.

Manufacturers and their immediate customers are beginning to get themselves into a state of great concern that they know would ensue in the event of the election of Mr. Bryan. Reports from all over the country indicate that "Bryan" clauses are soon to be the rule in signing new contracts. The latest is a contract entered into between the New Haven Carriage Company and the J. Curley Company, of Brooklyn. The contract specifies that the New Haven Company shall furnish the Curley Company with a certain number of carriages at a certain price until November 15, 1901. With the contract received by the Curley Company was the following letter from the New Haven Company:

"We enclose herein agreements signed. You will notice that we have made an indorsement at the bottom. Will you please indorse this agreement. It is just as good policy for you to indorse it as it is for us, for you do not wish to be bound down by anything in case of such adverse circumstances as would occur in the event of Bryan's election."

The indorsement reads:

"This agreement to be null and void in case William J. Bryan is elected president of the United States in November, 1900."

Other large concerns are indorsing important contracts in this way, their managers well knowing that a long season of business depression would follow the success of the Democratic ticket. A large Philadelphia dry goods house in placing contracts abroad insists that the contracts be similarly indorsed.

The business men know what four years of Bryanism would mean to them, and the working people are equally aware of the fact. If these classes are not prosperous, they will be unable to consume as much of the products of the farm as they would in the event of Republican success, and the farmer knows the value of having an era of prosperity among those who eat and wear his products.

Poling Favors McKinley.

Judging by the results of the polls being taken in the big office buildings in Chicago, an immense vote will be piled up for McKinley and Roosevelt in the Republican wards of the city. That this will be true has become evident by the result of the poll in Marshall Field & Co.'s big store, in the Marquette building, where the vote is five to one, and in the Mandanook building where it is six to one in favor of the administration. The Rookery, one of the largest office buildings, shows a still larger McKinley percentage, the ratio being nine to one. The vote of the Rookery in detail is as follows: McKinley, 1,128; Bryan, 121; Woolley, 9; non-committal, 20; undecided, 26; total, 1,304. This class of voters is largely the same as supported Cleveland in 1892, and indicates to a certainty how the business men of the city feel toward continuing the present good times.

Crocker's Share of the Spoils.

I am pleased with the outlook in New York. Things are looking much better there than a month ago. What I have said about Bryan promising Crocker a cabinet position has been substantiated. I know that Bryan has promised to let Crocker distribute the federal patronage in New York, and if Bryan is elected Crocker can put former Senator Murphy in Bryan's cabinet.—Chairman M. A. Hanna.

Travelers Do Not Bite.

Bryan managers have dropped the scheme to catch the commercial travelers. The knights of the grip have declined to believe themselves unprotected. The latest polls among them are: McKinley, 85; Bryan, 9; Prohibition, 2; undecided, 5.

Colorado had 1,299,058 sheep valued at $2,396,295, or $1.85 per head in 1894. That was free trade. Colorado today has 2,185,327 sheep, valued at $6,250,036, or $2.88 per head. That is protection. Bryan said: "I am in favor of free wool."

The New Star Spangled Banner.

On the 13th day of September, 1814, during the bombardment of Fort Mifflin, Francis Scott Key composed the "Star Spangled Banner." The British fleet has attacked the fort, and the people were anxiously waiting for the dawn, to see whether the fort had surrendered. This situation gave to Mr. Key his motive.

Today our flag is floating over the Philippines. The Bryanites want to pull it down. All the patriotic citizens of the country are waiting to see whether it floats there after the next election. The rebels who are firing on the flag shall be conquered, and the Bryanites shall be defeated, and on November 7 the people of the country, with one voice shall sing:

"Let the Star Spangled Banner in triumph be waved,
O'er the lands we have freed, and the peoples we've saved.
The situation has inspired the "New Star Spangled Banner" which is as follows:
Oh, say, can you see, by the far eastern light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
After many a fight,
In lands so free, and far so gallantly streaming?
And the thanks in our prayer, rising high in the air,
Give proof to the world that our flag is still there;
Oh say, let that Star Spangled Banner be waved,
O'er the lands we have freed, and the peoples we've saved.
Oh, thus be it always, whenever we stand
Between the oppressed and king's desolation,
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven rescued land
Praise the power that hath made us a powerful nation.
And onward we must, for our cause it is just;
And this be our motto "In God is our Trust;"
Let the Star Spangled Banner in triumph be waved,
O'er the lands we have freed, and the peoples we've saved."

The Mandate of Party.

Could we have brought Dewey away without universal condemnation at any time from the 1st of May, the day of his brilliant victory which thrilled the world with its boldness and heroism? Was it right to order Dewey to go to Manila and capture and destroy the Spanish fleet, and despatch Merritt and his army to reinforce him? If it was duty to send them there, and duty required them to remain there, it was their clear duty to annihilate the fleet, take the city of Manila and destroy the Spanish sovereignty in the archipelago. Having done all that in the line of duty, is there any less duty to remain there and give to the inhabitants protection and also our guidance to a better government, which will secure them peace and order and security in their life and property and in the pursuit of happiness? Are we unable to do this? Are we to sit down in our isolation and recognize no obligation to a struggling people whose present condition we have contributed to make?—William McKinley.

Do You Want This to Return.

(From R. G. Day & Co.'s Review, Dec. 15, 1900.)
Mills are stopping in every direction and the army of unemployed is larger than it has been for many years. The struggle of the Pittsburg region for business drives prices to the lowest point ever known, $11 for Bessemer iron, $16.75 for steel billets, and takes away nearly all new work from the East and West, where depression increases. Wheat prices delivered one-half cent. The price of corn yielded one-half cent. Prices of hogs drop in spite of reports that they are proving of poor quality. The list of the week's failures include seven banks, an agricultural machinery establishment for $1,000,000, an iron works for $500,000, a lumber concern for $100,000 and a dry goods concern for $150,000.

Who Is Responsible.

Whatever show of resistance to our authority there is at the present time in the Philippines, will be kept up until after our election in November. The insurrection is kept alive by the leaders who hold out to the soldiers the hope of Bryan's election.—George Dewey.

Such a statement from so responsible an authority as Admiral Dewey constitutes an indictment against the Democratic cause so terrible in its significance, that the country, for the sake of charitable justice, has time and again asked the Democratic leaders to state the case in their own defense.

Patriotism Not a Monopoly.

Patriotism is not a monopoly of the Bryanarchists. It is a safe assumption that our next door neighbor is as patriotic as you. Hence the theory that the republic is unsafe with the Republican party is a myth. It has too often proved its patriotism in times of stress and peril.

Going is rarely known among the working classes of Ireland. Their immunity from this complaint is thought to be due to the fact that their food consists largely of potatoes.

The Issues Boiled Down.

I do not know of any stronger appeal that can be made for Republican votes than a recital of the last four years as compared with the previous four years. Boiled down the issues are McKinleyism and Bryanism. Boiled down it is free silver and free trade on Bryan's side and prosperity and development on ours. Out West the argument of "imperialism" is played out. Mr. Bryan will not talk free silver in the Empire state unless you force him to, and I want you to force him to. I have frequently expressed publicly that the Republicans in this state and country are feeling too sanguine as to the result.

The Republican national committee does not take any chances. The issues in this campaign are greater than in any other. A defeat would put us ten years behind.—Chairman M. A. Hanna, at New York.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years Dr. J. C. Smith, of this city, has used his special remedy, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Smith, of Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It offers one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. More Brilliant Than the Sun.

Prof. Simon Newcomb, writing of stars which are so distant that they have no measurable parallax, remarks that one of these, the brilliant Canopus, can be said, with confidence to be 1,000 times brighter than the sun. "Whether we should say 20,000, 10,000 or 5,000 no one can decide." The first magnitude stars, Rigel and Spica, also are at an immeasurable distance, and must, in view of their actual brightness, enormously outshine the sun.—Science.

"My Audience—And Myself."

Mr. Richard Mansfield has written for the current issue of Collier's Weekly a remarkable article, wholly different from anything he has already published, entitled "My Audience—And Myself." It contains many humorous and pathetic touches and some extremely interesting reminiscences.

Stop, Look and Listen!

The words quoted will recall to country residents and visitors the familiar signpost planted at many a railroad crossing. One may smile at the explicitness of the warning words, yet doubtless to many an incautious traveler they have been a source of destiny. There are promptings of the human conscience as persistent and continuous when the danger line is carelessly approached. The signal system of the moral nature did not happen. Its orders cannot be safely disregarded.

Second Attacks of Typhoid Fever.

The idea is that, as one attack of typhoid gives immunity from a second, temporarily, if not lasting, immunity might be acquired by inoculation with an attenuated dose of the poison. But one attack of typhoid does not give immunity from a second, says Dr. T. J. MacLagan in the British Medical Journal. Second attacks of typhoid are as common as by the ordinary doctrine of chances; they ought to be; more common, for instance, than second attack of pneumonia, in about the same proportion that first attacks are more common. If one attack of the fully developed disease does not give immunity, he concludes, inoculation with an attenuated dose of the poison can scarcely be expected to do so.

Novelty in Millinery.

A new adornment is fading favor among milliners. This consists of skeleton leaves preserved exactly as they fall from the tree and retaining their natural color. The leaves of the walnut, chestnut and plane trees are preferred for the purpose; large ivy leaves and oak leaves are also used. The longest leaves are formed into a large palette, one side being composed of a stiff painted feather, the other of the skeleton leaf, thus forming a broad garniture. A fine invisible wire fixed to the edge of the leaf prevents its crumpling. The smaller leaves are made into garlands mounted on an artificial or natural branch. The leaves have to be perfectly preserved as their beauty naturally lies in the delicacy and transparency of the fiber.—St. Louis Republic.

Pickled Peppers.

Cut out the stem of the peppers in a circle, remove the seeds and wash out in cold water; then fill each with a mixture of finely-chopped cabbage, horseradish, mustard seed, tiny cucumbers, button onions and nasturtiums. Replace the pieces cut from the top and sew around with coarse thread. Place in stone jars and cover with cold vinegar.

In Sweden, in 2,200 out of 2,400 rural parishes, the saloon has been suppressed. But under the "Gothenberg" system, according to which the government takes the management of all sales of intoxicants, the cities of Sweden are said to be the most drunken in Europe.

Striving to Cheapen Light.

Electricians confidently expect that their art will at a future day bring the cost of illumination down to a mere trifle compared with what it now is. As is well known, the most economical methods of lighting involve a waste of nearly all of the energy utilized. Prof. Langley says that the ideal light is that of the firefly, which is produced without heat or waste. If man could imitate it he would solve one of the most interesting and important problems.
