

For President: WILLIAM McKINLEY of Ohio. For Vice-President: THEODORE ROOSEVELT of New York.

WHICH IS RIGHT?

Our contemporary has abused us roundly for our defense of the volunteers against the vile attack of the young man Sanders.

Major Edwards, who was a corporal in the 2nd Oregon and is now commandant at the O A C, was in the islands from November, 1898, until the regiment returned home.

D. M. Osburn & Company take the Grand Prize at Paris.

D. M. Osburn & Co., who are exhibiting their line of harvesting machines at the Paris Exposition, have great reason to feel proud of the distinction won there by the excellent showing of their machines.

They have secured the highest award obtainable, not only for their Mower, Reaper and Self-Binding Harvester, but also their tedder, rake, and also their complete line of Peg, Spring and Disc Harrows.

Notwithstanding the tremendous competition of both American and Foreign exhibitors, the jury extended the Osborne line their highest tribute.

In addition to the grand prize, the Osborne Self-Binding Harvester and the Osborne Mower took the first prize at the great field trial held June 15, at La Garrie, France.

These were the only volunteers whom we had an opportunity to interview. They were unanimous in their endorsement of our article and emphatic in their denials of the assertions of Sanders.

Geo. F. Reed, private in the 2nd Oregon and a veteran of Malabon: "Who is this fellow Sanders? He speaks falsely when he says the natives never looted or burned, or that we were responsible for the beginning of hostilities. His attack was without foundation."

Our contemporary has taken it upon itself to assure its readers that there is no question about the political honesty of the editor of the GAZETTE.

But the assurance was unnecessary. We wish we could say as much for the editor of the Times. When the editor of this paper changes his political faith for business reasons, he will feel that the public and the party he represents will have cause to doubt his sincerity.

The commissioners to the Pan-American exposition held a meeting a few days ago in the Chamber of Commerce building at Portland and began active work in the matter of securing an appropriate exhibit from this state.

and to secure sufficient funds for the collecting and installment of the same. The board is composed of A. P. Tift, president; John Bogard, secretary; Henry B. Thielsen, treasurer; E. L. Smith, A. J. Johnson, W. T. Gardner and Edyth Tozier Wethered. Members have been assigned to the different departments.

Mr. Smith will look after horticulture. He is president of the state board of horticulture, and a man of wide experience and knowledge in fruit culture.

Mr. Henry B. Thielsen, a prominent business man of Salem, and a man who is thoroughly interested in the welfare of his adopted state, will pay strict attention to agriculture, selecting with care grains, grasses and all that comes under this head.

He has already been assured of able assistance in his collections. A. J. Johnson's work in the forestry exhibit is too well known in Oregon on other occasions to explain what he expects to do at Buffalo.

Oregon, being justly proud of her natural endowment of timber, will endeavor to have a display at the Pan-American exposition which will surpass anything heretofore attempted.

Mr. Johnson is already in receipt of an order from Buffalo for a carload of small Oregon firs with which to decorate the grounds.

John Bogard will make a specialty of the manufacturing interests, and will not only show to the world that Oregon is coming to the front in this line of enterprise, but that the possibilities and opportunities are many for future investment.
