

Ladies' Silk Waists

Good material. Good workmanship. New Styles. $7 to $10 each.

Underskirts

Mercedized cotton. Looks like silk. Wears as well as silk. Popular colors. $1.50 to $2.25 each.

Taffelene

For fine skirt linings and for shirt waists. Twelve shade. 50 cents per yard.

S. E. Young & Son, Albany, Oregon.

LOCAL NEWS.

F. L. Miller.

Mrs. Helm is visiting in Albany, the guest of Mrs. John Althouse.

Reduction sale in all kinds of men's and boys' clothing at Kline's. O. V. Hurt has accepted a situation in the establishment of S. L. Kline.

Mordant Goodnough has been quite ill with neuralgia in his head. At present he is somewhat improved.

There are no new cases of diphtheria reported from Duety and it is sincerely hoped that the dread disease has run its race in that locality.

The foot hills west of Corvallis were covered with snow again Saturday. This weather will have the effect of keeping fruit from starting out too soon.

Mrs. Schultz, of Spokane, Wash., arrived in this city a few days ago for a brief visit with her son, who is attending the O. A. C. Mrs. Schultz is a cousin of Mrs. P. Avery.

Miss Edna Irvine, who came near losing her life recently by accidentally inhaling chloroform, though still quite weak, was able to attend college yesterday morning.

The last issue of the Homestead contains a fine article, which was voiced by Dr. James Withycombe, of this city. The address is accompanied by a good half-tone of the doctor.

Miss Joyce Brownell and Rev. Howard L. Hopkins, pastor of the Congregational church at Paola, Kansas, were married in Albany last week. Prof. Gifford Nash played the wedding march.

Governor Geer issued a message to the people of Oregon, in which he proclaimed a half holiday in honor of John Marshall, who was chief justice of the supreme court of the United States for a period of 34 years, beginning February 4, 1801.

On motion of Senator Mulkey of Polk county, the courtesies of the senate were extended to ex-Senator Burnett of this county during his recent visit to the capital in the interest of the Agricultural College and Benton county.

Mrs. John Burnett was surprised last week by the visit of two sisters from Lane county, Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Ran, and her brother, T. D. Hinton, of Benton. At this time another sister, Mrs. Nellie Clark, of Heppner, was present and a most enjoyable time was experienced.

Junction Times is responsible for the following: County Surveyor Collier will arrive here Tuesday to run the line for the new railroad from here to Corvallis. With the assistance of H. S. Wallace and associates it is intended to complete the survey immediately in order to make the required showing to secure funds for building.

Fruitgrowers appear well satisfied with the weather as it has been of late, but some of our farmers and stockmen appear doubtful about the matter. The farmers seem to think that it may have a bad effect on the fall-sown wheat, while stock raisers are pretty certain that it has not been ideal weather for growing grass.

A week or two ago mention was made of the fact that the family of David Hood, living a few miles south of Philomath, were all afflicted with the measles and that Johnny Irwin, Mrs. Hood's brother had gone to assist in nursing them. Mrs. Hood is now reported to be out of danger, but it is feared that one of the children will not recover.

Members of O A C Battalion held a court-martial Friday evening in the presence of quite a number of people. The subject court-martialed was one of the sergeants, Frank Millhollen, and he was charged with having posted one of the battalion recruits on guard at the girl's dormitory—the last place on earth where there was need of a guard. Both sides of the case was ably presented, but it was evident from the first that Sergeant Millhollen was a doomed man. He was found guilty and sentenced to be shot at 2 p. m. Saturday. We are pleased to state that a reprieve arrived at the last moment, which granted him life and liberty. It was a good mock affair.

W. A. Sanders, the best watch maker.

Rev. J. H. Skidmore will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church each evening this week.

Mrs. E. A. Martin returned home Friday from a four-weeks' visit with relatives at Springfield.

Henry Dunn was in town, Saturday, after a severe attack of la grippe, which lasted several weeks.

Wanted, one hundred dozen fresh ranch eggs daily, for which we will pay the highest Portland price. F. L. MILLER.

If Lebanon keeps her "lick" up she will soon have considerable population—she has five pairs of twins attending the public school.

S. L. Kline left, Saturday, for a visit with his family in San Francisco. Mr. Kline was not enjoying the best of health when he departed.

S. L. Kline has the agency of Leob & Co. custom-made shirts, the most famous in America. Come in and see the beautiful patterns and have your measure taken in any style you want. Prices $1.25 to $3 each, at Kline's.

A team from this city, composed of ten or a dozen Woodmen of the World, will go out to Philomath, Friday evening, to assist in the work of initiating a number of men into the mysteries of the order. A good time is anticipated.

An exchange, speaking of the effort to divide the State Agricultural College, says that "it is scarcely the proper province of the state to bestow an education upon all who desire it." It also asks the question, "Are we to have no more 'self-made men'?"

Sup't Denman has issued the following certificates of perfect attendance to the following pupils who have neither been absent nor tardy for three months: Cora Chandler, Ewert Chandler, John Longbottom, Frank Edwards, Eta Phillips, Frank Peck, Freddie Peck and Myrtle Hastings.

Claude Riddle arrived in Grants Pass Friday to assume a position as local editor and reporter for the Observer. He was recently the printer of the Barometer, the college publication at Corvallis. Mr. Riddle is a very pleasant gentleman and we are glad to welcome him to Grants Pass.—Courier.

At the recent term of the Lincoln county circuit court, the case of G. F. Luckey, administrator of the estate of Mrs. L. A. S. Luckey, deceased, against Lincoln county was granted a change of venue to Linn county. This is the case that resulted from the death of Mrs. Luckey last summer, caused by collapse of a defective bridge, near Eddyville.

An effort is being made at the legislature to pass a new game law. It is the desire to formulate a law that will, as nearly as possible, meet with the approbation of the sportsmen, farmers and gamesters. There is plenty of opportunity for an improvement in the game laws of Oregon and it is sincerely hoped that something beneficial will result from the effort.

T. H. B. Helm, who was a guest during the summer, of Mrs. F. A. Helm, of this city, writing from his home at Justin, Texas, says: "We have had a beautiful winter, in fact, too warm for our people; no storms, no snow, no ice thicker than a knife blade, no norther, and but little frost. What is fine, plowing for spring planting is nearly done and gardening will commence next month."

Oregon has done less in proportion to its population for the promotion of agricultural education than most other states and has never provided the existing college with the equipment it ought to have. If there is to be a second agricultural college it should be supported by the state. One strong experiment station, properly equipped, is worth ten times as much as two weak concerns incapable of doing first-class work of any kind.—Oregon Agriculturist.

It is said that William A. E. Moore, known as "Badger" Moore, wearing stripes in Sing Sing prison, has fallen heir to $125,000. He has served only two years of a nineteen years' sentence for robbing Martin Mahon. The fortune was left to him by his uncle, Capt. John W. Moore of Cleveland, Ohio, who died a few days ago. With the means now at his command Moore hopes before many months to be released. His case has gone before the court of appeals and will be argued in March. His wife, Payne Moore, is appearing in London in "The Society Girl."

Col. Dosh, speaking of the annual convention of Oregon fruitgrowers, to be held in Portland, February 5-7, says that the local horticulturists in Oregon should take more interest than they are showing in the convention, and it means a great deal to the fruit interests of the Northwest. Since people are coming across the continent to attend, he believes the people here should show their appreciation of the fact by turning out in large numbers. Aside from all other motives, the fact that it is their interest to attend should be inducement enough, so believes the colonel.

If you want to make $50,000, catch Pat Crowe.

Born, in this city, February 2nd, to the wife of Geo. W. Irvine, an eight pound girl.

Miss Viola Johnson is quite ill with pneumonia, at the home of her mother in Job's Addition.

F. L. Miller has workmen engaged at the task of making improvements in the grocery department of his establishment.

Mrs. George Kerr and son, Molt, returned home Saturday from a week's visit at the home of Mr. John Whitaker, south of Corvallis.

Sunday, at the Catholic church, Father Jurek announced the engagement of Carl G. Hodges, of this city, and Miss Margaret Krapp, of Portland.

Henry Stuart is now employed in the state printing office at Salem. Henry is well known in this city, where he was one of the craft for a number of years.

Charley Hodson, formerly of this city, is now a member of the orchestra at "The Louvie," in San Francisco, one of the finest musical organizations in that city.

A public meeting is to be held at the court house this evening. A. D. Hale and J. D. Stephens will at this time reveal the mysteries of social democracy to the uninitiated.

The Farmers' Short Course at the O A C closed Thursday evening. There were public exercises held in the chapel in the evening, in the course of which Dr. Withycombe, Prof. Lake and Prof. Cordley made addresses.

Yesterday marked the beginning of the second term of four and one-half months at the Corvallis public school. The teachers are very desirous that new student who intend going to school this term should begin at once.

Mrs. J. P. Wilson died at her home at Wells, Oregon, Thursday, of heart disease. The funeral occurred at the Evangelical church at Wells, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, and interment was made in Locke cemetery.

Sunday's Oregonian devotes a full page to an article concerning Julius Caesar Taylor, formerly the property of the late B. T. Taylor, of this city. The article is illustrated with numerous cuts of this distinguished colored orator, actor and politician.

A handsome book-case containing 135 volumes by standard authors, was recently presented to the Corvallis order of Odd Fellows by the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Kline, in memory of their parents. The various local lodges of the order intend making this the nucleus of a suitable library for their members.

Dr. Cathey, who was called to attend the son of Mr. and Mrs. Curison, when he was seized with convulsion, states that the child is in the first stages of Bright's disease. An examination proved the existence of albuminuria, but whether in acute or chronic form is not yet determined. It is rare to find one so young showing these symptoms. However, the child has been greatly relieved, and should the case prove to be of acute form there is reason to hope for a speedy recovery.

Conductor Charley Berry, of the S. P. freight, reports having switched two carloads of onions over the C. & E., from here to Albany, recently. These onions were consigned to California parties. In this connection it may be stated that a great deal of freight from Portland is sent south over this route, as it is cheaper than to pay toll over the steel bridge at the metropolis. Such being the case, one may be excused for wondering why in the world the West Side line is not extended on to Junction City.

Exercises were held yesterday by the bar association of all the states, in celebration of "John Marshall day." In this city the following program was held at the college: Overture—"Golden Crescent"; College Band; address, "The Relation of Federal Court to National Government," E. E. Wilson, Esq.; march, "American Eagle"; College Band; address, Judge W. S. McFadden; "The Ruined Chapel," Male Quartet; address, Judge John Burnett; March, "Lotus Club," College Band.

The return game of football between the Cauthorn Hall and down town elevens was played on the college campus Saturday afternoon. The team from the hall had been greatly strengthened, and the large number of spectators, who braved the blustery weather, were treated to a rattling good exhibition of football. Although the playing was fast and furious, the best of feeling prevailed and no injuries resulted. The down town team scored a touchdown near the close of each half, but failed to kick goals, the final score being 10 to 0.

Albert J. Metzger is an experienced watchmaker and jeweler. His place of business is three doors north of the postoffice.

Watch for the Newsboys' Band parade at 3 o'clock.

Corvallis Bar Resolutions.

On the convening of the county court, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, these resolutions in commemoration of the life and service of John Marshall were presented to the court by the bar. Addresses were made by Judge Burnett, Mr. Wallis Nash, W. E. Yates and W. S. McFadden, with a response by the court. The following are the resolutions:

Resolved, That the American people generally, have decided to commemorate the accession of Chief Justice John Marshall to the supreme bench of the United States, as "John Marshall day" and the state bar association of Oregon has decided to join in the observance of this day, out of respect to a great jurist, and a good man, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, on the rooth anniversary of the accession of John Marshall to the high and honorable position of chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, we, the Benton county bar, take a pride in doing honor to his memory as one of the first lawyers of his age, and placing on the records of this court this slight tribute to his great ability as a judge.

Resolved, That his appointment to the office of secretary of war, secretary of state, minister to France, and chief justice of the supreme court of the United States, all within nine months, is a recognition of merit, ability and patriotism which is without a parallel, and stamps him as a great man.

Resolved, That in his thirty-four years service as chief justice, presiding all the while with "native dignity and unpretending grace," he did more to mold the new government on lines to make it a blessing to the people than any man then living.

Resolved, That his career as chief justice, in view of his able opinions, his solid judgment, great reasoning powers, acute and penetrating mind, with manners and habits to suit the purity and sanctity of the ermine, is the pride of the American bar.

Resolved, That the thirty-five volumes of the reports of decisions of the supreme court of the United States is a monument to the ability, integrity and purity of Chief Justice Marshall, more lasting than marble, more beautiful than bronze, and as imperishable as the American Republic.

Resolved, That the court be requested to spread these resolutions upon the journals of the court, and as a further mark of respect to the memory of John Marshall that the court do now adjourn.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN BURNETT, W. S. MCFADDEN, W. E. YATES, E. H. HOLGATE, E. E. WILSON. February 4, 1901.

Eugene Field Day.

Friday, February 1st was Eugene Field Day, and the occasion was appropriately observed in Mrs. Nelm's grade of the public school. The afternoon was given up to exercises consisting of songs and recitations from the pen of Field, rendered by the children. A short biography of this great friend of the little ones, was given by a class of small tots, each one reciting a paragraph. An interesting feature was an example of the phonic method of spelling given by the pupils. The ability of the children of six or seven years of age to pronounce difficult words readily was a surprise to those who had learned to read under the old method. Too much cannot be said in praise of the efficient work of Mrs. Nelm and the pupils in her department. The class room was filled with an appreciative audience. At the close of the regular program, remarks were made by Sup't G. W. Denman, Principal A. S. McDonald, Rev. McLain and Rev. Mark Noble.

S. L. Kline has placed his spring order with the largest cloak and suit house in the United States for tailor made suits, silk waists, summer capes and dress skirts. Due notice will be given of their arrival.

All goods are alike to Putman Fadeless Dyes, as they color all fibers at one boiling. Sold by Graham & Wells.

Watch for the Newsboys' Band parade at 3 o'clock.

His Eye Removed.

Louis Edwards returned the latter part of last week from Salem, leaving his son, Frankie, down there under the care of Dr. Gillis. The boy was so unfortunate as to have his eye injured a short time ago while attending school at his home near Duety. The little fellow and his playmates were enjoying a recess and one of the boys threw an oyster can at another, who struck it with a ball-bat. The can flew and struck Frankie Edwards in the eye, with the above result. After the boy heard the opinion of Dr. Gillis, at Salem, he became desirous of having the eye removed.

He was taken to the sanitarium for an operation, and placed in bed. Here he got pretty nervous, but his father talked to him for awhile and he calmed down and finally dropped off to sleep. After he went to sleep he was chloroformed and the eye removed. After awakening he asked his sister, who accompanied him down there, if his eye had been taken out. She said it had, and he remarked, "Oh, I'm so glad." It is now thought that he will soon recover, but he is obliged to remain under the care of Dr. Gillis for a short time as the other eye was somewhat affected.

Katie Emmett Co. Tonight.

The sensational melodrama, "The Waifs of New York," will be presented at the Opera House tonight. More laughs, more thrills, more tears, more excitement, and more pleasure than in any play of the century. See the railroad bridge scene, the wonderful fire scenes, and the thrilling swing for life. All new scenery and startling mechanical effects. This play is true to nature portraying scenes of actual life. Prices 35c, 50c, 75c. Parade at 3:30 this afternoon.

Yesterday's Ballot.

SALEM, Feb. 4.—A feeling prevails here that something definite is about to happen in the senatorial contest. Tomorrow possibly, will mark an important epoch in the life of some Oregonian. Today's ballot resulted as follows: Corbett, 29; McBride, 20; Hermann, 7; Fulton, 7.

Letter List.

For week ending February 2, 1901. Persons calling for these letters will please state date on which they were advertised. They will be charged at the rate of one cent each. C. E. Avery, Miss Effie Brown, J. C. Clark, J. B. Fuller, Willie Heinrich, Mrs. Pearl Hunt, Rev. H. Hansen, Miss Clara Howard, W. R. Ish, J. R. Logan, W. H. Millhollen, E. Meeker, Ray Ottenberg, Ben Olson, Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Mrs. John Schlober, A. G. Sounds, Henry Slevens, W. A. Thompson, Mrs. Maggie Taylor, B. W. Johnson, P. M.

Note Lost.

A certain promissory note in favor of Martha Jane Felton, bearing date at Corvallis, Or., Jan. 2, 1901, secured by mortgage of even date, signed by Serepta Harlan and J. R. Harlan.

A Boy.

Or young man having a fair education and desirous of serving ample time to learn a good trade or profession may find an opportunity by addressing P. O. Box No. 358, Corvallis, Oregon. The applicant should be steady and industrious, spending his evenings at home and not on the streets or in the various resorts. The trade referred to is along educational lines, and two or three years spent therein will afford good educational facilities for any young man, besides affording steady employment in all seasons after becoming competent. One whose home is in town preferred. Cigarette smokers need not apply.

For 50 Years

mothers have been giving their children for croup, coughs and colds

Shiloh's Consumption Cure

Mothers—have you SHILOH in the house at all times? Do you know just where you can find it if you need it quickly—if your little one is gasping and choking with croup? If you haven't it get a bottle. It will save your child's life.

Reduction Sale. In all kinds of Men's and Boys' Clothing to make room for Our Large and Handsome Spring Stock. Boys' suits are a most trying problem to mothers and to us. They must not be too costly, and they must be of durable material and strongly made. We think we have solved this dual problem. Bring the boys around. We have a special line of boys' suits worth from $5.00 to $7.50, that will be closed out at $3.00 per suit, age 5, 6 and 7; also a line of long pants suits, age 15, 16 and 17, at one-half price. These are real bargains. Men's suits in all the popular shades and styles from the $5.00 sack suit to the genteel frock suit for $16.50. We are headquarters for overcoats and ulsters. This is our strong line and we are sure to please you in style and price. See us for extra trousers; we have a full line. The Biggest Store! The Biggest Stock! The Littlest Prices! That is why we do the Biggest Business. S. L. Kline.

TRY... FOR... Hodes... Fresh Groceries. FINE TEAS AND COFFEES. PROVISIONS, NOTIONS, CIGARS. CORVALLIS.

The Corvallis Commission Store. Keeps constantly on hand the celebrated CORVALLIS AND MONROE FLOURS. A package of Arm & Hammer Soda is given free with every sack of the latter. Hay, Oats, Grain. Bran, Shorts, Potatoes. Fish, Eggs, Poultry, Etc. JOHN LENGER, Manager.

The Commercial Restaurant and Bakery. Fresh Bread, Cakes, Pies, Etc. Leave orders for Dressed Chickens, Yaquina Oysters in Season. C. C. CHIPMAN, Proprietor.

Corvallis' Most Popular Eating House THE Pioneer Bakery AND RESTAURANT. Fresh bread daily. A complete stock of candies, fruits and nuts kept constantly on hand. Smokers supplies a specialty. H. W. HALL, Proprietor.

Job Printing at this office.