CURED BY CUTICURA.

The treatment is simple, direct, agreenble, and economical, and is adapted to the young-est infant as well as adults of every age. Bathe the affected parts with Hor Warnst and Curicura Soar to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle. Dry, without hard rubbing, and apply Curicura Ointment freely, to allay itching, irritation, and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and lastly take the Curicura RESOLURAT to cool and cleanse the blood. This treatment affords instant relief, permits rest and sleep, and points to a speedy, perma-nent, and economical cure when all other rem-odies and even the best physicians fail. Soid everywhere. In every walk of life one will perceive that the masses of his fellowmen are failures. Of the many men engaged in some certain business the majority will fail. A tew will sueceed under the same conditions that others fail. The poultry business deserves far more attention than it usually receives. An exchange to prove beneficial to all who will follow its lead:

Success and failure with poultry depend upon the poultryman himself. There are good opportunities with poultry and many ways of making a certain amount of money by judicious arrangements and close attention in the keeping of fowls; but for a beginker to suppose that because he is provided with a certain They get Proper Display, Proper Position amount of money, and can secure a likely place for business, success is certain is a mistake. Although just at first matters may seem easy, the undertaking may sooner or later end in a very sad awakening to the reality of dead loss. But provided the business could be made an adjunct to something else which does pay, then, with acquired knowledge-gotten only by experience-and unremitting attention to even the smallest de-
