

ON WHAT BASIS?

On what basis will the demobefore the leaders of that party, ceived as follows: especially in Multnomah county. District Number 1. It is not the province nor the purpose of the GAZETTE, even if it could, to render any assistance in this matter.

As a matter of fact so many diverse factions are found in that party, all clamoring for recognition and each striying for dominancy that its reorganization will be exceedingly difficult if not actually impossible. This is especially true since several of the issues it presented have been decided at the ballot-box by adverse majorities so great as to constitute a final verdict. No new issue which carries the promise of victory has been nor is likely to be found. By some means, however, not easily understood, the leaders hope to hold the party together hoping that the republican party in Multnomah county will be so divided at the next general election that the democrats may slip into power, or at least share the spoils of victory with one of the republican factions. The hope of partheipating in the spoils is, as the democratic party is now constituted, its strongest incentive to cohesion and action. This, however, is a vague hope when built on the hope of republican dissention, for it is not at all probable that any dissention will exin Multnemah county has not had so little cause for dissention as it new has. Each of the late factions has been recognized and given a share of party honors and out of the party nor excluded from its councils because of being "a Simon man" or "a Mitchell man," because he opposed the city charter enacted by the late legislature; because of the consolication of county offices. nor for any other reason.

What is true of the party in Multuemah county is equally true of it throughout the state. It never had less cause for dissention than it now has. For and alert in looking after the interests of their respective districts. Our senators are both men of recognized ability, industry, experience and influence.

tors." Doubtless the wish was father of the thought. It is safe to say that the Oregonian will offer no factious opposition to either. It knows that both are able men. It has known Mr. Simon quite all his life and knows him to be a man of irreproachable character, of remarkable industry and more than average ability. The Oregonian surely has no personal reason for opposing Mr. Simon. If it, indeed, once opposed Mr. Mitchell on personal grounds, that is long since past and will not be renewed. Unless our sehators make some very improbable and bad break it is altogether ressonable to believe the Oregonian will be found leading the republican press in holding up their

It is without doubt that democrats who hope to ride to victory because of republican faction will be doomed to disappointment. They must find a real live, national issue which the dominant party refuses to meet. It must purge itself of its mischievous isms; it must recall its Clevelands, Carlisles and Whitneys to its councils.

So hopeless is this task that we are doubly thankful that it does not devolve upon us.

School Apportionment.

The regular apportionment of the school junds of the county was made April 1, by Supt. Denman. The amount cratic party of Oregon effect re- disbursed to the several districts of the organization? This question is county was $7,500. Each district re-

Our whole delegation is in political accord with the party and fairly in harmony with the administration. The defeat of Mr. Corbett for senator left no bitterness behind it. He and his adherents are too honestly republican in principle to permit mere personal disappointment to turn them aside from party fealty. The election of Mr. Mitchell provokes no antagonism. Our senators will work harmoniously together for the best interests of the state and in uphelding republican principles. Self-interest, if no other reason, will keep them in harmony. There will be no party dissention from this direction.
