

THE CORVALLIS GAZETTE.

TUESDAY, JUNE 4, 1901.

SPRING 1901 STYLES

—IN—

Suits
and Skirts.

We have now on sale, and new

Spring Suits & Dress Skirts.

Our suits comprise the newest and best of the late creations such as coat and blouse effects and postillion backs. New style skirts are also shown and jackets too.

The price of our suits range from $8.00 up.

S. E. Young & Son,
Albany, Oregon.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Black Cat.

O A C souvenir olive disher, at Zierolf's.

Call and see Kline's new grocery department.

Gilt-edge bargains in all lines at Nolan &amp; Callahan's.

Leave orders at the Commission Store for all kinds of wood.

Buy the Black Cat hose the kind that wears, for sale only at Kline's.

It's about time to get next to some cool underwear at, Nolan &amp; Callahan's.

Fresh candy, fruit and nuts, always on hand at the Commission Store.

Poultry food, poultry cure, and insect powder, at the Commission Store.

Oliver Blackledge and family spent Sunday with relatives at Dusty.

Secure an O A C souvenir vase, creamer, sugar or bon bon dish, at Zierolf's.

All work guaranteed by Albert J. Metzger, watchmaker, three doors north of the postoffice.

After a brief visit with friends, Mrs Frank Miller returned to her home at Summit, Friday.

Friday is the time to order your dressed chicken for Sunday's dinner.

Mrs. Frank Hall and little son arrived Saturday from Guy, Washington, for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Duncan returned to Summit Saturday, after a week's visit with the family of O. V. Hurt.

Miss Ina Briggs, who has been visiting for sometime with her sister, Mrs. Knussey, left Friday for her home in Michigan.

Mrs. M. G. Mulkey left Friday for her home at Summit, to remain. She has been for a long time employed in the Farmers' Hotel.

Mrs. Betty Lindsay, formerly of Corvallis, came over from Spicer, Linn county, to spend Memorial Day, and was the guest of friends for several days.

The ice cream social at Dr Farra's Friday evening, given by the Missionary society of the Congregational church, was largely attended, and over $20 was realized.

Prof. J. B. Horner, J. F. Yates and H. W. Hall went to Albany Friday. Prof. Horner went on to Salem, and the other gentlemen returned home the same evening.

Sol Richardson, of Monroe, was in Corvallis Thursday, enroute to Salem where he will be employed for several weeks in the construction of sheds at the state fair grounds.

The first hay rack party of the season occurred Friday evening. It was given by the sophomore class of O A C and a jolly time was had. The chaperone was Miss Olga Hilton.

There was a very pleasant dancing party at firemen hall Friday evening. It was given by the Social Club and was the last affair of the kind to be given this season. The music was furnished by Fred Oerlander and Mrs. L. Y. Wilson.

Ed Horning and family now occupy the residence of George Horning, near Emmett Taylor's, on Fourth street. The removal occurred Thursday, and was made in the hope of benefiting Mr. Horning's health, which is only slightly improved.

About three weeks ago, near Monroe, Champ Smith and Fred Izensmith had some trouble over a financial matter. In the midst of a heated argument Cara Smith, a brother of Champ, appeared on the scene and unhesitatingly drew a knife and began slashing at Izensmith. Thirteen stitches were required in sewing up one of the cuts, and there were numerous other gashes about the throat. In Junction City last Monday, a preliminary examination was held, and Cara Smith was released on $700 bonds to appear at the November term of court. Mr. Izensmith is recovering from his injuries.

W. A. Sanders, the watchmaker, O A C souvenir pin trays of various designs and views, at Zierolf's.

J. L. Jones went to Nashville, Saturday, to begin a term of school.

For shoes, hats and furnishing goods, go to Young's Racket Store.

Lulu Young, after a visit of a month with friends in Wells, arrived home Saturday.

Frank Thrasher leaves Thursday for Spokane Falls, where he has a situation assured him.

Raymond Henkle leaves today for Portland to take the state examination in pharmacy.

Next year the meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Oregon will be held at Newport.

Our premium dishes have arrived. Present your coupons.

Nolan &amp; Callahan.

Is Jacobs arrived in Corvallis Saturday, for a few days' visit with relatives and friends in his old home.

Miss Mary Jones closed Friday a very successful term of school in the district just south of Coryallis.

C. C. Hall, traveling for Sanborn &amp; Vail, stationers of Portland, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

Friday, Charley Chipman moved his family into the house formerly occupied by R. C. Miller, on Main street.

Some of the farmers have already made hay and several loads have been hauled to town during the past few days.

Ellsworth Post, G. A. R., has a new flag. A flag for the school building was recently provided by contribution, and is now a part of the paraphernalia of this institution.

E. L. Wroten, of Tampico, Illinois, who recently subscribed for the GAZETTE, writes that he is well pleased with the paper and thinks from what he has learned from its columns, that he shall take occasion to visit this section ere long.

The bridge across Dixon creek, just north of town, which has been out of repair for a short time, compelling travelers to go through the fields, was finished last night and the public will experience no further trouble from this source.

A new time card has been arranged by the C. & E. Hereafter trains will start from Detroit and come to Albany and Corvallis instead of starting from Albany and going to Detroit. Summer excursion tickets both to Detroit and the coast have been placed on sale.

Numerous Corvallians are Albany visitors Sunday afternoon. Some went merely to enjoy the drive, while others were intent on witnessing a game of base ball between the Eugene and Albany teams. There was a large crowd at the game, and much enthusiasm.

There is a new partner in the J. D. Mann furniture store. He is Oliver Blackledge, and he will be in charge of the carpet department which is to be added to the establishment. New stock is also to be put in, and the company will be able to supply the demands of all customers, in their line.

Davis & Dryben, stock buyers of Brownsville, have been in the vicinity of Corvallis the past ten days, looking after business in their line. They shipped to Portland Thursday a carload of lambs, the purchase price per head being $2. An ear holds from 200 to 220 lambs, and in this case a number of hoggs were also in the shipment.

It was stated by some one, on the side, that a farmer had come all the way from Lane county to the recent farmers' institute at Monroe, Oregon, to take issue with Dr. Withycombe on the question of summer fallow. He was not heard of, as the Doctor covered the subject so thoroughly and made it so plain that it was patent to every one that summer fallow was not the thing for the farmers of this country.—Homestead.

There was a lively runaway south of town, Wednesday. John Rickard, on his way home from town, stopped at the Houck place to rearrange a plow in the rear end of the wagon. A buggy was attached to the back end of the wagon, and Mr. Rickard stood between the two vehicles when the team started by a slight noise, started to run. The buggy wheel passed over Mr. Rickard's body, but he was only slightly bruised. Though number of attempts were made to stop them, the team reached home without serious injury either to themselves or the rigs.

It has been ascertained that Mrs. J. Dutton, about whom inquiry was made recently by her sister, Mrs. S. H. Jones of Port Adelaide, South Australia, is located at Salem. Cleon Hodges of this city states that he has been in communication with Mr. Dutton for sometime, and the latter is now employed on what is known as the "Home Farm." This place is just across the Willamette river from Salem and is located in Polk county. Mr. Dutton has been employed here for a little more than a year. On seeing the items of inquiry in the last issue of the GAZETTE, Mr. Hodges communicated with Mr. Dutton, and no doubt the matter will be straightened out in a satisfactory manner.

About three weeks ago, near Monroe, Champ Smith and Fred Izensmith had some trouble over a financial matter. In the midst of a heated argument Cara Smith, a brother of Champ, appeared on the scene and unhesitatingly drew a knife and began slashing at Izensmith. Thirteen stitches were required in sewing up one of the cuts, and there were numerous other gashes about the throat. In Junction City last Monday, a preliminary examination was held, and Cara Smith was released on $700 bonds to appear at the November term of court. Mr. Izensmith is recovering from his injuries.

John Van Gross, a graduate of O A C in the class of 1899, now assistant professor of mathematics at the University of Oregon, has just received notice that he has been awarded a scholarship in Yale university.

At a meeting held last week, the citizens of Albany decided to celebrate the Fourth of July this year. Various committees were chosen to attend the divers matters in connection with the celebration. They will have a voting contest for the most popular young lady to act as Goddess of Liberty on this occasion.

Large crowds of people gathered at the Mt. View school house Sunday morning and afternoon for the gospel services held there by Rev. L. M. Boozer. A basket dinner was served under the trees. It was an enjoyable and profitable time for all. The services continued all this week; Rev. S. J. Lindsey assisting.

Sunday, the 9th, Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of Warren Avenue Baptist Church, Boston, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. The sermon will be given in the Armory, at 10:45 a.m. Monday will be known as class day. At 2:30 p.m. exercises will take place on the college campus. In the evening the seniors will give an entertainment in the Opera House.

Tuesday, June 11th, will be devoted to military and physical culture. At 3 p.m. there will be a battalion drill on the campus. In the evening, at 8 o'clock, in the gymnasium, there will be a gymnastic exhibition.

The commencement day exercises will take place in the Armory, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Besides many other interesting features, there will be an address by Hon. W. W. Cotton, of Portland. The business meeting of the alumni will take place at 2:30 in the afternoon, and at 8:30 p.m. in Cauthorn Hall, the re-union of the alumni will occur.

O. A. C. Commencement.

Programs of the annual commencement of the Oregon Agricultural College have been issued, extending a cordial invitation to the general public to attend the various exercises that will take place on this memorable occasion. The program extends over the time from June 7th to June 12th.

Friday, June 7th, at 2:30 in the afternoon, field and track events will take place on the college campus. The following day, at 8 p.m., in the Armory, President Willis C. Hawley, of Willamette University, will deliver an address before the College Christian Association.

Sunday, the 9th, Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of Warren Avenue Baptist Church, Boston, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. The sermon will be given in the Armory, at 10:45 a.m. Monday will be known as class day. At 2:30 p.m. exercises will take place on the college campus. In the evening the seniors will give an entertainment in the Opera House.

Tuesday, June 11th, will be devoted to military and physical culture. At 3 p.m. there will be a battalion drill on the campus. In the evening, at 8 o'clock, in the gymnasium, there will be a gymnastic exhibition.

The commencement day exercises will take place in the Armory, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Besides many other interesting features, there will be an address by Hon. W. W. Cotton, of Portland. The business meeting of the alumni will take place at 2:30 in the afternoon, and at 8:30 p.m. in Cauthorn Hall, the re-union of the alumni will occur.

Minchin May Win.

E. S. Minchin, the Pacific College student, whose oration in the state collegiate oratorical contest created so much stir in consequence of the charges of plagiarism very generally preferred by some of the friends of the other competitors after Minchin had been awarded the decision, is liable yet to carry away the interstate oratorical contest at Walla Walla, and while there is one judge to hear from, Minchin is thus far ahead in the race, leading Arthur Hauerbach, the Whitman College representative, by one point. While Hauerbach leads Minchin in delivery, the latter has ten points to the good in thought and composition, and with one of the judges, Prof. Martin C. Flaherty, of the University of California yet to hear from.

Each of the three judges on delivery gave Hauerbach 100, while Minchin ranged from 88 to 98.

Prof. Fetter, of Stanford, gave Minchin 100 on thought and composition, and Hauerbach 92.

Not one of the judges seemed to find grounds for charges of plagiarism.

Graduating Exercises.

The public school will close next Friday. On Thursday night the graduating exercises will take place in the Opera House. A nice program has been arranged for the occasion. Miss Kathleen B. Daniel is salutatorian and Miss Mary Kathryn Nolan is valedictorian. Judge W. S. McFadden will address the class and present the diplomas. The innovation will be by Dr. E. J. Thompson.

Mr. T. W. Dilley, "The Fixer," has just completed another of his high-class wheels. It was made for Nelson Westfall and the price is $50.

The owner is greatly pleased with the "bike" and he has cause to be, for it is a beauty in workmanship and the adjustment is perfect.

It is up-to-date in every particular and has a 30-inch wheel. At the close of the bicycle season Mr. Westfall intends to ride it to California and show the natives of that state what a wheel is a wheel. No finer wheel has been seen in this section than the latest "Dilley" wheel—in fact, they don't make them any finer.

M. C. Haxton left yesterday for his home in Iowa. He has been in this section for a couple of weeks or longer looking at this country with a view to locating permanently. His home in Iowa is near where L. L. Brooks lived before coming to this country. Mr. Haxton intends coming out with his family to spend next winter in this city, with a view to determining whether he shall like Oregon and if it will be healthful for his family.

The gentleman says that what he has seen of the valley is as beautiful to gaze upon as any country that he ever saw, but that many things here are new to him and he deems it wise to ascertain more about it before he disposes of his eastern home.

The regular meeting of the N. D. O. for the summer occurred at the cabin in the K. of P. Hall, Saturday afternoon. During the year there has been a steady increase in membership and on this occasion Mrs. Minor Swick was duly initiated. Mrs. Swick is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Stewart who came to Corvallis in 1845 and who celebrated her 80th birthday at the home of her daughter on June 2nd. The Native Daughters are always glad to welcome members of the pioneer families. As it is through them that the aims of the order, which are to "preserve the history of the state and perpetuate the names of our pioneers" are best accomplished.

The Grand Cabin of the N. D. O. meets in Portland June 13-14 and Martha Avery Cabin No. 18 will be represented by Mrs. F. A. Helm. The regular meetings of the Cabin will be rescheduled on the first Saturday in October.

Odd Fellows' Home.

A business meeting of the trustees of the Odd Fellows' Home, now located in the Riley property, near Kenilworth, in Multnomah county, is soon to be held.

The board is empowered to put the building on the ground in condition for use and to hire a matron and man to take care of the institution.

Steps will be taken very soon to repair the building at a cost of about $500, and proceed with furnishing the rooms. All these things have to be done before the purposes of the institution can be carried out. The most important matter will be the furnishing of the rooms. The Rebekah lodges are expected to undertake this work, and several Portland lodges have been accumulating a fund for this purpose.

Miss Pauline Kline, of this city, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, will donate a horse and buggy to the home and may furnish one room.

The per capita tax on the membership of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, the former 25 and the latter 10 cents, will furnish about $1,000 for maintaining the home. No action was taken concerning the Cleone farm. It is in the hands of the trustees, who are authorized to sell it.

The Osburn Sale.

The tract of land belonging to John M. Osburn, lying west of Corvallis, and containing 1540 acres, was sold at public sale by J. O. Wilson at the court house yesterday afternoon. A number of bidders were attracted from a distance.

Dr. H. S. Pernot secured the largest piece offered, the Luke Mulkey place of 638.90 acres, for $8,125.

The Beach place, containing 325 acres, went to E. E. Wilson for $38, subject to liens. F. W. Osburn, representing Eugene Loan and Savings Bank, bid in 140 acres for $10, subject to liens. Sol King bought 40 acres for $45; John Wyatt, 20.01 acres for $40; E. E. Wilson, .90 acre $6.

The McCullough place of 24.74 acres was sold to G. B. Chamberlain for $25, while a piece of 120 acres in Alsea went to Sol King King for $30.

The state land board purchased the east one half of the Johnson Mulkey place, containing 321.37 acres, for $5370.

A Modern Ananias.

The senior class of the O A C has chosen for its entertainment next Monday evening the celebrated high-class farce-comedy, "A Modern Ananias." While the play has been deemed worthy of presentation by the best professional talent in the country, it is within the capacity of amateurs. The present cast is capable and has been rehearsing diligently. There is not one dull scene in the entire play, not one sentimental line, not a stale situation. The dialogue is sparkling, the action rapid, the climax uproarious. The plot admits of elegant stage settings and pretty costumes. The cast and synopsis will appear in our Friday's issue.

Additional Local.

Mr. T. M. Jenkins arrived yesterday from Moline, Illinois, to look over the carriage factory and other property purchased by him here in 1897.

Johnny Huffman, of Whitney, Baker county, arrived yesterday on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Telt Burnett. This is his first visit to Corvallis since 1893.

Attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Dalles route of the White Collar Line steamer "Bailey Gatzert." She leaves the foot of Alder street, Portland, every day in the week except Monday, at 7 a.m., for Cascade Locks, Hood river and The Dalles.