Tomorrow afternoon at their pleasant country home, five miles north of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong are to entertain their friends. The affair will be in the nature of a picnic. These events are looked forward to with much interest from year to year, and are greatly enjoyed by those who attend.

Marion Johnson, formerly of Corvallis and an old friend of the local editor, was in the city this week from Portland, being a representative of a typewriter house handling the improved Densmore and New Century Caligraph. He has good prospects of placing several machines in the city.—Grants Pass Observer. The local editor referred to is Claude Riddle, who left this city in the middle of the winter.

On June 4th, Sheriff Burnett turned over to Treasurer Buchanan $4,185, collected on taxes. This sum is sufficient to pay off all county warrants outstanding up to the date of March 7th, 1901, leaving the county back only three months at present on its warrants. The total collections made by Sheriff Burnett up to date, and turned over to Treasurer Buchanan, is $52,885. The sheriff expects to collect about $6,000 more this year, and it is estimated that from this sum Benton county can just about pay off all warrants outstanding against her.

Wallis Nash is authority for a report that Lincoln county is to have a fair at Toledo this year. The fair is to be held one week before the state, and committees have been appointed and the county divided into eight working districts, each committee being allotted work in its own section. A ladies' committee has also been appointed to work in conjunction with the other committees. Work has already begun and at the end of the county fair it is the intention to send a choice exhibit to the state fair. It is said that this will be the first county fair ever held west of the Coast Ranges in Oregon.

A Grand Re-Union.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Allen, in this city, was the scene of a gathering of unusual interest Tuesday. It was the occasion of the 85th anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Christina Barker, mother of Mrs. Allen, and she was surrounded on this occasion by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Two of her brothers were present on this occasion, Ichabod Henkle, aged 90 years, and Jacob Henkle, aged 75 years. Her sister, Mrs. Mary King, aged 79 years, was also of the party. The relatives present represented four generations and numbered about 30 people.

Ira Allen and family and Mrs. Barker's son, William, and family, of Salem, were present at the re-union. Harrison Johnson, of Lebanon, aged 80 years, was over and made one of the company on this memorable occasion. Mr. Johnson was a member of the train that Mrs. Barker and husband crossed the plains with.

Mrs. Barker is one of the early pioneers of the state. She was born in Ohio in 1816 and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1853. That two sisters and two brothers of whom is 75 years old, should be able to participate in a gathering of this kind is very unusual, and beyond a doubt no other family in Oregon can boast of as many brothers and sisters who have reached their ages and who are all living.

Senior Entertainment.

"A Modern Ananias" to be given by the senior class of the O. A. C. at the opera house Monday evening is one of the most successful farce-comedies ever written. The story is briefly this: Lysander Lyon was in his infancy deserted by his mother and taken care of by a bachelor uncle who grew immensely rich in California. Lysander is made his uncle's heir and goes to Europe to study. To inculcate economical habits he is restricted to a small allowance and meeting a rich widow, whose hold on life is slender, he marries her unknown to his uncle. After his marriage he finds himself step father to a fleshy old maid to whom, on her mother's death, the expected fortune reverts. Meantime, the uncle has become guardian of Nelly Goldengate and decides that his two wards should marry. Unknown to Lysander he crosses the continent at a time when that young man is paying a surreptitious visit to America. Lysander meets Nellie and scrapes acquaintance with her, but, owing to Francisco's blunder, thinks her name is Prudence—the name of her friend. In order to avoid a marriage with Nellie, whom he thinks he has never seen, he invents a story to the effect that he is already married and then the complications ensue. Finally he is forced to confess all his deceptions except one—the truth about baby. Nellie forgives him and so does the uncle for his fibs and also for his first marriage but both imagine baby to be a little child. Then the truth comes to the surface, when, by an almost superhuman effort of nerve, he marries his step-daughter to his uncle and himself weds Nellie.

For Better Service.

The citizens' league has appointed a committee to urge the matter of having the time of departure of the S. P. passenger changed from 1:30 p. m., to 5:00 a. m. Another committee is endeavoring to impress upon the same company the mutual benefit to be derived by the city and themselves from the establishment of a Sunday service to Corvallis. By having the daily train leave here in the morning at 5 o'clock and return at 7 p. m., residents of this city would be enabled to go to Portland, transact considerable business, and return the same day. The increase in traffic would no doubt be considerable, and it would be a good business proposition for Corvallis.

Additional Local.

The annual address at Philomath college, will be delivered next Sunday by Rev. Humbert of this city.

The subject of G. S. O. Humbert's sermon Sunday eve will be "The conversion of the Apostle Paul." The public is invited to attend these services.

Residence Burned.

Thursday morning about 1 o'clock parties returning home from an entertainment at the home of Miss Bertha Davis, discovered flames issuing from the woodshed in the rear of the residence of Joseph H. Wilson. Mr. Wilson was absent at Toledo, and his wife and little child were alone in the house. By dint of much hammering on doors and windows Logan Hayes succeeded in arousing Mrs. Wilson who was partially suffocated with smoke. The alarm was then sounded, and the fire boys responded promptly. Much furniture and small articles were removed from the rooms downstairs, but although the efforts of the department were wisely and promptly directed, the flames had gained rapid headway and the building is a total wreck. The loss is unascertained, but aside from the house which cost about $1,000. Mr. Wilson's fine library and other valuables were destroyed. The insurance is in the neighborhood of $500.

Not Lost—Just Missing.

After a short visit with relatives in this city John Huffman left for his home in Canyon City, yesterday. Thursday's Oregonian makes him the hero of a "man lost" item, but Johnny is abundantly able to take care of himself. That paper says:

John L. Huffman, a resident of Canyon City, who came to Portland May 27, to purchase a newspaper plant for the new town of Whitney is missing. His relatives in Baker City yesterday telephoned to the Imperial hotel, asking for information in regard to him, but beyond the fact that he registered at the hotel May 28, no tidings could be given. Inquiries at the American Type Founders' office in this city were also fruitless, as the young man had not been there. Whitney, where he was to start the paper, is the new terminus of the Sumpter Valley railroad.

Trimming Hats.

At their residence, Wednesday, evening, Dr. and Mrs. Withycombe entertained the senior class of O A C. It was what is termed an "informal party," and was most enjoyable for the guests. During the evening the new class song was rehearsed. Games of various kinds were played, but the crowning event is said to have been a hat trimming contest, in which the young men were set the task of trimming hats for the young ladies present. Some of the elaboration of the young men were remarkable and the results of their labors were wondrous to behold. John Wiley won the prize for "style" on his up-to-date decoration of a hat for Miss Bessie Smith. For "originality" William Pate took the lead and the most original thing of the evening was voted to be the hat of Miss Grace Michael, whose hat Mr. Pate decorated. Delicious refreshments concluded a most delightful evening.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mother and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to cleanse out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous system, and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac.—Graham & Wortham!
