Charles has many friends in Corvallis who will give him a hearty welcome when he chooses to come up on a visit.

Ever since the Opera House in Albany burned down a couple of years ago there has been a crying need for such a building. Recently there has been considerable agitation of the matter and Dr. J. L. Hill has offered to put up such a play house as can be constructed and fitted up for from $8,000 to $10,000. All that he asks is that progressive citizens will raise him a bonus of $1,500. This seems to be Albany's opportunity.

Quite a lot of plumbing is to be done at the agricultural college, on the administration building, the mechanical hall and the ladies' dormitory. J. R. Smith & Co. will do the plumbing. On its arrival the work of plumbing will begin. W. O. Heck-art will do the carpentering necessary in connection with the task of plumbing. It is the intention of J. R. Smith & Co. to complete this work in about three weeks after the work is started, but they do not wish to begin operations before all the material arrives, in order not to balk anything.

Company G, O. N. G., has secured the services of Hermann Breyer, of this city, as cook for the company during its coming encampment, from June 23d to 30th. Hermann served as cook with the Oregon boys in the Philippine campaign, and he considers the small casualty list of that regiment his strongest recommendation.

Wilbur Starr returned a few days ago from a Portland hospital, where he was the subject, recently, of a delicate surgical operation. When a child Mr. Starr received a blow on the head, from the effects of which he has been a sufferer ever since, and in the effort to get relief he has spent a considerable sum. The recent operation consisted of lifting a portion of the skull which had been a pressure on the brain. The patient is already greatly improved and a complete cure is almost assured.

In a good deal of the most fertile portion of the Willamette Valley there is only about one family to each 320 acres of land. There are some farmers who can make three or four times as much as the average farmer on 320 acres, but we believe it will be found that the average farmer who farms 320 acres makes nothing more than a fair living. In this fact lies one of the greatest obstacles to the achievement and maintenance of good roads. With only one or two farmers to the square mile the cost of good roads cannot be met. What the Willamette Valley needs is a system of farming which will give eight or ten families a good living on each square mile.—Agriculturist.

Mention was made in this paper a couple of weeks ago of the accidental shooting of Nathan Sump-ter, while hunting in the mountains near Berry. The Albany Herald gives the following account of his present condition: Nathan Sump-ter, the young man who was shot through the head two weeks ago and brought from the mountains to Albany for treatment, has so far recovered that he has been walking about the house, and yesterday crossed the house to a neighbor. For three days after the accident brain matter was discharged from the wound. Since the swelling has subsided the skull from the right to the top of the head is found to be crushed, and, notwithstanding all this, there seems a possibility of his recovery.

Married.

At the residence of the bride's parents, in this city, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening, Harley L. Hall and Miss Grace E. Adams, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Adams, were united in wedlock, Rev. Mark Noble officiating.

The residence was nicely decorated with roses and house plants and everything was in perfect accord with the occasion. The bride was attired in white and the ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. Immediately after the marriage occurred the young couple took a conveyance and drove to Albany, en route to Salem, where they will visit a few days with relatives. They will then return to Wells, where they will reside until after harvest. It is Mr. Hall's intention to locate in Guy, Wash., in the fall and take charge of a drug store which he owns in that city.

The bride is well known in this city and has a host of friends and acquaintances and she bears the highest character. The groom is a young man who has been raised in this county. He attended college here and at Pacific University, and at both institutions was very popular in football circles. He is steady and upright in his manners and has no bad habits. The GAZETTE extends hearty congratulations and wishes the young couple all possible success in their journey through life.

A. J. Woods and Miss Tina Richardson were united in matrimony yesterday at the M. E. parsonage, Rev. Frank L. Moore officiating. They are both of Blodgetts, Mr. Woods being the storekeeper at that place. They are both highly respected and numerous friends extend good wishes. They left on the afternoon train for their home, to take up life's work in earnest.

W. H. Height, of Polk county, and Miss Viola Miller, of Philomath, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Wednesday. The marriage ceremony occurred at the Baptist parsonage, this city, and was performed by Rev. Mark Noble. Both of the young people are spoken of most highly and many friends hope for their success in life.

Teachers Chosen.

The board of school directors held a meeting Saturday evening and selected the following teachers for the coming school year: Prof. S. W. Holmes, 9th grade; N. Tartar, 8th grade; Miss Mattie Lee, of Wells, 7th grade; Mrs. Laura Campbell, of Albany, 6th grade; Miss Ella Carris, 5th grade; Miss Edith Alderson, 4th; Miss Lena McCormick, 3rd grade; Miss Ida Maxwell, 2nd grade; Mrs. May Nelms, 1st grade. Since the meeting of the board Miss Maxwell has tendered her resignation. She has accepted an invitation to occupy the chair of household science in U. of W., in Seattle. This again leaves a vacancy, but it is likely that the board will hold a special meeting soon and select a teacher to complete the corps. Prof. Holmes is a graduate of Willamette University, having completed a nine-years' course in this institution in four and a half years. This fact alone speaks volumes in his favor. For the past two years he has been engaged at teaching in Grant's Pass. The last issue of the TIMES left many people in the dark as to whether Prof. McDonald had been re-engaged or not. He was not.

Teams Cannot Cross.

Judge Wood desires to state that teams will not be allowed to pass over the Marys river bridge from this (Friday), morning until tomorrow noon, on account of repairs that are in progress. Discussion of the condition of the bridge determined Judge Woodward to have the bridge thoroughly examined by Mr. Frank Miller, of Albany, the well-known bridge builder. Mr. Miller gave the bridge a thorough examination, Tuesday, and recommended certain repairs, with which he considered the bridge would be perfectly safe for another year at least. Contractor Tillotson and his force of men will begin the task of raising the south end of the structure this morning. It will be raised a few inches so as to allow the removal of some of the old caps, that set on the piling, and the substitution of new ones.

A few new cople blocks will be put in. Mr. Tillotson will work as many men as possible in order to have the bridge open for traffic at the earliest moment.

A Crying Shame.

Among other visitors at the GAZETTE office this week were two gentlemen from Alsea. Like all residents of that section who succeed in crossing "the mountain" safely, the burden of their conversation was the horrible condition of the road across this—during the winter months—almost impassable barrier. For at least six months in the year between 500 and 800 people living in Alsea and the country tributary are practically cut off from the outside world. This matter has been so thoroughly gone over by the papers of Corvallis in time past that it is unnecessary to dilate upon it here. Suffice it to say, the fact that such conditions exist is a crying shame. The thing to do is to formulate a remedy and apply it. There is a sentiment among the people of Alsea in favor of the establishment of a small sawmill at a convenient place equipped for sawing blocks suitable for corduroying the road in question. There is an abundance of timber growing along the road and it is believed that enough volunteer labor could be secured to do the work.

The late legislature passed a bill providing for the appointment of a roadmaster by the county court, with sufficient salary to warrant him in employing his entire time from March 1st to December 1st, in superintending construction of roads and building of bridges. A competent engineer could accomplish much between now and next fall in the way of improving the Alsea mountain road with the assistance even of unskilled labor.

Sunday School Picnic.

About 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning three hay wagon loads of members of the Presbyterian Sunday school, together with an immense quantity of choice eatables, started for Croft's Grove. This is across the Willamette from Corvallis a few miles. About 11 a. m. the grove was reached and it proved to be an ideal place for such a gathering. The day was ideal in every respect and the children were amused in various ways. They all enjoyed themselves to the utmost and the only thing that occurred to mar the pleasure of the picnickers was a slight accident that befell the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lincoln Bennett. The child jumped from one of the wagons and sustained a severe sprain of one of her ankles. She will be laid up for a week or more.

This will prove a happy solution of the dispute which arose between Benton and Lane over the south boundary of this county.
