

WORKING MISCHIEF.

Several months since the GAZETTE gave a clear statement of facts showing that Mr. Carnegie does not owe his accumulation of immense wealth to protection, but to his sterling integrity, industry, good judgment, energy and daring courage, his wise selection and generous treatment of subordinates and his control of natural sources of wealth. These are facts known to every one acquainted with the history of the man and easily obtainable by whoever seeks the simple truth.

In face of these facts certain newspapers persist in a tiresome reiteration that Carnegie acquired his wealth chiefly by the operation of the protective feature of the tariff, and therefore protection should be destroyed. This is bad enough if they stopped here, but they do not. With the same text and reckless disregard of truth they strive to array labor against capital.

One of these recently asserted that "Carnegie got away to Europe with two hundred million dollars which he had amassed out of the iron and steel trade through operations like that bloody affair at Homestead and through unconscionable prices for iron and steel products to American consumers."

Why this reference to the Homestead affair? That affair involved immense loss and was alike discreditable to capital and labor. Is it not true that the American consumer now pays less for his iron and steel, especially the structural kinds, than ever before? Is there any conclusive evidence that our manufacturers are not selling their products in foreign markets without profit to themselves? We have known mine operators and manufacturers do this repeatedly and for long periods, in order to give their workmen employment. Men devoid of conscience do not do such things.

So, also, the present strike in the steel works is caused by "plutocratic greed" in face of the truth that it is a strike of organized labor against unorganized labor; an attempt of the former to force the latter into membership in the labor unions by rendering it impossible for non-union men to obtain employment.

We are prepared to see demagogues, socialists and anarchists operate on lines such as these, but we know the editor of the paper from which we have quoted is as far from being any of these as day is from night. So of some others.

We confess we do not discern what motive such men can have in disregarding some facts, misrepresenting others, arraying labor against capital, the poor against the rich. It is unpatriotic, inhuman and supremely mischievous. It is sowing to the wind to reap the whirlwind. Whether done ignorantly, thoughtlessly or maliciously it can bring results only deplorable and disastrous.

to 24,300 in 1900—and it is suspected that the enumerators missed a good many, while several thousand have come in since the census was taken, and nearly all of them are on the Pacific coast. If the Japanese have thus increased, what might be the increase of Chinese with no exclusion law?

A Vicious Cow.

A dispatch from Albany gives the following account of an Albany woman being tossed by a cow: Mrs. Swyter, who lives near the wagon bridge across the Calappa river about one mile from Albany, was gored by an angry cow Saturday evening and is now in a serious condition.

Mr. Swyter had come to Albany, and Mrs. Swyter, accompanied by her little girl only four years old, started to the pasture to drive the cow and calf home. The cow was known to be vicious, but had never injured anyone before. When crossing the bridge the calf stopped. When Mrs. Swyter attempted to drive it forward the cow attacked her. She was tossed several times and seriously injured.

When Mr. Swyter returned home at 7 o'clock in the evening, he found his wife lying on the bridge in an unconscious condition and in great pain. She was carried to the house and medical aid secured from this city. An examination revealed that she was injured internally and may not recover. It is not known exactly how long she lay on the bridge after being injured. She recovered long enough to tell the above facts, but is unconscious most of the time.

If you are sick all over, and don't know just what ails you, it is ten to one your kidneys are out of order. Foley's Kidney Cure will bring you health and energy. Graham & Wortham.

The greatest skin specialist in America originated the formula for Banner Salve. For all skin diseases, all cuts or sores, and for piles, it's the most healing medicine. Beware of substitutes. Graham & Wortham.

Mr. W. J. Baxter, of North Brook, N. C., says he suffered with piles for 15 years. He tried many remedies with no results until he used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and that quickly cured him.—Graham & Wells.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers compel your liver and bowels to do their duty, thus giving you pure, rich blood to regenerate your body. Are easy to take. Never gripe. Graham & Wells.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve should be promptly applied to cuts, burns and scalds. It soothes and quickly heals the injured part. There are worthless counterfeits, be sure to get DeWitt's. Graham & Wells.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health and my life. I was treated in vain by doctors for lung trouble following la grippe. I took One Minute Cough Cure and recovered my health." Mr. H. Wise, Madison, Ga. Graham & Wells.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mother and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to cleanse out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you.—Get Green's Prize Almanac.—Graham & Wortham.

You will waste time if you undertake to cure indigestion or dyspepsia by starving yourself. That only makes it worse when you do eat heartily. You always need plenty of good food properly digested. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the result of years of scientific research for something that would digest not only some elements of food but every kind. And it is the one remedy that will do it.—Graham & Wells.

"I had a running sore on my breast for over a year," says Henry R. Richards, of Willsville, N. Y., "and tried a great many remedies, but got no relief until I used Banner Salve. After using one-half box, I was perfectly cured. I cannot recommend it too highly." Graham & Wortham.

A bad complexion generally results from inactive liver and bowels. In all such cases, DeWitt's Little Early Risers produce gratifying results. Graham & Wells.
