

HARMONY AND VICTORY.

The Multnomah county republicans have reorganized their county and city committee.

This action was necessary because the committee as previously constituted did not possess the confidence of the party.

Withdrawal of the appeal taken in the Lockwood primary law, and holding the primaries according to its provisions would be grateful evidence of the sincerity of this purpose.

The omens of a republican victory next June are very auspicious. There seems to be a well defined purpose to insure the election of a republican governor and legislature by avoiding the nomination of any one who either in the legislature or out of it has been identified with any faction or clique.

The republican majority in this county is small, and if the candidates named by the convention, especially those selected for the legislature, have been in any measure identified with faction, and "personal politics" they cannot be elected.

Selections from Roman History

A Literal Translation from Eutropius by C. MacLean, Ph.D. Fabricius Rejects Offer to Poison Pyrrhus—Pyrrhus Conquered.

Publius Sulpicius and Decius Mus, consuls, were sent as leaders against Pyrrhus. Having joined battle Pyrrhus was wounded, his elephants killed, twenty thousand of the enemy slain and only five thousand of the Romans fell.

After the lapse of a year Fabricius, who, before, when with the ambassadors could not be tempted by the promise of a fourth part of a kingdom, was sent against Pyrrhus.

conquered the Lucanians and the Samnites, celebrated a triumph [over them]. The consuls, Marcus Curius Dentatus and Cornelius Leutatus were next sent against Pyrrhus.
