

A SEWER NECESSARY.

There is little question but the sanitary condition of the public school building would be most desirably improved by the construction of a lateral sewer which would drain the school block and afford sewer connection for the water closets of the school whether these be placed within the building or remain outside as at present.

HOMER'S ILIAD.

Book I—A Literal Translation by C. Maclean, Ph. D. Vv. 101-187.—Conflict between Agamemnon and Achilles: And so, having thus spoken, he sat down, and there stood up for them the warrior, Agamemnon—the wide ruling son of Atreus—enraged; and his diaphanous [i. e., his heart] black all around with rage, and his eyes were like blazing fire.

cunning minded one, how can any of the Achaeans obey thy words either to go on a journey or to fight bravely with men? For I came not hither to fight on account of Trojan spearmen, since they are not guilty toward me [i. e., have done me no wrong], for never yet drove they off my oxen, nor, in truth, my horses, and never did they lay waste the crop in Pithia—the fertile nursery of heroes, since between us very much lies—both shady mountains and a loud roaring sea; but with thee, O most shameless one, in order that thou mayst rejoice, we accompanied seeking requital from the Trojans for Menelaus and for thee, O dog faced. These services thou dost not at all regard nor value; and now thou art threatening that thou wilt, of thine own will, take away from me the prize for which I have toiled much, and [which] the sons of the Achaeans gave to me. Yet, never have I a prize equal to thine, whenever the Achaeans sack a well inhabited city of the Trojans; although my hands manage the greater part of the fierce battle. Yet, when a division (of the spoils) comes, by far the greater prize (falls) to thee, and I go to the ships with a small, but agreeable one, when I am wearied fighting. And now I go to Pithia, since it is much better that I go home with the crooked-beaked ships; nor do I purpose, while here dishonored, to heap up riches for thee."

And then Agamemnon, king of men, answered: "Fly by all means, if thy mind urges thee. I, at least, will not beg of thee to stay on my account. There are others near me who perchance will gain me honor, but especially the all-wise Zeus. But thou art to me the most hateful of the Jove-nourished kings; for always strife is agreeable to thee, (as also) are wars and quarrels. If thou art very brave, doubtless God gave this to thee [i. e., it is not thy merit]. Go home with thy ships and comrades and rule over the Myrionids, but I do not heed thee, nor do I regard thee when thou art angry; but I thus warn thee: Since Phoebus Apollo is taking away from me the daughter of Chryseis, I will send her with a ship of mine and with my friends, then I, myself, will go to thy tent and lead away the beautiful-cheeked daughter of Bryseis, that prize of thine, in order that thou mayst well know how much better I am than thee [i. e., than thou art], and that another also may fear to fancy himself equal to me and to place himself in comparison with me."

Information Wanted. The manufacturers of Banner Salve have always believed that no doctor or medicine can cure in every case, but never having heard where Banner Salve failed to cure ulcers, sores, tetter, eczema or piles, as a matter of curiosity would like to know if there are such cases. If so they will gladly refund the money Graham & Wortham.

Brain-Food Nonsense. Another ridiculous food fat has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Graham & Wortham. Get Green's Special Almanac.

The Children's Friend. You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer, too. For cough, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup."—Graham & Wells.

The Real Thing. If any lady wants to get a real bargain in a sewing machine she should call on T. W. Dille, "The Fixer." He is selling this year's model New Home machines for $38. The usual price of these machines is $75. The machine offered by Mr. Dille is very light running, as it is ball bearing. These machines are guaranteed to sew equally well with either silk or cotton thread. Here is an opportunity that should not be lost.

cures colds, prevents pneumonia. Try this Office for Job Work.

Modern Surgery Surpassed.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits.—Graham & Wells.

Editor Lynch of "Daily Post" Phillipsburg, N. J., has tested the merits of Foley's Honey and Tar with this result: "I have used a great many patent remedies in my family for coughs and colds, and I can honestly say your Honey and Tar is the best thing of the kind I have ever used and I cannot say too much in praise of it."—Graham & Wortham.

For Sale. Four-room cottage and two lots, near S. P. depot. Inquire of W. C. Corbett, Corvallis, Or.

C. W. Lynch, Winchester, Ind., writes: "I owe the life of my boy to Foley's Honey and Tar. He had membranous croup, and the first dose gave him relief. We continued its use and it soon brought him out of danger."—Graham & Wortham.

Good Advice.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Constiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Waterbrash, Gnawing and Burning Pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and Disagreeable Taste in the Mouth, Coming up of Food after Eating, Low Spirits, etc. Go to your Druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Graham & Wortham.

Reliable and Gentle. "A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't grip. DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take.—Graham & Wells.

J. W. Bryan of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor, we gave him Foley's Honey and Tar. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."—Graham & Wortham.

Executors' Sale of Real Property.

Satisfied People

are the best advertisers for Foley's Honey and Tar and all who use it agree that it is a splendid remedy for coughs, colds or sore lungs. Graham & Wortham.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did." says County Physician George W. Scroggs of Hall County, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worse case quickly cured. Never fails.—Graham & Wells.

Chas. Repligle, Atwater, O., was in very bad shape. He says: "I suffered a great deal with my kidneys and was requested to try Foley's Kidney Cure. I did so and in four days I was able to go to work again, now I am entirely well."—Graham & Wortham.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the viewers appointed by the Common Council of Corvallis, to estimate the proportionate share of the cost that the several property owners and lot holders in the construction of a sewer from the north line of Block 15, Southward through the alley to the North line of Block 14, in the town of Corvallis, have filed their report of which the following is a copy to-wit: To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council of the Common Council of the City of Corvallis, Oregon, Nov. 10, 1901. GENTLEMEN: We the undersigned heretofore appointed by you as viewers to estimate the proportionate share of the cost of a sewer to be constructed in the city of Corvallis from the north line of Block 15, City of Corvallis, to the North line of Block 14, in a straight line to a point on the N. line of Block 14, and to assess the same to the several owners of the property benefited thereby, beg to report as follows: That we met the office of the Public Judge of the City of Corvallis, on the 12th day of Nov. A. D. 1901, at 5 P. M., when were present (of our viewers) L. Henderson and Virgil K. Waiters, and after hearing the objections of Mr. E. F. Hyland and having carefully examined the line of said proposed sewer and the adjoining property, we adjourned to meet Saturday Nov. 16th, 1901, at 6 P. M. And now having carefully considered said matters find: That said proposed sewer will be 288 feet in length; that a man-hole and two catch basins will be situated thereon and located in the streets of Corvallis. That the contract to construct said sewer has been awarded in the sum of $448.75; That the expense of the construction of the 98 feet and man-hole and basins, amounting to $155.75 should be borne by the City, and that the property owners are equally benefited in proportion to the number of lots owned. We therefore estimate and assess the proportionate share of the cost of said sewer as follows: That the City of Corvallis pay for the 98 feet in the streets, including man-hole and basins amounting to $155.75. That M. M. Davis as owner of Lot 7 & 8, and block 15, pay, $ 87.07. That H. E. Lee as owner of Lot 14, and block 15, pay, $ 88.08. That J. M. Nolan as the owner of Lots 7 & 8, and block 15, pay, $ 88.08. That B. F. Hyland as the owner of Lots 9, 10, 11, & 12 and block 14, pay, $ 67.60. Respectfully, VIRGIL K. WAITERS, L. HENDERSON, Viewers.

That the property declared by ordinance to be directly benefited by said sewer is all of Block 15, original town of Corvallis, and all Adams Street included between third and fourth streets Corvallis, Oregon.

That within ten days from the final publication of this notice, to-wit: January 3, 1902, the owner of any property assessed and determined by said viewers to be directly benefited by said sewer or drain is hereby required to file with the Public Judge of Corvallis, any objection he or she may have to the findings and determinations of said viewers.

Police Judge of the City of Corvallis.
