

OUR 30TH ANNIVERSARY.

The present number of the Corvallis Gazette concludes its thirty-ninth year. It was first issued in December 1862 and throughout its long and useful existence it has been steadily maintained as a consistent republican paper, except about one year during its early history, when it was conducted as the special organ of the Independent Order of Good Templars of this state.

AMAZING ABSURDITY.

"The commodity of transportation is one of the things Europe uses to pay for what she buys of us. If we stop taking $200,000,000 worth of it or any other sum, she will buy an equal amount less or else sell us an equal amount of something we now supply ourselves."

This is the language of the Oregonian used as an argument against our creating a merchant marine to do our own carrying trade, and presented to its readers as the teachings of political economy.

Europe takes of our products, as our foodstuffs, because she needs them now or prospectively. Her necessity is the only measure of her demand. This necessity would be no less insistent though we did our own carrying. This is the teaching of political economy, the law of trade, the conclusion of good sense.

That Europe, if we did our own carrying would "sell us an equal amount of something we now supply ourselves" is an amazing absurdity.

No longer permitted to pay for our products by doing our carrying, and unable to sell us something or anything we supply ourselves Europe would be compelled to put up the coin.

The Oregonian writer evidently thinks he is not "in the primer class in political economy." We, too, think so—indeed are satisfied he never was in it.

HOMER'S ILLIAD.

Book I—A Literal Translation by C. Maclean, Ph. D. Vv. 223-235—The Quarrel between Agamemnon and Achilles Renewed—Vv. 233-224—Speech, Achilles: Then the son of Peleus anew with angry words the son of Atreus addressed, and not yet did he cease from anger: "O son [lit. heavy with wine], having the eyes of a dog, but the heart of a deer, never yet hast thou had the courage in thy soul to be armed along with the people for the fray nor to ambush to go with the chieftains of the Achaeans, for this appears to be death to thee. Yes! It is much more desirable [from thy point of view] to take, in the broad camp of the Achaeans, the prize of anyone who perchance speaks against thee. A people devouring King thou, since thou rulest over a feeble folk; otherwise [i. e. if they were not feeble], O son of Atreus, thou wouldst surely now for the very last time be insolent. But I will speak out to thee; and more, upon this great sign I will swear. Yes, by this sceptre which never put forth leaves and shoots, [and never has put them forth] since first it left the stump on the mountains, and shall not bloom again; for, as thou seest, the bronze [i. e. the knife. Camp. Enz "steel" for sword, or spear] has stripped it of its leaves and bark all around. But now the sons of the Achaeans, the guardians of justice, who defend the laws by authority of Zeus, bear it in their hands. This shall be to thee the great oath. Of a truth some day a yearning for Achilles shall come to the sons of the Achaeans—to all [of them] together; and then thou though deeply grieved will not at all be able to help, when many by the hands of the man-slaying Hector shall fall dead; and thou full of rage [at thyself] wilt gnaw thy heart within thy breast, because thou didst in no respect honor the bravest of the Achaeans."

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer, too. For cough, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure never fails. Acts promptly. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. B. George, Winchester, Ky., writes: "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup."

Modern Surgery Passed.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits.—Graham & Wells.

Editor Lynch of "Daily Post" Phillipsburg, N. J., has tested the merits of Foley's Honey and Tar with this result: "I have used a great many patent remedies in my family for coughs and colds, and I can honestly say your Honey and Tar is the best thing of the kind I have ever used and I cannot say too much in praise of it." Graham & Wortham.

For Sale.

Four-room cottage and two lots, near S. P. depot. Inquire of W. C. Corbett, Corvallis, Or.

C. W. Lynch, Winchester, Ind., writes "I owe the life of my boy to Foley's Honey and Tar. He had membranous croup, and the first dose gave him relief. We continued its use and it soon brought him out of danger." Graham & Wortham.

Good Advice.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent. of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart Burn, Waterbrash, Gnawing and Burning Pains at the pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and Disagreeable Taste in the Mouth, Coming up of Food after Eating, Low Spirits, etc. Go to your Druggist and get a bottle of Anusol Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. Graham & Wortham.

Reliable and Gentle.

"A pill's a pill," says the saw. But there are pills and pills. You want a pill which is certain, thorough and gentle. Mustn't give DeWitt's Little Early Risers fill the bill. Purely vegetable. Do not force but assist the bowels to act. Strengthen and invigorate. Small and easy to take.—Graham & Wells.

J. W. Bryan of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor, we gave him Foley's Honey and Tar. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered." Graham & Wortham.

Foley's Honey and Tar cures colds, prevents pneumonia.

Satisfied People are the best advertisers for Foley's Honey and Tar and all who use it agree that it is a splendid remedy for coughs, colds or sore lungs. Graham & Wortham.

A Physician Testifies.

"I have taken Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and have never used anything in my life that did me the good that did." says County Physician George W. Serogus of Hall County, Ga. "Being a physician I have prescribed it and found it to give the best results." If the food you eat remains undigested in your stomach it decays there and poisons the system. You can prevent this by dieting but that means starvation. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. You need suffer from neither dyspepsia nor starvation. The worse case quickly cured. Never fails.—Graham & Wells.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the voters appointed by the Common Council of Corvallis, Oregon, to estimate the proportionate share of the cost that the several property owners should pay toward the construction of a sewer from the modern line of Block 15, bounded through the alley to the North line of Block 14, on the corner of Corvallis, have filed their report of which the following is a copy to-wit: Corvallis, Oregon, Nov. 16, 1901. To the Hon. Mayor and Councilmen of the Common Council of the City of Corvallis, Oregon. GENTLEMEN: We the undersigned heretofore appointed by you to estimate the cost of the sewer to be constructed in the city of Corvallis in the north-south line on the corner of Block 15, and to assess the same to the several owners of the property benefited thereby, beg to report as follows: That we met at the office of the Police Judge of the City of Corvallis, on the 12th day of Nov. A. D. 1901, at 3 P. M., when were present (of your viewers) L. H. Henderson and Virgil E. Watters, and after hearing the objections of Mr. R. F. Hyland and having carefully examined the line of said proposed sewer and the adjoining property, we adjourned to meet Saturday Nov. 16th, 1901, at 9 P. M. and now having carefully considered said matters find: That said proposed sewer will be 120 feet in length; that a man-hole and two catch basins will be attached thereto and located in the streets of Corvallis. That the contract to construct said sewer has been awarded in the sum of $445.75. That the cost of the construction of the sewer, including man-hole and basins, amounting to $715.72 should be borne by the City, and that the 1/2 party should be assessed in proportion to the number of lots owned. We therefore estimate and assess the proportionate share of the cost of said sewer as follows: That the City of Corvallis pay for the 98 feet in the streets, including man-hole and basins, amounting to $115.72. That M. B.
