

REPUBLICAN PURPOSE.

It is probable the republican county committee will accept the suggestion of the state committee for holding the primaries and the county convention.

We may expect that candidates for the various offices will be in greater evidence until the close of the campaign with the June elections. The GAZETTE has already called attention to the work developing upon our county convention. This is so important that at risk of reiteration we would revert again to it.

For the first time in the history of the county it constitutes a legislative district and we may nominate and elect men of our own choosing. This makes it possible to select men who know what sort of legislation the county needs and whose interests shall operate as some sort of guarantee that they will work to secure such legislation.

The afternoon concludes the session of the Third Annual Convention of Oregon Fruit Growers held at the Agricultural College. The meeting opened yesterday at 2:30 p. m., with an address by Hon. E. H. Hoyer of Salem.

Today's exercises begin at 9 a. m. The morning program consists of the following papers and discussion of them: "The Latest Ideas about Pruning Prunes," W. V. Allen, Salem; "How to Build an Evaporator Furnace," W. K. Newell, Dilley; "Words of Caution," A. Brownell, Albany.

The afternoon will be devoted to the following papers: "The Essentials of Good Packing," Hon. J. D. Odell, Central Point; "Seeds and Seed Growing," G. S. Wann, Portland; "The Curl Leaf," Charles Long, Silverton.

Just here is the danger. The man who desires election to the legislature mainly to advance his own selfish purposes is an all too familiar character.

The self-selected candidate for United States senator becomes a great political octopus sending the tentacles of his selfish ambition into every election precinct in the state. Chicanery, trickery, fraud, bribery, all sorts of political immorality are used to advance the interests of such a candidate.

Everywhere the people are heartily disgusted with such things. In many localities they have risen in open political revolt and swept their would-be masters from place and power.

We have been at no little pains to learn the attitude of the mass of the republicans in this county. They will not tolerate any suspicion of conditions which promise a repetition of the scandalous scenes which characterized the last two legislative sessions.

Republicans—the rank and file of the party—are determined that they will support only intelligent, courageous, honest men whose sole aim shall be to legislate for the benefit of their constituency and the good of Oregon in general.
