Saturday a new carpet was put on the floor of the M. E. church, South. It was greatly needed and makes a great improvement in the interior of that edifice.

The excursion from this city to Salem on the steamer Pomona was quite well patronized. The excursionists had an enjoyable time and arrived home shortly before midnight that evening.

B. S. Martin, our "Barney" of the early days of the new college, was democratic candidate for surveyor in Linn county. We have not learned what verdict the people gave in his behalf, but he is all right, anyhow.

James Wilkinson and wife left, Monday, en route to Astoria to attend the encampment of the old soldiers which will be held there during the week. This is the annual encampment for all old soldiers of Oregon.

Fred Oberer, of the Charter Oak Mill Co., came up from Tampico, Monday. Fred states that everything is moving along nicely in his mill business and that his company has an order booked for forty-five carloads of lumber.

Ivan Daniel, who has been a member of the Weidemann theatrical company during the past winter, spent Sunday in this city visiting relatives and friends. He joined his company in Salem Monday. They play a week at that place.

James Davidson, of Independence, and Mrs. Violetta Miller of this city, were united in wedlock last Saturday at the residence of Rev. Mark Noble, this city. Rev. Noble performed the ceremony. Many friends congratulated and wish them long years of happiness and prosperity.

The Senior class of the O A C will give their annual excursion to Newport, Saturday, June 7th. Trains leave Corvallis at 6 o'clock a. m. Fare for round trip $1.50. All should avail themselves of this splendid opportunity to spend a day at the beach and breathe the refreshing salt air of the ocean.

Frank Bunker and wife, of Lewiston, Wis., arrived in Corvallis, Monday, and are visiting Mr. J. E. Cronk and family. Mr. Bunker is an engineer on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad. He expects to visit Newport, Astoria and other points of interest in the state before his return home.

The Decoration Day exercises at Weston, Oregon, were conducted by the Weston Normal School. Miss Lulu Spangler, of this city, is in charge of the department of music at this school. A dispatch to the Sunday Oregonian speaks in praise of the musical numbers given on this occasion and of the fact that the chorus was directed by Miss Spangler.

On June 1st Ed. Cummings became sole proprietor of the O A C barber shop, Tom Case retiring from the business. Mr. Case has been in the barber business in this city for something like fifteen years and has many friends here. He will go into the same business somewhere in Eastern Oregon, and beyond doubt will build up a good patronage. Mr. Cummings has every right to anticipate the same liberal patronage that has greeted the firm in the past.

In the interest of the many who hold to the opinion that Yaquina Bay is Oregon's most picturesque summer resort, General Passenger and Freight Agent Coman, of the Southern Pacific, and General Manager Stone, of the Corvallis & Eastern Road, are figuring upon a special excursion schedule for the season that will enable Portlanders to leave Portland Saturday nights and go straight through to the coast without change of cars. This service necessarily contemplates the use of sleepers. It will land passengers at Newport early in the morning Sundays, give them all day at the beach and return them to Portland Monday morning. It is believed that a great many Portland business men will appreciate this innovation, and that a large Saturday excursion business can be worked up.

W. A. Sanders, Jeweler.

James Zurcher went to Monmouth, Saturday, to visit his sister. He returned Sunday.

The Ladies' Coffee Club gave an enjoyable little dance in the city hall last Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Cameron, who has been dangerously ill, is rapidly improving, and is now able to sit up in bed.

At the field meet, Friday, between the boys of Albany college and those of Forest Grove, the latter were victors by a score of 72 to 52.

Dick Zahn came out from Alesia, Saturday, and after transacting some business, returned home Sunday. Mr. Zahn says the road over Alesia Mountain is so nothing awful.

A quiet wedding occurred at the residence of Horace Underhill, justice of the peace at Summit, on May 25th. The contracting parties were James Jorey and Miss Lucy Manpin, both of Blodgett, Oregon.

The last pupils' recital of the season, by the musical department of O A C, under the direction of Miss Philbrick, occurred last Saturday evening in the college chapel. The attendance was good and the program acquitted very creditably.

Last Friday the 10-year-old daughter of G. W. Smith found the watch lost by Miss Kate Daniel. It was found near the Catholic cemetery and it was one chance in a thousand that led to its discovery. It pays to advertise in the GAZETTE.

Wednesday evening, May 4th the graduating exercises of the Corvallis public schools will occur in the Opera House. The young people will present a very pleasing program on this occasion and it is hoped that they will have a good house.

Excursion from this city to Salem next Sunday to meet those who arrive there on the conductor's excursion. A big time for those who attend. The Pomona will make the trip, leaving here at 6:30 a. m. The price of the round trip will be 75 cents.

Roy Dunn, son of James Dunn, was the victim of a serious accident last Thursday. He fell on a large butcher knife and entirely severed the cords of the second finger of his right hand, allowing that member to fall into the palm of his hand. Mr. Dunn brought his son to town, Friday, and Dr. Pernot stitched the tendons together. Whether it will be possible for them to knit together is a question.

Henry Ambler, the real estate agent of Philomath, recently sold the Harrison place, lying about one mile west of that city, to L. L. Archer, recently from Ellsworth, Kansas. The place contained 40 acres and the consideration was $2,300, cash. Mr. Ambler has also negotiated the sale of five acres situated in Philomath, belonging to Mr. Grant. By the transaction the property passed to Mr. Crabtree, of Philomath. The price paid was $400. Mr. Ambler is a wide-awake real estate hustler.

From all over the country comes the report of a failure in the prune crop. It is estimated that in this county there will not be more than a fourth of a crop, possibly not more than a fifth. This is, indeed, a very serious condition of affairs. Robert Johnson, manager of the big orchard of the Benton County Prune Co., says that their orchard produced as many prunes last year as the whole of Benton county will produce this year. Along about the latter part of next month prunes generally drop from the trees to some extent and with the small setting of fruit this season if they should drop to any degree the output will be most seriously affected. However, everything indicates that the prunes that are produced will be unusually large, and it is hoped that the price will be as large as the crop is small.

The steamer Pomona will leave here Sunday morning at 6:30 and will arrive in Salem at 10:30, where excursionists will meet those who attend the conductor's excursion trains which run from Roseburg and The Dalles to Salem. Returning the Pomona leaves Salem at 4 p. m. Price of round-trip tickets 75 cents.

Three Deaths.

Mrs. Lana Gray was born in Strasburg, France, and at the time of her decease, on Saturday, May 31, she had reached the age of 86 years 2 months and 21 days. She came when a child with her parents to Buffalo, N. Y. Thence to Ohio, Chicago, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Buffalo, and finally to Oregon. Was married in Buffalo, N. Y., to Mr. Anthony Mitchell. After the loss of four children he also died leaving her a widow with five children, one of whom has since died, the surviving four being Mrs. J. H. Albright, of Corvallis; Mrs. M. C. Shadden, Portland; Dr. Frank Mitchell, California; and Mrs. L. C. Holgate, Baker City; who together with seven grand children and one great-grandchild mourn her loss. She was married the second time, at McMinville, to Mr. Gray, who died in Corvallis, a few years back. She united with the Baptist church in Corvallis, Feb. 28, 1892.

Her life has been that of a consistent follower of Christ. She was ever at the post of duty and a great worker in the church until sickness laid her aside and deprived the church of one of its best helpers. Her sufferings were great, beyond words to tell, but now she has fallen sweetly asleep in Jesus whence none shall ever wake to mourn or weep. Long will her memory be lovingly cherished by all who knew her, while we shall look forward with intense anticipation to the hour of reunion amidst the joys and splendors which know no ending. Truly the memory of the just is blessed.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. Noble, in the Baptist church, Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, June 3, 1902.

The death of A. Cauthorn occurred in this city last Sunday morning about 6 o'clock. He had been a resident of this county for 37 years, having come from Missouri to Oregon in 1865. He had been a Mason for more than fifty years and a year ago the local lodge celebrated the anniversary of his fiftieth year as a member.

He was a devoted christian and a member of the M. E. church, South. The funeral will occur at 2 p. m. today and the services will be conducted by Rev. W. B. Smith, of the South Methodist church. Interment will be made in the Crystal Lake cemetery.

For years the deceased was engaged in the mercantile business in this city and has always been most highly respected by all. He was the father of Dr. Frank Cauthorn, James Cauthorn and Senator Thomas Cauthorn; the latter two sons are deceased. He had reached the advanced age of more than 30 years.

Mrs. William Elliott died last Thursday night at her home a few miles north of this city. She was the mother of Elda and W. E. Elliott, both lately deceased, and was an old pioneer. She had been an invalid for a dozen years as the result of a stroke of paralysis. She contracted pneumonia a couple of days before her death and to this is attributed her sudden demise. She was aged 68 years. The funeral occurred Saturday and the services were held at the Mt. View school house and were conducted by Rev. H. A. Deck. The interment was made in the Locke cemetery. The deceased was the mother of a large family and had many warm friends. Thus has another pioneer gone to the great beyond.

Something New.

While our city is well supplied with fraternal orders, the Independent Order of Lions, with its most excellent and unique plans, found sufficient favor with our people, as presented by Mrs. L. Lasb, of Portland, who represents the order in Oregon, to enable her in a remarkably short time to secure a charter list of twenty-six of our leading citizens.

On the evening of May 29th the lodge was instituted with the aid of Supervising Deputy C. D. Fowle. The following officers were elected and installed: Dr. L. G. Altman, past president; J. W. Wage, president; Mrs. Ellen Brunk, vice-president; Miles Starr, secretary; Anora Laferty, treasurer; Rev. Andrew Carrick, chaplain; Lillie J. King, sergeant-at-arms; Harriet Dilley, assistant sergeant-at-arms; H. S. Clodfelter, door-keeper; West Newton, sentinel; W. H. Dilley, Dr. W. T. Rowley and H. M. Brunk are trustees.

The lodge was named to be known as "Mizpah," and is to meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays of every month.

This is a fine record for two days' work and speaks well for the energy and push of the organizer. The Order of Lions is a typical "web-foot" fraternal institution, incorporated under the laws of Oregon with its supreme offices created in the Chamber of Commerce Building, Portland, where its supreme president and secretary may be found at any time and when the books are open to the inspection of any member of the order. The benefits are paid in a pension of $50 a month for a period of four years and a funeral benefit of $100. This makes it a most excellent order to take up along with other orders or insurance which is paid in a lump sum.

Mrs. Lash returned to Portland on Friday, but will return in a few days and continue her work with the lodge.

Fittingly Observed.

Memorial Day has passed once more and is now a memory. The town was decorated to a greater extent than usual, flags and bunting being displayed in many places about town.

At two o'clock the parade formed in front of the G. A. R. ball. It was led by the O A C cadet band, followed in regular order by four companies of college cadets, a squad of artillery, the signal corps, members of the G. A. R. post and the W. R. C., the children of the public school, and citizens in carriages and on foot. They marched to Crystal Lake cemetery, where the usual exercises took place. S. Chipman was grand marshal on this occasion.

The graves of the departed comrades and beloved ones were decorated to such a degree that the cemetery was almost a solid mass of flowers. This occasion is always a sad one and recalls to mind scenes that belong to departed days.

In the evening a service was held in the M. E. church. There was vocal music by a male quartette, also by a sextette of mixed voices, Miss Mabel Cronise sang a solo, Victor Moses played a trombone solo, Miss Edith Kyle gave a recitation and there was a flag drill by the children of the public school. All were well rendered and liberally applauded. C. E. Woodson made the address of the occasion and his effort was of unusual merit from every point of view. In fact, Mr. Woodson's address on this occasion is spoken of in the highest possible terms.
