LOCAL NEWS.

Don't forget to vote for carnival queen.

New goods all the time at Nolan & Callahan's.

Dr. Rowley paid a business visit to Portland last week.

The Baptists have had to enlarge their accommodation for their increased Sunday School.

Don't forget the Hazelwood ice cream served Saturdays and Sundays at the City Restaurant.

Call and investigate that "Red Box" proposition at Nolan & Callahan's. There's money in it.

Henry Howell and wife left yesterday for their home at Toledo, after a visit of several days with relatives in this city.

C. H. McHenry began the erection of a 14x18 two-story addition to the residence of J. J. Cady, on college hill, yesterday.

W. B. Chase, formerly a resident of Corvallis, is in the city on business. Mr. Chase moved to Portland in 1891, and his home is still in that city.

Workmen began laying the new pavement along the west and north sides of the Hotel Corvallis yesterday morning. Other improvements about the building are being pushed rapidly to completion.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cooley, of Brownsville, attended the sessions of the Epworth League convention in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Cooley were formerly students at the agricultural college, and have many friends in this city.

Miss Sutherland, of the O A C, was appointed state secretary of the Inter-Collegiate Prohibition Association of Oregon at the business meeting held in Dallas last Friday. The state contest will be held at Philomath next year.

Henry Ambler has negotiated the sale of the W. G. Fisher 21-acre farm near Philomath, to J. W. Davenport, of Grand Junction, Colorado. The consideration was $1650, cash, and the purchaser takes possession at once. The farm is well improved and the house upon it is new. It is regarded as a bargain at the price paid.

R. Scott, of Milwaukie, who has had long experience in handling cattle, says that such disasters as the killing of William Armstrong, near Philomath, a day or two ago by a bull, which he was leading by a small chain attached to a ring in the animal's nose, can be averted by using a stick in the place of a chain or rope. If such a stick two or three feet long with a snap hook at the end is connected with the ring, the bull can be kept far enough away to prevent him from injuring a person leading him, and even if one loses his hold on the stick the end of it will reach the ground and prevent the bull from goring him if he should be thrown down. Such a stick costs only a trifle and should always be used in handling vicious bulls.

The decisive victory of the Oregon Agricultural college athletes over McMinnville college shows that Trainer W. O. Trine is developing a strong team at Corvallis, and it will not be surprising if the old reliable trainer turns out a championship aggregation. Trine trained the University of Oregon team for five years and lost but one meet. While no records were broken in the meet at Corvallis last Saturday, the figures show that the "farmer" boys are in good shape for the early part of the season and that Trine has several good men for each event. In Moores and Williams, the "Aggies" have two speedy sprinters, while Cathey shows good form as a hurdler. In the weights, Jackson, Pilkington, Abraham and the Burnoughs have made very creditable records. When the more important meets with Eugene and Corvallis are pulled off, Trine's colts will be in the best of condition and will make things lively for their opponents.—Oregonian.

Rev. Dr. Coleman, of Salem, will occupy the pulpit at the M. E. church next Sunday morning.

Don't forget the Hazelwood ice cream served Saturdays and Sundays at the City Restaurant.

S. N. Wilkins returned, yesterday, from Vancouver, Wash., where he had charge of the funeral of Student Rawson, which occurred near that city Sunday.

Mrs. Epy has taken the agency for the famous Mme. Kariow's remedies, formerly controlled by Mrs. Wraga, and will be pleased to fill all orders for same.

A recent real estate transaction was the purchase of the R. E. Gibson residence and six lots in north Corvallis by Miss Martha Fischer. The consideration was $3,000.

Don't forget to call for the Hazelwood ice cream every Saturday and Sunday at the City Restaurant; also first-class meals, 25 and 50 cents. C. W. LEDERLE, Proprietor.

Tom Horning informs the Lincoln Leader that Darnell's launch, the Ruth, will be shipped to Corvallis by rail and then go via the Willamette to Portland, thence to Kalama, Wash.

Hon. A. W. Reames, the democratic candidate for congress from the first Oregon district, will speak in Corvallis next Saturday. He is billed to address the citizens of Philomath, Friday afternoon.

R. A. Bowman and family have taken up their residence in Portland. Mr. Bowman says he regrets to leave this city, but he has permanent employment in the metropolis and wishes to have his family with him.

Harry Holgate arrived in Corvallis, yesterday, for a week's visit, at the end of which time he will return to Washington, D. C., to resume his duties in the census department. Henry Allen and wife are now in North Carolina, while Brady Burnett is in Connecticut.

The Toledo Leader corrects the GAZETTE's statement that the visitors will be attracted to the Woodmen carnival in Corvallis from a radius of 20 miles by saying: "Don't forget Toledo. Although 62 miles from Corvallis, our large force of choppers and many other citizens will be there."

George Pilgr, of Portland, and Miss Olive Benson, of Corvallis, were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Ed Jackson, in this city last Tuesday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Green, of the Congregational church, in the presence of twenty guests. A dainty wedding luncheon was served. The young couple left yesterday for Portland, where they will reside.

Two wagon loads of subjects of "Queen Liz," the gypsy potentate who lately brought her tribe to Oregon, arrived in Corvallis Saturday. Their stay was cut so short that it can scarcely be said that they paid us a visit. Four of the light-fingered women preceded the band, and began plying their vocation on Main street. In a few moments, a victim was telling Chief Alexander of his troubles. That officer rounded up the offenders and with them in tow met the main band as they drove into town. He directed them to the ferry and suggested that a hurried exit on their part might save them some annoyance. After a spirited debate, the officer was awarded the decision and the wanderers resumed their journey.

Sup't Denman has received a petition from the citizens of Philomath asking that the next annual teachers' institute be held in that city. The petition is numerously signed. It sets forth that Philomath is the second educational center of the county; that the said meeting of teachers has not been held in that city for six years. The citizens have guaranteed sufficient accommodations for boarding and lodging at the reasonable price of 80 cents per day. Sup't Denman has decided to grant the prayer of the petition. This year's annual will be held May 18, 19, 20. B. F. Mulkey, president State Normal at Ashland, Henry D. Sheldon, of Department of Education of State University and Sup't Ackerman are the instructors. Miss Sophia Wolf, a graduate of Emerson School of Oratory, has been secured to give an evening's entertainment.

Mrs. D. M. Smith and little child of this city, and Misses Blodgett and Simpson, of Lebanon, had a miraculous escape from being killed or badly maimed yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. The two young ladies have been attending the Epworth League meetings in this city, and Mrs. Smith had arranged to take them and a party of others for a drive before they left for their homes. A double-seated carriage and team was secured at the City Stables, and Mrs. Smith was driving about gathering up the various members of the party. When near the Catholic church, in attempting to turn the carriage around the wheel was cramped and the carriage was upset. The horses started to run and the occupants of the rig were thrown out, but aside from a few bruises and a bad scare, were unhurt. The carriage was pretty badly disfigured.

FARMERS WON EASILY.

Defeat McMinnville College Team on Agricultural College Field by Seventy-nine Points.

It was thin picking for McMinnville in the field meet with O A C on the local field Saturday afternoon. The visitors contested gamely for every point, however, even when the score board showed that they were hopelessly beaten. They made a very good showing in the sprints and distance races, but had no entries heavy enough to take places in the weights, the farmers taking all three places with the shot, hammer and discus.

Although the weather was ideal, the spectators were treated to no exceptional performances. Many of the contests were close enough to be exciting, but the work done by Cathey and Moores in the broad jump was the only event of the first order on the program. In a number of instances the competition was wholly between members of the local team and each was satisfied with a place and was not disposed to make his best effort. Cummings took the half mile handily in the absence of Howard of the farmers' team who won that event in the try-out a week ago. The final score was O A C, 102½; McMinnville, 23½.

Following is a list of events and the names of those who took places:

Injured Student Died.

Student Earl Rawson, who was so frightfully injured last Wednesday afternoon by being impaled on the leg of a hurdle which he attempted to leap, succumbed to his injuries last Friday morning at 12:50 o'clock. He rallied from the operation performed the previous afternoon and recognized his mother who arrived at 9 o'clock Thursday evening. Shortly before midnight he lapsed into unconsciousness and remained so to the end.

Funeral services were conducted Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock by Rev. Humbert in front of Cauthorn Hall. The cadet battalion attended in a body and escorted the remains to the Westside train. Cadets M. D. McCallister, C. Gardner, M. B. Beldor, F. Galloway, J. A. Tanock and J. S. McCormack accompanied the body to Vancouver, Wash., and attended the funeral which occurred near that city.

New Military Instructor.

Captain Charles B. Hardin, Eighteenth Infantry, has been detailed as professor of military science and tactics at the Oregon Agricultural College. He is stationed at present at Fort Logan, Colorado. In a recent letter to President Gatch, Captain Hardin makes inquiries respecting the condition of military affairs at the college, and school and other facilities of Corvallis. Captain Hardin has a wife and two children, a girl of 10 and a boy of 6 years of age. They will arrive in Corvallis in time for that officer to enter upon his duties at the college at the opening of the fall term.

Captain Geary, who was killed during the war in the Philippine islands, was the last regular army officer in charge of the military department at the college. After his departure for the islands in 1898, the seat was left vacant until the return of Major Edwards, who made a brilliant record as a volunteer officer in the Philippine campaign. Major Edwards has served as commander at the college for the last three years and has given excellent satisfaction. The regulations covering the military department of agricultural colleges provide that a regular army officer shall be in charge, and for this reason Major Edwards is to be replaced by Captain Hardin.

Horning-Logan.

A quiet, pretty wedding occurred, May 1st, at Mr. and Mrs. Logan's, this city, when in the presence of members of both families and a few friends, the Rev. M. Noble united in holy wedlock Mr. W. H. Horning and Miss Bessie M. Logan. The home was prettily decorated, and a dainty lunch was served after the ceremony. Some beautiful presents were received. The guests finally departing leaving most hearty congratulations behind.

Mr. Horning is a popular young business man of this city. Corvallis is his native city and he has grown to manhood here. His exemplary habits and excellent character have won and retained for him the respect and esteem of a wide circle of acquaintances. His bride came to Corvallis with her parents about two years ago, from Tacoma, Washington. She is a most winsome young woman and has made many friends during her residence here.

Mr. and Mrs. Horning will make their home with the former's mother, just south of Marys river.

Poling Took First Honors.

Dan A. Poling, representing Dallas college, took first honors and a cash prize of $50, in the Inter-collegiate Prohibition Association oratorical contest held in Dallas last Friday evening. Aubrey Kranien, Newberg's candidate, captured the second prize of $25, and Herbert T. White, of Philomath college, was awarded the third prize of $15. Eight colleges, located at the following places, were represented: Albany, Corvallis, Newberg, Forest Grove, McMinnville, Philomath, Monmouth and Dallas. The judges were: Messrs. Allen and Amos, of Portland, and Rev. H. Guy Phelps, of Forest Grove. Roy R. Howard, O A C's representative, took first place in composition and was congratulated by the judges for the excellent showing he made.

Friday night's contest was but one of fifteen which are to take place this year in as many different states of the Union. Messrs. Poling and Kranien will represent Oregon in the inter-state contest which will be held in Corvallis, May 22nd.

A similar inter-state contest will be held in Iowa for the middle states, and one in Ohio for the Eastern states, and next year a great national contest will be held in St. Louis during the Exposition, when the winners from Oregon will have opportunity to compete with the winners from every state in the Union where the college movement has been established.

A GREAT SUCCESS.

Over One Hundred and Fifty Delegates Attend Epworth League Convention.

The fifth annual convention of the Eugene District Epworth League met at the M. E. church in Corvallis on Friday afternoon of last week for a three-days session.

The delegates from the south were breakfasted in Albany by the members of the Methodist church in that city. The advance guard arrived in Corvallis on Thursday evening by private conveyance, and the main body arrived on west side and O. & E. on Friday. They were escorted to the church by a large delegation, where the ladies of the church served lunch.

After the opening exercises at 2:30 p. m., the departmental papers were taken up. Prof. A. R. Sweetser, 1st vice president of the District in the chair, President F. S. Dunn having gone back to Harvard since the last gathering. The afternoon was largely taken up with papers, addresses and discussion.

In the evening the local league tendered a reception to the visiting delegates. Mr. Charles Wilkinson presided. The address of welcome was delivered by Guy Moore. The response came from J. W. Menzies, of Lebanon. The music was furnished by a chorus choir; also Mr. Rossmann and daughter sang a duet and were requested to give a second selection.

Saturday was given to papers and addresses on the various topics of special interest to the leaguers. Dr. A. N. Fischer, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, was introduced and addressed very happily the convention, as did also Dr. J. H. Coleman, president of Williamette University. Saturday evening Rev. Geo. H. Fees, pastor at Cottage Grove, addressed a packed house on the "Development of the Epworth League in the Church."

Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Prof. A. R. Sweetser, of the University of Oregon, gave a very practical address to an audience that filled both auditorium and annex. Mr. Rolstin, of Albany, gave a solo.

At 3 p. m. Dr. T. B. Ford, the presiding elder, assisted by the other pastors administered the communion to almost 200. The service was very impressive.

In the evening following a league service of unusual interest, Dr. J. H. Coleman gave the sermon. It was a masterly address, with clear logic and warm heart throbs.

Following the services, Dr. T. B. Ford installed the new district officers with an impressive responsive service.

It was a complete success from beginning to end.

NOTES.

Mr. Roy Glass, of Eugene, was invited to repeat his League address on "The Missionary Conflicts and Triumphs of Christianity" at the Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Dallas gets the 1904 convention. Miss Olive Mallow, of Corvallis, was chosen as literary vice president.

Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. G. B. Schmidt, Mr. Guy Moore, Miss Alice Edwards and V. E. Waters took part in the program at the convention.

Additional Local.

Robert Smith suffered a stroke of paralysis Sunday morning, at his home four miles west of Corvallis, which involved the whole right side. Mr. Smith was milking at the time of the attack and he fell from the stool upon which he was seated. Dr. Cathey was called to attend the patient, and found him scarcely able to speak, as the muscles of the face were also involved.

Mack Hemphill is lying in St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, with a badly crushed leg. The details of the accident which is responsible for Mack's present condition are not known in this city. A telephone message received by Mrs. Hemphill, yesterday, from one of the hospital physicians conveyed the intelligence, that the leg was badly crushed below the knee. The injury was severe, but was not considered serious, unless blood poisoning should develop.
