Attorney General J. D. Daly came up from Portland to attend to matters connected with his duties as a regent of the Agricultural College, and vote in the congressional election.

Married, at the residence of Albert Wisnokopsky, May 30th, Marcus Caves, of Summit, and Miss Minnie Wisnokopsky, of Blodgett, Horace Underhill, J. P., officiating. The happy couple will reside at Summit.

Miss Anna Denman has returned from Union, where she has been employed for the past year in the public schools of that city. She has the choice between her present position as 8th grade teacher, or as high school teacher for the coming year.

Henry Ambler has negotiated the sale of Mrs. Gilbert's 87-acre farm, 3 miles west of Philomath, to G. A. Scott, of that place, for $550 cash; also Newton's harness shop to R. E. Pugh, recently of Hobart, Okla. Mr. Pugh will put in a stock of hardware.

Clyde Henry, an old O. A. C. student who left Corvallis in 1896, visited here last week with his brother, who is attending the college. Clyde has spent the last six years in traveling over the coast. He has visited all important places in Utah, Colorado, California, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, and been as far south as Mexico.

The ball game at the picnic at Bellfountain, last Thursday between Duxy and Philomath was won by the latter. The handicap eating contest was won by Frank Elgin, of this city, who was scratch man. There is some talk of protesting Mr. Elgin on the grounds of professionalism.

Walter Brown's fine big team took a lively spin down Main street Sunday morning. Mr. Brown had made some purchases of groceries, hardware and lumber. These were on board when the frisky animals took fright at a bicyclist, and were distributed from the Occidental hotel to the sawmill, where the run-aways were stopped.

Mr. Bell, recently of Nebraska, is in this city, the guest of his former neighbor, C. C. Cady. Mr. Bell will be joined shortly by his family who are now in California, and will make his residence in Corvallis. He desires to give his children the advantages of our excellent schools, and hopes to find employment here for himself and nineteen-year-old son.

Wm. Broders, who recently purchased the saloon business conducted by Thos. Whitehorn for the last twenty years, took charge yesterday morning. Mr. Whitehorn is entitled to much of the credit due Corvallis saloon keepers for the orderly manner in which these places are run. There is probably no town in Oregon, where the city ordinances regulating the liquor traffic are more implicitly obeyed than here in Corvallis. Mr. Broders is a good citizen, and the confidence is expressed that he will spare no efforts to comply with every requirement of the license laws.

Corvallis seems to be behind other cities in the matter of early closing. The various business houses in Eugene, Albany, McMinnville and other towns close their doors at 6 o'clock every evening, except Saturday, but the old custom of late hours still prevails in Corvallis. There seems to be no good reason for this policy, but the habit has been formed, and habits are hard to break. Of course, the merchant's only reason for keeping open after supper is to accommodate his customers. If he were assured that his patrons will suffer no inconvenience from early closing, his doors would close at 6 o'clock. During the last week this matter has been investigated and the public has been interviewed concerning early closing, with the result that in nearly every instance the proposition has been endorsed. All who have purchases to make, say they find opportunity during the day, and they are willing that the merchant and his clerks shall cease their labors when other workers in the community complete their day's toil.

William F. Keady has deeded to Maud C. Keady, 180 acres in Lincoln county.

Mr. Garrow left last week for Gazelle, California, where he will have charge of a large sawmill.

Neal V. Murray, a former Corvallisite, came over from Albany, Saturday, to enjoy the field meet.

T. C. Case has purchased the Lee Edward's barber shop in Albany from his brother, E. R. Case, and will take possession immediately.

Harold Strong is home from Stanford, accompanied by his family. He has been attending the law department in the university, and will graduate next year.

G. K. Rogers, state organizer, and H. L. Day, colonel commanding the uniform rank of the Woodmen of the World, were in Corvallis the last of the week on official business.

W. O. Heckart was down from Eugene, Saturday, looking after some work he is superintending in this city. He was awarded another large contract in Eugene a few days ago.

Two O. A. C. students, while surveying on Rock creek near Henkle's mill, a few weeks ago, lost a surveyor's target. If the finder will leave same at this office, he will be suitably rewarded.

The excursion season to Newport opened yesterday. From now until October 10th season tickets will be good, and it is believed that the traffic to the coast this summer will be a record breaker.

J. S. Robbins has sold his farm, near Welle, to a newcomer from Illinois. After a short visit at the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Robbins intend going to Idaho, in the hope of benefiting the latter's health.

From present indications the Woodmen carnival and street fair will be the most gala affair Corvallis has ever seen. Thousands of visitors will come to this city during the four days, commencing June 10th.

The veterans of the 1st Oregon Cavalry and Infantry will hold their second reunion in conjunction with the encampment of the G. A. R. at Portland, June 27, 1903. All survivors of these regiments are cordially invited to attend.

The members of this year's senior class at the college will give an excursion to Newport next Saturday, June 6th. Fare for the round-trip including the trip across the bay, will be $1.50. The train will leave Corvallis at 6 o'clock a. m.; returning, boat will leave Newport at 5 p. m. Tickets may be secured from any member of the senior class.

The graveling of Holly street came to a sudden stop Monday. The gravel loader broke down and all hands were laid off until the necessary repairs can be made. The casting in the reversible part of the machinery known as the "clutch" was broken. The casting had to be procured from Corvallis. It is expected to resume work today.—Junction Times.

Miss Esther V. Simmons left yesterday morning for Salem to visit for a short time with friends, after which she will proceed to her home at Philomath, in Benton county. Miss Simmons was re-elected to teach in the public schools here for another year, but has declined another term.—Roseburg Review.

Geo. E. Lilly and A. W. Fischer returned, Friday, from a week's absence in the Bohemia mining district. These gentlemen are officers in the Great Eastern Mining Co., whose valuable claims lie about 33 miles from Cottage Grove. These claims were located by Louis Hartley and are the pick of the district. Messrs. Fischer and Lilly brought back a number of excellent specimens from the Great Eastern mines, that are rich in gold and contain some silver and copper. The country for miles around is staked off in claims and as much work is being done at this time of year, when the blasts are fired every evening the many heavy reports sound like cannonading. The district is very mountainous. The two Corvallisites eat their dinner one day on a peak 7,000 feet above the level of the sea.

An itinerant fakir abused the charitable nature of Corvallis housewives in a most shame-faced manner, a few days ago. With a dime, he purchased a number of boxes of needles of a local merchant. Then he began his nefarious business. He twisted his fingers into fearful shapes, and contorted his body until his appearance was shocking. Knocking at the door of various residences, he worked upon the sympathies of the lady of the house who responded and had no trouble in disposing of his wares at from three to five times the price he paid for them. His game worked all right until he came to the door of the merchant from whom he had made his morning's purchases. Notwithstanding his assumed deformity, he was recognized as the brawny well-formed customer of a few hours before and told to make himself scarce.

BY A NARROW MARGIN.

Albany College Won the Field Meet From O. A. C. by One Point.

In a field meet full of surprises and in which the excitement and interest never abated for a moment, Albany college defeated the Agriculturists on the local field, Friday afternoon, by the narrow margin of one point. It was anybody's victory until the final throw in the hammer event, next to the last on the program.

An incident in connection with the meet shows by what a slender thread hung the final result. Considering the great amount of time consumed by the field events, an effort was made to "pull off" the races while these were in progress. It so happened that the pole vaulters were contesting when the 120-yard hurdle was called. Albany's best vaulter was entered for the hurdle race, and the visitors offered to concede the first two places in the vault to the farmers; practically giving away the meet. But the Agrics. handed it back, by refusing the offer. Bergman, who failed to start in the hurdle, entered the vault and won first place and the meet.

Albany sprung a surprise in Bergman in the short sprints. He is probably the best performer in the state in the 100-yard event. But Williams was as great a surprise to the visitors in the 220 and 440, and Moore's jump of 20 feet, 7 1/2 inches, was also a revelation. Torbet was conceded the 50-yard dash and Coates was looked upon as a first-place man in the broad jump and the hurdles, but Bergman was not reckoned with in the dashes and vault.

Williams set the pace so hot for Bergman in the 220-yard dash that the latter fell after crossing the finish line and was too weak to enter any more of the races. In the 440 dash Williams led Torbet and Coates so far that they gave up the struggle. Coates won the high hurdles with ease, and broke the coast record in the 220 hurdles. Torbet equaled the Northwest record for 50 yards.

The entries for the Orange were fresher and in far better condition for the relay than the visitors, and the latter conceded that event, being highly satisfied to win if only by a point.

The events and winners were as follows:

50-yard dash—Torbet, A. C. 1st; Bergman, A. C. 2nd; Williams, O. A. C. 3d, time, 5 3/4.
High jump—Moore, O. A. C. 1st, L. Burnaugh, O. A. C. 2nd; Bergman, A. C. 3rd; distance, 5 feet 5 inches.
80-yard dash—Marks, A. C. 1st; Graves, A. C. 2nd; Burnaugh, A. C. and Steiwer, O. A. C. tied for third; time, 2:09 4-5.
Shot put—Jackson, O. A. C. 1st; Morrison, A. C. 2nd; Burnaugh, O. A. C. 3rd; distance, 38 feet 1 1/4 inches.

440-dash—Williams, O. A. C. 1st; Torbet, A. C. 2nd; Coates, A. C. 3rd; time, 53 3-5.
1 mile run—Marks, A. C. 1st; Horton, O. A. C. 2nd; Acheson, A. C. 3rd; time 5 minutes, 9 1-5 seconds.

Pole vault—Bergman, A. C. 1st; Gellatly, O. A. C. 2nd; Burns, O. A. C. and French, A. C. tied for third; height 10 feet 1 inch.
Hammer throw—Jackson, O. A. C. 1st; Ries, A. C. 2nd; Pilkington, O. A. C. 3rd; distance, 109 feet, 4 inches.

Relay—Conceded to O. A. C. by Albany.

Honored the Dead.

Business was suspended in Corvallis, Saturday, and all citizens joined the members of the Grand Army of the Republic in fitting observance of Memorial Day. Early in the morning detachments from Ellsworth Post visited the cemeteries, where comrades are buried and strewed their mounds with flowers. In the afternoon the parade formed on Main street and marched to Crystal Lake cemetery, where the formal exercises of the day were held. The following organizations were in line, and they formed one of the finest processions ever organized here on a similar occasion: Cadet band; cadets; Uniform Rank, W. O. W.; Woodmen of the World; public school children; Relief Corps; Spanish War Veterans; G. A. R. Many citizens on foot and in vehicles followed.

At the cemetery the beautiful ritualistic services of the Grand Army were performed. At their conclusion, the cadet battalion fired a salute of three volleys and the bugle sounded "Taps."

An excellent program was rendered at the Opera House in the evening before an audience that packed the gallery and main floor. The quartet, composed of Messrs. B. W. Johnson, J. F. Yates, D. W. Pritchard and Otto Herse, sang two pleasing selections; Rev. John Reames offered prayer; Miss Mabel Cronise, sang with splendid effect, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground;" recitations were given by Miss Dell Davenport and Geo. L. Paul; a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Green was heartily applauded, and Miss Cronise delighted the audience with another solo.

The address of the evening was delivered by Hon. W. E. Yates. The effort was an able one and called forth many expressions of appreciation and approval.

A pleasing and appropriate feature of the program was the drill by 25 little girls, led by Miss Cathey. They were dressed in the national colors and each carried a flag. At the conclusion of the exercises the audience joined in singing "America."

Burglars Visit Corvallis.

Corvallis was visited by burglars last Friday night, for the first time in years. So free are we from marauders of this kind, that it is surprising that these prowlers did not secure more booty. Fancied security has made our people careless and the bold, bad burglars found the latch string hanging on the outside of the door.

Some time Friday night Mrs. E. J. Andrews was awakened by the presence of some one in her room. She struck a match and its dim light revealed the outlines of a burly ruffian, standing near the bed. Mr. Andrews was startled from his sleep and as he sat up, the intruder leaped through an open window. An investigation showed that the burglars had entered the house through a window in the front of the house, and had taken the lamp from a chandelier. They had passed out of the house again at the place where they entered, and had gone around to the bedroom window, which was covered by a wire screen. After cutting this screen they fastened it back with the limb of a tree, and one of them entered while the other stood guard. He was frightened away, however, before he secured any valuables.

Dr. Rowley's residence was entered also. Saturday morning Mr. Rowley, senior, arose to find his trousers missing. He rubbed his eyes and looked carefully, but they were not to be found. He scratched his head and tried to think where he had placed them. His memory told him where those trousers should be, but they weren't there. A search was instituted and the missing garment was found in another room. The pockets had been rifled and several dollars were missing.

Special officers were put on duty Saturday and Sunday nights, and no further depredations have been reported.

Bellfountain Picnic.

The largest crowd ever assembled on Bellfountain camp-ground celebrated at the Woodmen picnic held there last Thursday. Many attended from Corvallis, and they are enthusiastic over the enjoyableness of the occasion. The team of the uniform rank from this city gave a fancy drill which elicited much favorable comment. The weather was ideal, and every feature of the program was greatly enjoyed. The day closed with a dance that continued well into the morning.

HERMANN WINS.

His Majority Will Be About Two Thousand.

LIGHT VOTE IN THIS COUNTY.

Four Corvallis Precincts are All for Hermann and He Will Carry the County By Less Than 100 Votes.

Election returns throughout the district have come in very slowly, but sufficient is known to warrant the assertion that Mr. Hermann is elected. The following dispatch to the GAZETTE from Eugene this morning at 9 o'clock is the situation in brief:

EUGENE, OR., June 2.—Partial returns have been received from all counties in the district, except Coos, Curry, Lake and Klamath. Of those heard from, Reames has carried but two, Clackamas gave him a majority of 350, and he will carry Jackson, his home county by 200. There is no question of Hermann's election. His plurality in the district will be between 2,000 and 2,100.

In the four Corvallis precincts Hermann's majority over Reames is 72, as follows: No. 1, 33; No. 2, 4; No. 3, 16; No. 4, 19. The vote in the county is only about 75 per cent of that cast in the election last June. With Fairmount, Alsea, Blodgett and Kings Valley to hear from Hermann has a majority of 87, and the final returns will not change these figures materially. Tongue carried Benton county by 198 in the last election, when nearly 1900 votes were cast.

Miss Williams Elected.

The voting contest for the Queen of the Woodmen Carnival closed last night at 12 o'clock, and the returns show that Miss Inez Williams, Dusty's candidate, is elected by nearly 1000 votes over her nearest competitor. Following is the complete count for Corvallis. There may be a few votes to come in from outside places:

Miss Inez Williams.....4,600
Miss Mae Gibson.....3,727
Miss Bessie Dilley.....1,009
Miss Bertha Henkle.....458
Miss Clara Lane.....162
Miss Mabel Davis.....100
Miss Martha Alford.....100

Additional Local.

The death of Mrs. Joseph McBee occurred at the family home, south of this city, Monday morning. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and interment will be made at Irwin's butte cemetery.

Albany College defeated U. of O. in the field meet at Albany, yesterday afternoon, by a score of 78 1/2 to 4 1/2. The university was tripped by the loss of a number of her best men, but the college probably would have defeated her anyway.

Woodmen of the World Take Notice—On Sunday, June 7th, at 3 p. m., at the Mountain View Cemetery, five miles north of Corvallis, Marys Peak Camp will unveil the Elliott Monuments with appropriate and interesting ceremonies. All Woodmen and the public are cordially invited to be present.

The graduating class at the Public School will hold commencement exercises at the Opera House next Friday evening. An excellent program, which appears elsewhere in this issue, has been prepared. Admission will be 15 cents, and tickets are on sale at Graham & Wortham's.

The W. O. W. carnival committee met last Friday evening and about completed their arrangements. A committee on decoration was appointed and they desire that all the business men decorate their places of business. A prize of $5 will be given by the committee for the best decorated window. J. Fred Yates, B. W. Johnson and Robt. Johnson to be the judges. The committee expect to secure the services of another band for the occasion and will perhaps have three some of the time. They have also arranged to have a baseball game some forenoon of the carnival. Everything is moving nicely. On Thursday evening of the carnival a special train will be run from Albany. Watch the next issue of the papers for full program.
