EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Did you ever notice how enthusiastic some people are for home industry, yet when it comes down to where it means a ten cent piece out of their pockets they never patronize them. Several cases of this kind have come under our observation lately, and there are others. Are you one of them?

The Panama canal treaty is as near "off" as it is possible for anything to be. The Bogota statesmen, inspired by patriotism and self, insist on too large a graft for uncle Sam to give the matter any further consideration. The alternative provided by congress should be adopted, and immediate steps taken towards building the canal hundreds of miles nearer, where it ought to have been built twenty years ago, across the state of Nicaragua. Let us hope that the day of its completion will soon dawn.

The fight between President Roosevelt and organized labor is still going on, and the giants of the Unions are gathering in Washington to consider the situation and bring it to a decision. The President is firm in his stand to uphold and carry out the laws of the land that he has sworn to uphold and execute. The Unions are also great upholders of the law, that is if they make the law, and it favors their side. Some of the brightest and best men on the labor side of the controversy take the stand that President Roosevelt is right, and it seems to be merely a trick on the part of political opponents to endeavor to get the labor people tangled up in the next campaign. It is to be hoped the leaders may give the subject careful consideration, and come to a decision that will be for the best interests of the laboring men of the country, whether Union or non-Union.

Mr. Nicholson, a Californian by birth, and holding the position of assistant paymaster in the United States Navy, while on shore in Chee Foo, China, became intoxicated and assaulted an elderly civilian. He was tried by court martial, and the sentence was that he be reduced five numbers in his grade. It is no wonder that a decision so shameful should meet the disapproval of every self-respecting officer of the Navy. Fighting Bob Evans says the evidence was of such a startling character that the sentence should have been nothing less than dismissal from the Navy. It is known that President Roosevelt agrees with the decision of Rear Admiral Evans and expresses his disapproval in the strongest terms. There is a tendency among officers of the Navy to shield scamps and popinjays among the soidisant aristocracy of the Navy—men who have succeeded in gaining entrance into the service of the government by political pulls, or through other influential means. The guarding and maintaining the dignity of the naval service should no longer be placed in the hands of officers so lacking in true dignity in their own person. Let us hope that the caustic tongue of fighting Bob will teach the sycophants of the navy a much needed lesson.

The opening of the public schools in Portland on Monday of this week discloses the fact that the attendance will surpass all previous records by 1200 scholars. Here in Corvallis the same conditions exist, in proportion to our population. The different classes are all crowded, far beyond what they should be. Not only is this imposing an extra task on the teachers, but the scholars cannot receive the attention to which they are justly entitled. We are glad to note the fact that the teachers are doing their utmost to overcome the difficulties naturally incident to such a condition. For this they deserve the hearty good will and sympathy of every man and woman in Corvallis. In the primary class alone 57 little tots are already registered, and asking to be guided in their first steps along the stony road to knowledge. All honor to the tender, loving heart that smooths this pathway to their plodding feet.
