Our physician prescribed for me, but as I did not seem to improve, I was advised to go away. I could neither spare the time nor money, and was very much worried when, fortunately, one of my club friends called. She told me how she had been cured of ovarian troubles, and how like my symptoms were to hers, seven bottles of your medicine cured her, and she insisted that I take some. advice. Within six weeks I was a different woman, strong and robust in health, and have en so ever since.

If the blood is in good condition at the beginning of the warm season you are prepared to resist disease and are not apt to be troubled with boils, pimples, blackheads and blotches, or the itching and burning skin eruptions that make one's life a veritable torment and misery. Now is the time to begin the work of cleansing and building up the blood and strengthening the weak places in your constitution. During the cold winter months we are compelled to live indoors and breathe the impure air of badly ventilated rooms and offices. We over-work and over-eat, and get too little out-door exercise, and our systems become clogged with impurl-ties and the blood a hot-bed of germs and humors of every kind, and warm weather is sure to bring a reaction, and the poisonous matter in the blood and system will break out in boils and pustules or scaly eruptions and red, disfiguring bumps and pimples. CANDY AND CANCER

An Indian Army Officer's Theory of

the Dread Disease.
In an article in the Indian Medical Gazette, Captain E. R. Rost, I. M. S., attributes the rise in cancer mortality to an increased consumption of sugar, in the form of sweetmeats and other delicacies of modern confectionery, and a corresponding diminution in the use of salt-preserved articles of diet. His theory is that malignant disease is parasitic in origin, and is due to the invasion of the body by a saccharomycete, the growth of which is favored by glucose, but inhibited by substances containing chlorine, and only admissible when the amount of chlorine in the body falls below normal. Some of his experiments, which he records in support of this view, are rather remarkable. He has cultivated saccharomycetes from a variety of tumors on sterile cane sugar, and has also prepared what he describes as "a kind of tumor jam," by preserving portions of tumors in the same medium. Sections of this "jam" show "the tumor cell as usual, but the saccharomycetes abounding in and between them." He passed chlorine gas through his cultures of saccharomycetes, and found that it "rapidly killed the organisms, and it is evidently the chlorine that is the active agent." According to Captain Rost, the guid-cer should be to diminish the amount of glucose in the body and increase able culture medium for the specific micro-organisms. He has put this theory into practice upon ten patients, his treatment consisting "first, of a body, and preventing its excretion as selves do not appear to have been grows a new tail. manimous as to the advantages of the treatment they were receiving, since four out of their number ran away.
