The Salem Statesman has just issued a Harvest Edition that would be a credit to any of the great city dailies. It gives nearly a full page write-up to Corvallis, and a vast amount of valuable information concerning this section of the state. It is a creditable showing by an enterprising paper.

The printing department of the OAC is now installing the new Meikle pony press. A concrete foundation has been laid, and the new press will stand as solid as a rock. Good work and quick work will now be the order of the day at this office.

The finest line of rubber boots and shoes ever displayed in the city can be seen at J. E. Henkle's Cash Store, Philomath.

Sunday's rain caught the contractors for the new school house with the roof just boarded, and the shingling just started. But the bright sunshine of Wednesday morning will enable them to push the latter job along, and soon get the building in a condition where the work can progress in spite of the rain. They can't finish it too quick.

The Citizens League of this city, held a public meeting in the City Hall last Monday evening, and at this meeting the colony scheme of Rev. H. S. Wallace was placed before the public. It embraced the establishment of a colony—the erection and operation of a beet sugar factory, the construction of a railroad from Portland to Coos bay and the operation of various industries. Corvallis is asked to subscribe $3000 in bonds for preliminary expenses.

A farmer living near Hillsboro, Oregon, has been arrested and fined $15 for assaulting a hotel keeper in that town. As he paid the fine cheerfully, it is supposed that he considers it worth it.

We have one of the finest assortments of millinery goods, such as ladies trimmed and untrimmed hats, that has ever come to the city. We invite the ladies to call and see them before making your purchases. J. E. HENKLE, Philomath

McMinnville was billed to have a sparring match at the Opera House last night, when Jimmy Reilly, of Portland, who weighs but 133 lbs. was to meet Tom Cooper, of McMinnville, who fights at 158 lbs. in a ten round contest. We went to press before the affair came off.

The Margarita Fischer Company played a two nights engagement in this city on Monday and Tuesday nights. With each return to Corvallis, we notice a decided improvement in Miss Fischer's acting. In fact, this young lady has the ability that will one day win her fame on the American stage. The company deserved better patronage than it received in Corvallis.

At the Citizens League meeting on Monday evening of this week, the new pamphlet, which has been before the committee for some time, came up for consideration. Owing to a shortness of funds in reach of the committee, it was decided to reduce the size of the book, and proceed at once to its publication. Steps will be taken at once to place it in proper hands for this purpose.

In conjunction with the work of the Woman's Relief Corps of the Grand Army of the Republic, the statistics of which we published a week ago, the work of the Soldiers' Homes, in the different states must be considered. At the Oregon Home, in Roseburg, about 110 old soldiers are taken care of, and there are accommodations for about 60 more. The U. S. government pays $100 per year for every inmate, while the state contributes $12,000 per year. Corvallis has just sent an invalid veteran to this home—Mr. W. H. Devine, who has been a resident of Corvallis for about a year, having come to this city from Michigan. He was placed in the Home on Friday last suffering from a paralytic stroke.

The Sisson Mirror contains the following item concerning a business deal in which W. W. Garrow, a former Corvallisite, now assumes the title "Mine Host." "The new and popular Bartle Hotel has a new manager. The other day Mr. Bartle sold a half interest in this valuable property, together with the large livery stable attached to it for the sum of $10,000. The purchaser is a young man of family by the name of W. W. Garrow. In the future he will have the management of this handsome hotel in his hands, while his partner, Mr. Bartle who is widely known all over the county, will take charge of the livery business. Mr. Garrow is a man of education, extremely polite and attentive to the comfort of the visitors, and has had experience which will make him one of the most popular hotel managers in the northern part of this state. Telegrams arrive every day asking for accommodations from parties who wish to visit the world-famed natural wonders of grand old Siskiyou.

Hotel Corvallis.
The long-expected opening of Hotel Corvallis came off on Monday evening of this week, and the occasion was one long to be remembered in this city.

The house was crowded the entire evening, and the dining room was no sooner emptied of one set of diners than it was filled with another.

The bill of fare was sumptuous and the dinner what Colonel Sellers would call luxurious—that is, "where you sit down a foot away from the table and eat till you touch." More than 150 Corvallis people partook of the dinner, besides a dozen or more visitors. Roast beef, young pig and turkey, boiled ham, English plum pudding and pies, formed the substantial part of the menu flanked by all the delicacies of the season in the way of side dishes. The Arion orchestra discoursed sweet music during the meal, making it, if possible, more enjoyable. It was a red letter day in the history of Corvallis Hotels and Mr. and Mrs. Hammel have reason to be proud of their success.

College Athletics.
A meeting was held at the Imperial Hotel in Portland on Saturday where all the colleges of Oregon were represented. President J. B. Horner announced the purpose of the session. To discuss intercollegiate athletics in college associations and secondary schools.

The meeting was enthusiastic and the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:
1. Empowering careful supervision by faculty on college athletics.
2. Discouraging such Saturday games as necessitate Sunday travel.
3. Discouraging games except with school teams.
4. Closing football schedules on December 1st.
5. Appointing a committee of five, consisting of President Campbell, of the University of Oregon, Prof. Ferrin and Quinlan and Principal Davis and Newland, of Portland, to represent next session of Oregon Association.

A VISIT TO DR. DARRIN.

Albany Herald.
Mr. A. G. Byers, of Independence, Or., visited Albany last week, to meet the Dr. a patient for his wonderful treatment for deafness. To a reporter he stated that he had been almost totally deaf from his youth and that in May of 1902, he applied to the Dr. while in Salem. In three months he was perfectly and permanently cured and that he had no return of the malady since. We tested him in a whisper, and without hesitation he answered all questions. Below we give his sworn statement, published last year in the Salem Journal:
HOW YOUNG MR. BYERS RECOVERED HIS HEARING.
Salem Journal.

Mr. A. J. Byers of Independence, accompanied by his son, A. G. Byers, called at the Journal office this afternoon and made a statement relative to the condition of the younger man. He had been deaf from his infancy, and later the difficulty gradually increased to such an extent that he was almost totally deaf. Two months ago the young man came to Dr. Darrin, at Hotel Willamette for treatment and today called at the Journal office to state that he could hear as well as anybody. The reporter talked to him in a low voice and was convinced that his hearing was as good as the best. This remarkable cure of necessity makes the young man feel happy, and his father is more than pleased. Their purpose in coming to the Journal office was to make a statement to the public concerning the wonderful cure.

A. G. BYERS.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, E. Hofer, a notary public, in Salem, Oregon, this 10th day of May, 1902.
[Seal.] E. HOFER, Notary Public for Oregon.

A HAPPY MAN.
The following is an extract from a card from Mrs. Austin, of Portland, Or., telling how his wife was cured of total blindness:
"I wish to make known what Dr. Darrin has done for my family. Eight years ago my wife was totally blind from what doctors called 'nervous abhorrence of light.' In that condition she visited him, and was cured, so she could see as well as ever in her life. I know of hundreds who have been as miraculously cured. I am employed on the O. R. & N. railroad, and can be referred to at any time. I most earnestly recommend the afflicted from whatever cause to consult Dr. Darrin.

W. 'STUB' AUSTIN."
DR. DARRIN'S PLACE OF BUSINESS.
Dr. Darrin can be consulted free from 10 to 5 o'clock daily; evening 7 to 8, Sunday, 10 to 3, at Revere Hotel, Albany until December 1.

The doctor makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, la grippe, heart, liver, bladder and kidney diseases or those who suffer from spathy and indigestion; also genito-urinary and skin diseases in either sex, such as blood taint, seminal weakness and lost vigor, varicocele and stricture.

If you are troubled with impure blood, indicated by sores, pimples, headache, etc., we would recommend Acker's Blood Elixir, which we sell under a positive guarantee. It will always cure scrofulous or syphilitic poisons and all blood diseases. 50 cts and $1.00. Allen & Woodward.
