MARK HANNA

Nearing the End!

Oxygen Helps Superb Constitution to Rally.

Washington, Feb. 15, 3:45 a. m.—Senator Hanna has had another sinking spell. Dr. Osler was called from his bed and he and Dr. Carter worked laboriously over the patient. As a result there has been a complete reaction, although the Senator has been left much weaker. Dr. Osler returned to his bed with instructions to be called should another spell be imminent.
The attack began with a severe spell of coughing, during which the milk given a short time before was vomited up. Dr. Fulcher first was called and then Dr. Osler. Believing that the final struggle was at hand, Dan Hanna was aroused, and quickly was at his father's side, and preparations were made to call the rest of the family, but this was not done in view of the rally which followed the doctor's efforts.
Wash., Feb. 15, 4:45 a. m.—All members of Senator Hanna's family have been summoned.
Wash., Feb. 15, 6:15 a. m.—In a last effort to save him, the physicians, at 6 a. m. gave a saline injection with brandy, resulting in a very slight rally.

More Japanese Troops!

Kings Valley.

Mr. Daggett, of Dallas, made a business trip through the Valley last week.

Rev. W. L. Arnold went to Buena Vista and preached last Sunday.

The farmers' telephone line from Kings Valley to Pee Dee is about completed. People here are quite enterprising; our farmers' wives are talkative as elsewhere, hence this line will prove a great convenience.

O. C. Ramsdell, the mail carrier from Kings Valley to Wren, is still on the sick list. He has had a severe attack of cold and rheumatism.

A. C. Miller and John McCullum have returned from a business trip to Eugene.

The 14-year-old daughter of Mr. Hooker, living a short distance below here, while returning from the Pee Dee school Friday, was thrown from her pony. One arm was broken. Dr. Luther set the fractured limb and says she will soon be all right.

S. A. Seiwert, of Monmouth, assisted Rev. Epley in a quarterly meeting held here last Sunday.

Last week a babe was born in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Embree.

For the Good of the Schools.

Another of Supt. Denman's interesting and instructive Parents' Meetings will be held at the Grange Hall, Fairmount, on Saturday next, commencing at 10:30 a. m. The meeting takes place in Grange Hall, and officers and members of the Grange will turn out in full force to do honor to the occasion, and encourage the pupils by their presence and sanction.

The invitation issued by the superintendent is a model of persistence and earnest entreaty, and indicates not only a deep interest in the good of the schools, but a firm faith in the good will and hearty cooperation of the parents and friends of the scholars. We give it in full:

INVITATION.

You are cordially invited to attend this meeting. It does not matter whether you are a granger, come anyway. If you are interested in our schools, bring your family and friends. The Grange has kindly consented to give us this day and their influence in making this meeting profitable. Look over the subjects and bring some new thoughts to give. If we are to stir our pupils to greater efforts, if we are to arouse a greater interest, you must give your support to these meetings. Remember the meeting is held at a time of the year when there is but little work to do on the farm. We want your presence. Let us fill the Grange hall. The meeting last year with you was one of the best held in the county. Let us maintain the record already established. Expecting the presence of every school officer, every teacher and every parent and patron who want better schools, we again bid you welcome. Speak to your neighbor, arrange to bring your family, take a moment to fill your basket, and come with willing hands and willing hearts. Program to begin promptly at 10:30 a. m. The Hall is just across the river from Albany on river road.

The program is calculated to still further rouse the interest of the audience, and impress upon every visitor the importance of the subject. No fact in history has been more clearly demonstrated than that education is the driving wheel of civilization, and the hope of the world lies in the maintenance and perpetuity of the public schools. The following is the program for the day.

PROGRAM.

Singing..... Attendance
Address..... Supt. Geo. W. Denman
"Upon Whom Should the Responsibility of the School Rest?".....
T. B. Williamson,
Mrs. Frank Tharp.
T. J. Risley,
"Compulsory Education in Oregon".....
M. V. Leeper,
H. J. Reese,
Mrs. W. B. Shannon.
"Cause and Remedy For Lack of Cooperation in Some School Districts."
J. T. Mayberry,
J. G. Gibson.

A basket dinner will be served at the noon hour to every person present. This forms one of the pleasantest features of the day. Interspersed with the program, as outlined above, Supt. Denman will introduce his phonograph selections as follows:

PHONOGRAPH.

A 40 minute entertainment will be given for the children on one of these little talking machines. Such solos as "Turkey in Straw," "Shadows on Door," "Just as the Sun Went Down," "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" and selections from some of the great band masters, such as Gilmore and Sousa; "Uncle Josh's Experience at a Ball Game," "In a Department Store" and "Arrival in New York City" will be given.

If you are interested in the good of our public schools, turn out to this meeting. It will help you and encourage your children. No county in our state has better public schools than Benton, and for this condition of affairs we give the credit where it belongs, to the earnest, honest, hearty good will and persistent labor of the best county school superintendent in the State of Oregon, George W. Denman of Corvallis.

As predicted in our last issue the order of Fraternal Home Buyers was officially branded as a fraud on Thursday last, at the trial of the case in Portland. The originator of the scheme, C. Guy Wakefield, was held to answer to the grand jury on a charge of fraud, while Ross Nicholas was dismissed from custody, the decision being that he had not been guilty of wrongdoing in connection with the order. This decision by United States Commissioner McKee may have the effect of putting the order out of business, for hereafter all letters addressed to the concern will be returned to the writers with the legend "fraudulent" stamped across them. Should any communications of a business nature be sent out by this order, the result will probably be the arrest of the official or officials of the order whose names appear in the communication.

A Great Newspaper.

It is manifest that the war which is now on between Russia and Japan will be the most picturesque and thrilling in recent history. It is another case of Goliath and David and it is within the bounds of possibilities that the results will be quite as surprising in the outcome.

Everyone will want the war news, not in inconsequential dribbles but in masses, particularly when the exciting events are detailed.

The Journal has made preparations to cover the events of the war fully and adequately. In addition to its regular news service, which will be greatly expanded and supplemented by special service at various points of interest, it has arranged for the complete Hearst news service. As is well known a great staff of noted war correspondents are already on the scene. Wherever there is news it will be secured totally without regard to cost. A proportionate part of the cost The Journal will bear and in consideration of this will receive every line of war news that comes over the cables for the Hearst papers.

This will give us facilities for laying the news before our readers unexcelled by any western newspaper.

The Journal proposes to give its readers the news without regard to expense and in the exciting days that are now open will set a new mark for newspaper enterprise in this section of the country.

If you want to know what is going on, the place to find it is in the columns of The Journal, and those who want to keep up with the rapid progress of events would do well to send in their subscriptions at once so as not to lose a single issue.

Mayor McLane, of Baltimore, takes an optimistic view of the situation in his city, and sends the following to the Associated Press; "Baltimore will now enter into the task of resurrection. A greater and more beautiful city will arise from the ruins, and we shall make this calamity a future blessing. We are staggered by the terrible loss, but we are not discouraged, and every energy of the city as a municipality and its citizens as private individuals will be devoted to a rehabilitation that will not only prove the stuff we are made of, but be a monument to the American spirit."
