

THE CORVALLIS GAZETTE

TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

A. DEARING, ED. AND BUS. MGR.

O. A. C. Notes.

The senior girls and lady professors have decided to wear caps and gowns.

The report in last week's paper that Topsy the Ayrshire gave 72 pounds of milk one day last week was a mistake. The correct amount is 42 pounds.

The debate between the Pierians and Feronians last Saturday night on the question Resolved, "That co-education in colleges and universities is detrimental to the highest interests of the students of those institutions," resulted in a victory for the Feronians.

Our men went to Portland Friday all confident of victory and came home with their expectations fully realized. When O. A. C. walked off with 14 out of 27 medals and the banner which is a beauty in purple and silver.

In the Administration building last Friday evening the Philadelphians entertained the Utopians. A short program was rendered in which A. R. Clark gave a recitation, Ronald Eason read a paper telling of his late discovery of Captain Kidd's treasure.

Oratorical Contest.

Mrs. Cole's class in elocution will give an oratorical contest at the Opera House, April 19. The contestants are young ladies of Corvallis.

The McCarthy horse sale, which was scheduled to take place in Portland next month, has been declared off, on account of lack of entries.

Who hates to go to bed at night? That's Hal!

Who loves to sleep when morn is bright? That's Hal!

If at 7 a. m. he would hate his bed And at 9 p. m. just love it instead, What a peaceable life could then be led With Hal!

E. E. WHITE REAL ESTATE CO

I am so happy and so glad, I do not now feel blue and sad, I laugh and talk and take my ease; I come and go just as I please. I tell you what I sold my home When I listed it with White & Stone.

The agents took my place in hand They were so sure they could sell the land I sometimes think they did not try For they never brought a man to buy.

They will always help you if they can, They deal with you as man with man. They're always ready with good advice, And are not afraid to advertise.

NEW PIANOS!! $50.00 TO $75.00

cheaper than you can buy them in Portland or of Portland agents. We claim to sell instruments of the same quality $50 to $75 cheaper than any other agents within 500 miles.

ARGUMENT. All large dealers, like the Portland firms, have enormous expenses that we do not have in the way of immense rent, electric light, clerk hire, freight, drayage and numerous other bills.

M. A. GOODNOUGH before purchasing and see what he has to offer. Our $250 piano is a thoroughly good instrument, of beautiful tone, action, finish and workmanship and one which would cost elsewhere $300 to $325.
