CORRESPONDENTS CORNER

Snapshots as Caught by Our Different Representatives Throughout the County.

Bellfountain.

Barney Casterline, of Corvallis, has rented the blacksmith shop in Bellfountain and George Boyd expects to work at the Walters Mills this summer.

Mr. Larkins is having an addition built on to his house for the better accommodation of those boarding at his place.

The 8 year old girl of Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey, whose death occurred the 13th was only sick about two days. Brights disease with other complications was the cause of her death.

The 2 year old child of Maron Bailly is still sick.

The funeral of G. Barnard which occurred last Monday, was largely attended by people from all parts of the surrounding country.

M. O. Dodge is running the creamery wagon from here to Corvallis. The business is increasing.

Every team in the country is busy in the fields with the spring seeding.

John Ganoway, an Indian war veteran is sick at the home of Mr. Adam Shengh.

Mr. Bradleys have moved to their home at the foot of Houck mountain for the summer.

Charley Perrin and son are shearing sheep for L. N. Edwards. James Bailly and Mr. Edwards will soon have a car load of sheep for sale.

Summit.

Bert Hill, who has been working for August Fischer at Corvallis the past year, is here visiting his mother.

Jim Robinson, of Wren, came up Saturday to visit his old friend John Duncan.

M. R. Savage and wife went to Lane county last week to remain indefinitely. They were attended on the journey by Chas. Skaggs, Jim Savage, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Crain.

Our school opens next Monday with Miss Pugh of Philomath as teacher.

Mr. Abell, who purchased the Herron farm rented it to William Clark and has returned to Portland.

Jasper Hamar and E. Harrison came in from town Tuesday.

J. H. Crain and family left for the logging camps of Washington Friday.

Mrs. Skelton was over from Blodgett doing some shopping Tuesday.

C. H. Watson was a passenger for Portland Saturday morning. He is working on his book "The History of the Baptist Church in Oregon," which he hopes to soon have published.

Jim Brown's crew of carpenters is re-timbering Tunnel No. 1. They are boarding in box cars at Summit siding with Mack Mackey as chief cook.

One of the needs of our village is a regular boarding house as strangers are put to a great deal of inconvenience to find accommodations.

Miss Ruth Strouts gave a party to her young friends Saturday evening. All report a pleasant time.

Ed Strouts went to Albany Tuesday, where he holds the position of section foreman.

Many of our people will engage in gathering cascara this summer.

Elh Spencer is preparing to go to Washington with his family.

X. Y. Z.

Philomath.

There will be a silver medal contest at the College of Philomath this week. The contest is under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., and students of both colleges have entered the lists.

Bishop H. L. Barkley, of Portland, spent Sunday in Philomath.

Mr. Parker, from Minnesota, has moved into the eastern part of town and expects to make his home here.

Earl Brown this week began teaching in the district near Mountain Home.

Mr. Rickard, the Alsea mail carrier, has started his hack over the road, and passengers can easily make the trip over the mountain.

Geo. Meats and family have moved into the house owned by N. Allen.

Mrs. William Morris is making several improvements on the place which she bought a few weeks ago.

While everyone is glad to see the beautiful sunshine, yet on the face of every true Oregonian there has been a smile ever since this mist began to fall.

The new sidewalk along the west and south sides of Mr. Ambler's property looks fine and adds much to the value of the property.

The boys are now improving every spare moment at baseball.

The recital given by the music department of Philomath College, aided by the educational department, at Philomath College last Saturday evening was a success. The new piano is much appreciated, since it enables the performers to do themselves justice. The educational numbers rendered were, "Six Love Letters" by Miss Ethel Weed, and

"The Child and the Star." by Mr. Whitten. There was to have been a club-swinging contest, but one of the contestants was absent. However, Mr. Betts gave a very nice exhibition of his skill with the clubs.

PERK A BOO.

Oak Grove.

B. F. Colver, of Albany, filled the pulpit at Oak Grove Sunday.

The Oak Grove school has closed for the summer.

August Krenger had the misfortune to lose one of the best horses on his place. He refused $500 for the team this spring.

Will Bailly, of Palestine, is in the neighborhood again. He is now putting in full time on the farm of J. F. Mayberry.

John Harris, of Wells, has been handicapped to some extent with his spring work on account of some of his horses being sick.

Miss Bertha Mayberry had the misfortune to come in touch with poison oak and has been so affected as to be unable to be around the last few days.

Arthur Beams, of Springfield who is visiting at the home of W. D. Prettyman, will return home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Lawrenson, late of Iowa, is visiting at the home of her son, S. P. Lawrenson. She is more than pleased with Oregon and has fully made up her mind to spend the remainder of her life among webfoot people.

We have a good many new people coming in the neighborhood. There is a family of five, who arrived in Albany last Thursday and have since rented the M. K. Lewis place and moved on the same.

Mr. Armstrong, who bought 40 acres of the Thornton place is preparing to build a house and has most of the lumber on the ground.

Some of our young ladies were fortunate enough to be able to attend the anniversary of Company G, Third Regiment O. N. G. last Thursday evening at Albany and report having a good time.

C. C. Dodson and wife, late of Texas, arrived in Albany last Tuesday morning and went direct to the home of their daughter, Mrs. D. N. Williamson. Mr. Dodson likes the Coast fine and intends to spend the summer here.

Miss Starr, who has been teaching in the Richland district for some time, closed her school next Friday with an interesting program. Miss Starr is one of Benton's efficient teachers who works hard to hold high the standard of her profession.

Some of the candidates are already out still-hunting and there are more to follow. For the benefit of those who are not skilled in politics I would say, wait until the farmers get through with their work so they can take a pensive hour to listen.

The sudden change in the weather was very exceptable to the average farmer, as the few hot days we had dried the ground up considerable and it was very hard on the teams. But now they are more hopeful of getting through with the large lot of spring work that awaits the average farmer. The fall grain looks very promising and if nothing happens there will be a large harvest.

A certain young man not living a great way from here, togged himself up in his best suit, hitched up his driving horse to the top buggy and hied himself away to get a lady friend to go to the entertainment at Richland. Presenting himself at the door of the young lady's home he exclaimed "Are you ready?" To his surprise she told him that he had made a wonderful mistake in the date as the entertainment did not take place for a week hence.

Barney Cady began work in real earnest in his hop yard Monday morning. The warm days were instrumental in pushing the vines skyward, hence a large force is employed in training this week. He has about fifteen, made up of men, women and boys and girls, and needless to say that mirth and jollity is not a stranger to them.
