O. A. C. Notes.

Thos. Withycombe and wife, of Portland, are visiting the former's brother, Dr. Withycombe. They were out to Cauthorn Hall one evening to visit with the Clark boys, who were acquainted with Mrs. Withycombe before her marriage.

Mr. Hess, who is working up the special county edition of the Telegram, visited O. A. C. last week and made arrangements to put in one or two columns of printed matter and a half page of pictures of the buildings and campus. This college is becoming better known over the state and people like to hear and see all they can about it.

The class banner was displayed in chapel one morning last week and each class thinks it is to be their prize. But it will not be known, however, till next Saturday, for the field meet has been postponed one week because of the inclement weather. It is not yet known what will happen if next Saturday happens to be inclement, too.

The good weather is still pulling the boys out of school to go home and work. There are almost as many girls in school as there were last fall, but the boys' side of the chapel which was always crowded last fall now has several vacant seats.

The boys living on the third floor in Cauthorn Hall challenged the boys on the second floor to a game of baseball, which was accepted. The game was pulled off Saturday afternoon, resulting in favor of the second floor boys by a score of 10 to 5.

Prof. Johnson has been sick for a week. Miss Carrie Byerlee has been hearing his classes in algebra.

Messrs. Barnett and Liugass were not discouraged over their first trial at climbing Mary's Peak, so last Friday made another attempt and were successful in reaching the top. They report about two feet of snow in the open and in the canyons it has piled up until only the tops of the trees are visible. The boys returned Sunday morning.

The annual inspection drill will take place next Thursday, an officer from San Francisco, will be the inspecting officer. If the boys do their best toward making a neat appearance, there is no reason why OAC should not be one of the six colleges to receive an appointment in the regular army.

V. C. Staats drove down to his home near Airlie Sunday.

Saturday evening in the third story of the Administration building, the Utopians entertained the Amicitians. Following was the program rendered: Instrumental duet, Prof. Tarney and Miss Kirker; recitation, Miss Pratt; duet, Misses Fuller and Graves; recitation, Miss Wicklund; instrumental solo, Miss Post. After numerous guessing games refreshments were served and the merry-makers reluctantly dispersed. The boys says the Utopians proved themselves royal entertainers.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Alonzo J. Locke, a son of Abram S. Locke, one of the oldest pioneers of Benton county, and lately a farmer living on the Joseph Yates place, in Linn county, just across the river, died yesterday afternoon, of typhoid fever. Mr. Locke was born in Benton county, on the old homestead just north of town. His wife, daughter and baby are all ill with the same disease. Mr. Locke was at one time county surveyor of Benton county. He was a member of Corvallis Lodge A. F. & A. M. and the funeral will probably be under the auspices of that body. He will probably be buried in the Locke cemetery on the old homestead, near Mountain View school house.

Additional Locals.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor returned Saturday from a three months stay in Davisville California. Mr. Taylor who went in search of health looks much improved and reports the trip as having proved very beneficial.

Mr. W. A. Wells who has been absent about four months in Tucson Ariz., returned yesterday morning. He reports the climate as being very fine for invalids but it is necessary to stay at least six months to be acclimated. Only three showers fell during his stay, just enough to lay the dust.

Otto Hesse is moving from the residence on Ninth street to a house just northwest of the Mechanical Hall. There is two acres of ground at that place and Mr. Hesse will have abundant room for his fancy poultry.

Notice of Election.

Said election will begin at 9 o'clock, a. m., and will continue until 6 o'clock p. m. without closing the polls.

The following has been designated as the polling place: Council Chamber, City Hall, situated on the southeast corner of Fourth and Madison streets, and the following persons have been appointed to conduct said election: Judges, Caleb Davis, Joseph Yates, R. H. Colbert; clerks, Robt Johnson and W. Dilly. Given under my hand and seal this 28th day of April, 1904.
