CORRESPONDENTS CORNER

Snapshots as Caught by Our Different Representatives Throughout the County.

Oak Grove.

Born Friday to the wife of Lewis Krochel, a girl.

Mrs. D. N. Williamson, of Albany, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Dodson, of Texas, were visiting friends here Saturday.

Miss Eloda Tharp, who has been staying in Albany the most of the winter, is home again.

Supervisor Wentz began work on the roads Monday. As most every one is busy it is very hard to get hands just now.

Rev. B. F. Culver preached his farewell sermon Sunday to a well-filled house. Mr. Culver is well liked and our people regret to see him leave.

Will and Marion Bailey are getting ready to bid adieu to the valley folks and start for the chittim fields.

Guy Knapp and wife, who bought a farm here last fall, moved back to Albany Monday, where they expect to reside.

The posters are up calling attention to the fact that on May the 8th at 7:30 a meeting is called for the purpose of organizing a Roosevelt Club.

Mr. Govro, of Independence, spent a few days in the neighborhood visiting at the home of G. W. Goff. He returned home Sunday morning.

A good many of our people have been attending the Evangelistic meetings that have been in progress in Albany for the last ten days.

C. C. Dodson, who has been visiting relatives, left Tuesday morning for Washington, where he goes to visit a brother. It will be the first time they have met in thirty years.

The basket social at Cloverdale last Saturday evening was well attended some coming from Corvallis. The program was good and well rendered. The baskets went at all kinds of prices, the highest being $4.50 which belonged to Miss Maud Hughes. The net receipts will be about $20, the amount to go towards buying an organ for the school.

The weather is fair again and farmers are making good use of it. Teams are seen afield early and late, and while the bulk of grain is sown there still remains quite a lot of work to be done. Grain is looking fine and pastures are getting good, and stock are begining to pick up. The roads are improved and now and now and then an agent is seen hitting it hard.

I scream, thou screamest, he screams—and they all scream for the famous Hazelwood ice cream at Miles Starr's.

Bellfountain.

Born to the wife of George Hall, April 30, a son.

Mrs. Earnest Buchannan, of Drain, Douglas County, is spending the week with her parents.

Vergil White and family, of Cottage Grove, spent a few days last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Edwards.

Justice M. M. Waltz has been confined to the house for a week or more with a severe cold.

Tozier, the Bellfountain harnessmaker, is moving to Corvallis to engage in the same business.

Prof Mack and wife, who have been teaching in John Day for several years, are expected home soon.

A local telephone has been organized with 11 members at Bellfountain for the construction of a line from there to Monroe. J. H. Edwards, president; S. C. Starr, secretary; Robert Kyle, treasurer. There will probably be other lines put up before long.

Farmers are yet very busy seeding. Fall grain looks fine.

Bellfountain Circle gave a social entertainment last Saturday night that was well attended and all got the benefit of a drenching rain before getting home.

In the absence of Dr. Ford the M. E. elder, Rev. Skidmore, of the Halsey circuit, will hold quarterly meeting at Simpson chapel next Saturday and Sunday.

The occasion of a very proper and enjoyable gathering of old pioneers last Monday at the home of J. H. Edwards was the 87th birthday of Father Edwards. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Reader, Mr. and Mrs. James Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Finley, Aunt Mary Barclay, Mr. Henry Heron, and Jas. Gragg. The day was spent in social and reminiscent conversation that is always so full of interest to the old pioneer.

Philomath.

R. Gant has had a new roof put on his house. If some more of the moss-covered roofs in town were replaced by new ones the danger of fires would be lessened and the looks and value of the property improved.

The ball game, which was to have been played last Saturday was not pulled off as one of the pitchers was absent. The town boys, however, picked out their best men and played the regular team of Philomath College the town boys winning with a score of 31 to 7.

Profs. Sheak and Emerick attended the Local Option rally in Corvallis Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Bradford is home after a few days in Albany.

Prof. C. G. Springer, who is teaching school in Alsea, was in Philomath last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Edna Gardner returned from Rainier, Oregon and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Meats.

Dr. Loggan has moved his office one door north and is now comfortably located.

May day was well celebrated in Philomath this year. Some brave ones faced the rain Saturday evening, while on Monday evening in almost every part of the city, might have been heard the stealthy footsteps and subdued voices, or the hurried treat and suppressed laugh of some band of basket hangers.

PEEK A BOO.

Alsea.

Spring seeding is a month late, horses are scarce and hands can hardly be had at any price. If the weather stays favorable the most of the farming will be completed this week.

Mr. Jackson, from Corvallis passed through the valley last Saturday on his way to his new home at Canal Creek.

Thos. Carr, from Oklahoma has purchased a ranch known as the Vernon property. The deal was closed last Monday.

The fact that this precinct is not represented in the well selected county ticket, which was chosen by the Republican Convention on the 31st of March does not keep our always loyal "boys" from marching in the front ranks We have a ticket that every Republican should be proud of.

On Friday evening May 13 is the date selected to organize a "Roosevelt Club" On this occasion the Republican candidates have been invited to meet with the club, and voters. Every body made welcome at this meeting.

A parents meeting will be held at the Grange Hall in this place May 13. Our worthy county Supt, G. W. Denman will be with us on that date. A good time is anticipated by every one. All are invited to come.

Drew Check to Himself.

A. L. McFadden was placed on trial before Judge Cleland and a jury yesterday on a charge of forgery, preferred by J. B. Tillotson, his former employer, who is a contractor and logger. McFadden worked for Tillotson as a bookkeeper and was discharged in August 1903. Tillotson made a practice of supplying McFadden with blank checks signed in in blank and just before he left the office he filled out a check in his own favor for $342 and cashed it. He said Tillotson owed him this much for services rendered.

Tillotson denies this, and states that McFadden charged $147 for expenses he was not entitled to. He testified that McFadden made some trips for him out of town and said he paid the traveling expenses, but was not supposed to pay for board and room rent, as there was no such contract between them.

The trial will be concluded today. J. O. Stearns and W. S. McFadden, of Corvallis, appear as counsel for the defense.—Oregonian.

The jury in the case on Tuesday brought in a verdict of not guilty, and McFadden was acquitted after a few moments' deliberation.
