Avery that the conspicuous bravery displayed by Mr. Dunn on the night of his assassination by Chester Keady, was sufficient to merit these marks of esteem from his fellow citizens. Rev. Ex-senator Daly, of Portland, came up on the Sunday train to transact some College business. He is looking well and hearty, and speaks enthusiastically of the political situation. He is confident the Republicans will win in the coming county contest, as the people are disgusted with the hot-air bosses who have so long made catpaws of the rank and file of the honest Democrats for their own personal profit. It gets monotonous when part of the candidates win every time and the losers are beginning to suspect they are not being treated square by the men who give them nothing but nominations, and assess them heavily to pay the expenses of the campaign. Candidates who are put up merely to be traded for the benefit of the bosses, cannot be expected to become over-enthusiastic. The honest people of the county are beginning to long for a change in this rule or ruin policy, and the certainty of Republican success is more apparent every day. The Senator returned to Portland on Monday.

Committed to Asylum.

Miss Rose Seeley and Miss Atta Bray of this city, adherents to the "Holy Roller" sect were arrested Friday morning at the Farmers Hotel taken to the Court House, examined as to sanity and were committed to the State Insane Asylum at Salem. They came to the Farmers Hotel Wednesday evening and were followed by Mr. Hartley who asked Mr. Howell the proprietor to make complaint to the county Judge. They ate neither supper nor breakfast but it was discovered later that they had a basket of preserves, bananas etc. These no doubt were supplied by accomplices still remaining in the city.

When taken before the Judge, Miss Seeley answered such questions as she chose. When asked concerning the peculiar belief of the sect, she refused to answer. Both girls are young and quite pretty. The sheriff had no difficulty with his charges as both seemed willing and are anxious to be sent away. It is the evident intention of law-abiding citizens to rid the city entirely of this foolish outfit. If there were no other reasons for sending them away; their reckless disregard for decency and the sanctity of the home would be just and sufficient cause.

There was a small blaze yesterday about noon in the roof of Small's candy store, caused by a spark alighting upon the roof. The fire was discovered in time and extinguished before any serious damage was done. This makes the third fire within a week caused by congested or defective flues. The property owners should see that their chimneys are swept before the dry weather sets in.

Death of Mr. Jacobs.

M. Jacobs died at the family residence in this city Thursday evening.

He had been ill about four weeks and at times it was thought he would recover but his advanced age was against him. His illness followed a day of over exertion, leading to the complications which caused his death.

Deceased was 82 years of age at the time of his death and had spent 46 of the best years of his life in this city. He identified himself, untiringly with the financial, social and educational interests of the community. For many years he was senior member of the firm of Jacobs & Neugass, one of the most prominent commercial houses in the Willamette valley a few decades ago. He served a term as mayor of Corvallis, was chiefly instrumental in securing the permanent location of the Agricultural College at this place and at all times has been a just, energetic and far-sighted citizen.

His funeral took place from the family residence Sunday, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge. The remains were taken to Portland the same day and were interred in the Jewish cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mr. Jacobs was the father of Mrs. Chas. Kohn of Portland, now in Europe; Isador Jacobs of Portland, and Mrs. Rose Selling, and Misses Sarah and Eda Jacobs of Corvallis. A widow is among the survivors. The sympathy of a host of friends is extended to these in their bereavement.

In the death of Mr. Jacobs the city loses a highly respected and influential citizen and one of its old landmarks.
