

THE CORVALLIS GAZETTE

TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

O. A. DEARING, ED. AND BUS. MGR.

A town is judged by the general appearance of its newspapers. A prosperous, well-printed paper, well filled with live, local advertising, is the best town-builder you can have. The GAZETTE is now filling the bill in every respect, as the best paper ever published in the county, and as a consequence Corvallis and Benton county stock is rising in the market. Twelve pages each week and 42 columns of interesting reading matter, in addition to the advertising—and that is 20 columns more than any other paper in the county gives you. The GAZETTE stands for the best interests of Corvallis and Benton county, without a taint of yellow journalism. It should be found in every home in the county. It is improving with every issue.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Articles of general interest will be published in this department as the personal opinion of the writers. It is understood that the paper is not held responsible for any opinion here expressed.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—In your notice of the meeting at the Court House, last Monday May 29, which you denominate a Prohibition Rally, and over which I presided, you say it "turned out to be a Prohibition Mass Meeting." A few words if you please. I took the chair by request, supposing it was a meeting in behalf of the "Local Option Law" now pending before the people. To my surprise I found myself chairman of a "Prohibition Mass Meeting." I am not a Third Party Prohibitionist. I think, if we can, that we should keep this canvass out of politics. That the Party Prohibitionist should consent for one time to work for Local Option. That we should endeavor to poll all the temperance strength of all parties, and if we can do so we shall win. You say truly, "there is a large and well defined class of citizens in favor of temperance measures from a purely non partisan point of view, yet when made a political issue will discard it."

There was $67 taken in pledges instead of "less than $5 was secured" as you state.

The parade of the Norris & Rowe new and greater shows this season promises to be an event of more than ordinary interest. The Shows have grown so enormously that the army of acrobats, tumblers, clowns, gymnasts, athletes, equilibristas and riders, combined with the congress of marvelously trained animals, makes almost a city in itself, under the enormous new tents which houses this really wonderful organization known as the New Norris & Rowe Greater Shows. The costumes for this parade were made especially for it and we are assured that no other attraction has ever gone to so great an expense in this matter, however it is simply a matter of personal pride with Norris & Rowe to have the best and most expensive street display ever exhibited in this section. Dozens of new wagons—spic, span, new, and in all the brilliancy of red and gold paint; dozens of rare and wild beasts, elephants, tigers, lions, tapers, etc. Hundred of educated ponies and horses in all the glory of gay trappings, make a veritable feast of color for the eye and a spectacular parade which will be long remembered as one of the best features of the modern big circus. Norris & Rowe will exhibit here Friday, May 20th.

Ladies don't buy your spring dress goods and trimmings until you first examine Nolan & Callahan's select stock.
