CREATE IN ME A CLEAN HEART.

Oh, Father, heed the prayer! In me create A heart unselfish, freed from worldly guile. Cleanse now my soul from sin's unworthy state. Regenerate by grace the mean and vile. That mine may be a life of purity. Be Thou my strength, and bid my faith increase. With human weakness, Lord, deal patiently. Bestow Thy love and grant Thy wondrous peace. Though sin and death abound on every side, Though men are false, in Thee we may confide. And through life's trials this my prayer shall be: A clean, pure heart, O God, create in me; Heal all my troubles with the touch divine. And cleanse and keep this erring heart of mine. —Miss Margaret Scott Hall, in N. Y. Observer.

CHOOSE.

God Does Not Impose Arbitrary and Unreasonable Commands, But Sets Before Us Facts.

The Bible does not impose upon us arbitrary and unreasonable commands. It sets before us facts, and invites us to decide with enthusiasm for one alternative or the other—for God will have no lukewarm service. In view of the awful temptations and the noble opportunities with which every life abounds, it says to every man who has ears to hear: "Choose." A glance at any concordance, says the Sunday School Times, will show how often the Bible presents us with the thought that God makes choices. Choice is one of the highest exercises of the rational nature, and the divine command to choose—such a command as was urged by Moses and Joshua, by Christ and Paul, by all teachers and leaders who have felt the everlasting importance of life's issues—such a command can dishonor no man. It assumes that we are rational beings, who were not made to be driven, but who can examine and decide for ourselves. The power to choose, which lifts us above the brutes, is a power that we exercise all too seldom. Most lives are neither conspicuous successes nor brilliant failures, just because men so seldom arrest themselves and make some deliberate resolve. The mistake which blights so many lives is, not that they make a definite choice of evil, but that they never choose at all. Too seldom do men look alternatives honestly in the face. They do not choose, they drift. You could almost count up on the fingers of your two hands all the men you know who have ever made some great and solemn choice which has seriously shaped their subsequent career. How many could tell why they are in this trade or profession, and not in that; in this church, and not in that? We are where we are, often, simply because our parents, or some other of the powers that be, put us there. So far, that is right; we must receive our start in life from others. But, as we love God and our own souls, we must not stand there; we must learn to choose for ourselves, and not drift into the other world with the helplessness of the beasts that perish. Numberless things of the highest moment were determined for us before ever we saw the light. We did not choose our parents, our family, our country, our language, our religion, our social station, the sphere within which our friendships are possible or by which our education is limited. We stand, as it were, within a charmed circle, across which we often feel we cannot step. If we move at all, it is only, like the prisoner, to walk to and fro and round and round. Yet God has so made us that it is in our power to choose the greatest things. Our path may sometimes seem to be tracked out for us before ever we begin life's journey; we may seem to be sternly compassed about by necessity, yet God's word to every man is "Choose." And woe to him who stops his ears and allows himself to be borne onward every day nearer and nearer to a goal which he has never once looked straight in the face! Nor need our choice be a blind one. It is to be made in the light of our experience. God asks no man to choose without giving Him facts to determine his choice. We cannot look over our little lives, still less over the expanse of history, without choosing for God, if we choose at all. Do you not see how your life has been molded by Divine fingers? how the disappointment which a few years ago you felt sure would crush you has opened up for you other treasures of undreamed-of happiness, which would have been forever sealed had God then given you your own foolish way? Do you not feel that the bereavement which seemed to bury your own heart in the grave of your dear dead has brought you after many days a peace, and even a quiet joy, which you never knew before? Your past is written all over with the finger of God; it is in the light of all that that you are to make your choice. The God who bids you choose is the God who helps you to choose, who

"From our mother's arms Hath blessed us on our way With countless gifts of love, And still labours to-day." And the time to choose is to-day. Time has no meaning for God; for Him who is, and was, and is to be, there is no yesterday and no to-morrow. But we are creatures of time. A hundred years ago we were not; in another hundred years we shall not be—not, at

BLACK - DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their food. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound air-tight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ROCHELLE, Ga., Jan. 30, 1902. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 20 per cent better. S. P. BROCKINGTON.
