Announcements are out for the Oregon Pioneer Association, which meets in Portland, Wednesday June 22. Everyone who came to Oregon prior to Feb. 22, 1859 is a member. These meetings are exceedingly rich in reminiscences and will pay anyone to attend.

Mrs. Tom and Mr. M. J. Veron, both of Alsea, were united in marriage June 1 by Rev. Totten. This happy event has been anticipated for some time and of course no surprise was expressed when it became an actual fact. Congratulations are being showered upon the bride and groom.

A traveling swindler is working this part of the state with an article which he calls Swan's Stick Musilage. It is probably a composition of glue and glycerine, similar to printing press rollers, and "sticks" nothing but the man who buys it. Pass the word along and when you receive a visit from the faker, give him the kicking he richly deserves.

The M. W. A. picnic at Monroe tomorrow promises to be one of the events of the season. Ten new uniforms have been secured by the Corvallis degree team, which will be an attraction. The speakers of the day are E. H. Belknap, Hon. J. K. Simmons and Hon. M. A. Miller. There will be a ball game between Elmira and Junction teams. In the evening candidates will be initiated. A prize of $25 will be given to the best drilled camp in Benton county. The competitive drill will be a feature of the program.

Celebration in Corvallis July 2, 3 and 4.

A private letter from a reliable St. Louis manufacturing firm to S. N. Wilkins, in this city, states that the reports of lack of accommodations in St. Louis are not true. Ample accommodations can be had for all who come. Good rooms in private families can be had for as low as $1.00 a day.

The Iowa people are to give a picnic in Avery's grove June 32. Every "Hawkeye" is invited to be present. Anyone who has ever been a resident of Iowa may become a member of the association. The object of the meeting is to have a general good time. Bring your baskets well filled with good things to eat as dinner will be served on the grounds.

R. N. Adams, of the firm of Adams Bros., building contractors of this city, has just completed a course in architectural drawing in the Scranton correspondence school. Mr. M. L. Adams, the other member of the firm has just begun a similar course. These two gentlemen are determined that no other city firm shall be better qualified to do superior work in building residences than Adams Bros.

Mr. Radcliff, a former resident of this city, has just returned from a three months stay in Alberta Province, Canada. He made arrangements with some of his friends to go up and see that much talked of country, and if satisfactory his friends should follow. He is back to Oregon and both he and his friends will remain here. He says there are hundreds of families from all over the United States settled in Alberta and are in destitute circumstances and have no means of getting out. The winters are long and severe; food is both high and scarce. It snows there from October to June and there is frost every month in the year.

Don't fail to come to Corvallis July 2, 3 and 4.

Miss Attie Bray, one of the Holy Rollers who was taken to Salem some time ago, made her escape early in the week and walked into Corvallis arriving here Tuesday evening. The poor girl was a pitiable sight as she had walked nearly 50 miles bareheaded and without food of any kind. She was so tired and her feet were so sore she could hardly walk when she was discovered coming into the city. She was taken to the court house Wednesday morning and placed in Sheriff Burnett's office, awaiting the arrival of a guard from the asylum to take her back. When offered a chair to sit down she refused and sat upon the floor. She was also offered cushions to sit upon but she refused them. The guard arrived Wednesday morning and she was taken back to Salem the same day.

Horse racing in Corvallis July 2, also a ball game.

Constable Chas. Skaggs, of Summit, arrived in Corvallis Wednesday, having in custody Mr. Hanson. A charge of insanity was made against Hanson by his wife. She charges him with threatening to burn the house also that he has beaten her and has threatened to kill her. In the examination it was developed that Mrs. Hanson, who was formerly Mrs. Post, was possessed of a violent temper; also that she was inclined to boss her husband. Hanson denies having beaten her or having made any of the threats with which she charges him. On the contrary he asserts that when her temper rose he always walked out of hearing distance or meekly listened to it all. Mrs. Hanson is described as being very muscular, weighing 180 pounds and fully able to defend her expressed views. Mr. Hanson said she was very jealous and also accused him of intimacy with other women. He admits having spasms. As there was no substantial ground for the charge of insanity the decree was not granted, but a promise was secured from Hanson that this episode would in no way cause him to offer violence to his wife. He said when he arrived home he would pack up and leave. He also stated that there would be no trouble about the division of the property as all was in her name.

A very pleasant party was given by Miss Maybelle Davis at her home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Handsaker, of Eugene, who have been visiting at the home of their son, Rev. Handsaker left today for Lewisville.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

[Special from the College.]

A delegation of thirteen Y. M. C. A. boys returned last Tuesday from Gearhart Park where they had been for ten days attending the summer training school for Association workers.

The leader of this conference was Clayton S. Cooper, of New York. He has charge of all Bible study work among students in the United States. He was the means of increasing the Bible study enrollment of college students last year from 16,000 to 25,000.

Mr. Hotchkiss, a missionary from Central Africa, was there and told of his work which in five years had opened up three tribes numbering 2,000,000 people and influenced them to change their attitude toward white men until one is perfectly safe in that part of the country, whereas for the first two years his life was in constant danger.

Dr. Little, of Northwestern University, was at the conference for three days. E. O. Hill, who is coast secretary for the next year was there. H. W. Stone, of Portland, A. S. Allen, Rev. Dean and Dr. Wilson, of Seattle, Rev. Levi Johnson, of Portland and G. W. Leavitt, of New York, were all there and spoke of the great need of Christian men to work not only in our great cities but also in the small country towns.

There were 130 in attendance and they represented 21 different colleges and universities in the Northwest. These men have all gone back with a determination to do more than ever before to enlist college students in Christian work for although they only number 2 per cent of our population from them come 75 per of our leaders in all walks of life.
