A. Robinson last week. J. E. Peterson, of Grants Pass, arrived in Corvallis Saturday, and in company with his brother, A. F. Peterson, of this city, they left on the afternoon train for Newport. They were accompanied by Raymond Peterson, the latter's son. Arthur Kroening, the smallpox patient who has been in quarantine for the past ten days, will be released tomorrow. No new cases have developed and the precautions taken by the city authorities have been successful in preventing any spread of the disease. A petition is being circulated praying the city council for a sewer described as follows. That the lateral sewer known as the Lilly sewer be extended through block No. 32 Avery's Third Addition to Corvallis, that is to say so that a sewer be constructed from the end of the present sewer, located at the south side of block 33, Avery's Third Addition, thence south thence south through the alley of said block 32 and across A street to the south side of A street. S. H. Horton living six miles west of Monroe has the most remarkable peach tree in the state. The tree was planted 14 years ago and has been bearing fruit since the third year being so heavily laden this year that the limbs have to be propped to keep from breaking. It was simply a sprout when planted and three years later bore a bushel of peaches and the fourth year bore four bushels and has been bearing out of proportion to its size each year since.

The Corvallis Steam Laundry will now be found in its new location in the old Salvation Army hall on north Main street. The change was made because of better accommodations and the large increase of business. Miss May Kester has just finished a four months successful term of school in the Noyes district in the Blodgett valley. The school has had trouble for several terms, and it is a credit to Miss Kester that she has had such a quiet and successful term. Moses Wright, of Lyons, Nebraska, was a recent visitor to Benton county looking for a location. Because of the difficulties arising from the free use of government land in his state and the order from the government to the farmers to remove all fences thereon, many have sold out and are locating elsewhere. Leo, the 15-year-old son of Sheriff Burnett, was seriously injured Friday evening in a runaway on Main street. He was thrown to the ground beneath a lot of clothes racks, receiving a severe scalp wound, several bruises about his head and face and both arms were badly wrenched. He was taken into Jess Spencer's barber shop, where Dr. Lee dressed his wounds. The horse he was driving was an untrustworthy animal that has run away on former occasions. The horse became frightened by the rattle of the racks and Leo was so situated that he had to hold the load and drive at the same time. He could not hold the horse when it started to run, the load lurched backward throwing him to the ground. C. C. Poling, president of the Dallas College, accompanied by his family left last Tuesday for his old home in Pennsylvania, where he will have charge of his home church. Mr. Poling secured a leave of absence and will be greatly missed in the school at Dallas and also in his church work throughout the state.

Cronise went to Salem, to attend the funeral of his nephew, Harry Ling, of Albany, is acting as the C. & E. agent during the absence of Mr. Cronise. Miss Josie Thurston came last Friday to assist in the care of Mrs. J. L. Jones, who is now slowing improving. The announcement in a former issue that a banquet was given at the Hotel Corvallis to the Ladies Chorus by Mrs. Pernot was a mistake on our part. The banquet was given by the Ladies Chorus, Mrs. Pernot making the arrangements. On June 29, from 7 to 9, H. L. Richardson of the Eastman Kodak Company will give a public demonstration with "Velox Paper" at Graham & Wells drugstore. All who are interested in photography are requested to be present. H. A. Deck and family, Mrs. Minor and daughter, Miss Crystal and a number of Corvallis people are attending a campmeeting at Independence. The "Pioneer" bakery has passed into the hands of Carl G. Hodes, of Albany. Messrs Read and Hall, retiring, Mr. Hall will move to Portland. D. G. Reeves, who has been teaching in the public schools at Vancouver, spent a few days with his parents in this city last week. He will take a short course in the University of Washington at Seattle this summer. E. G. Cameron, of Union, Oregon, telephoned his brother, J. M. Cameron yesterday that he will be in Corvallis July 4th to attend the celebration. The Village Improvement Society wishes to make public acknowledgement of the donation of $23.35 to funds, the net proceeds of the entertainment given under the auspices of the departments of elocution and vocal music at the College chapel on the evening of June 13. We wish especially to tender our thanks to Miss Crawford and Mrs. Green for the generous gift and to President Gatch for his hearty approval of the same. We are in receipt of a very handsome souvenir program of the Eleventh Annual Assembly of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association, which meets at Gladstone Park, June 12, and continues in session thirteen days. To thoroughly enjoy this outing arrangements should be made for camping, in which event the two weeks stay will be a season of unalloyed enjoyment. Low rates on the railroad will give all an opportunity to go. The east side trains make regular stops on all trips. Season tickets are $2.00 admitting the holder to the entire session, with access to all classes except domestic science, for which a nominal charge will be made. Day tickets are 25 cents. Camping privileges cost nothing. The Independent Telephone company will be ready some time this week. The work of stringing the wires began last week. Philomath will be the first point reached. The wires are stretched about two-thirds of the distance. As soon as the main line can be put in operation, the different rural lines will be attached. The poles for the city are not all in yet but the work is nearing completion. Special attention is being paid to the work with a view to making it both attractive and permanent. The poles are large and of the best cedar obtainable. The inducements held out to subscribers are very attractive and no doubt will contribute much to the faith the public has in the enterprise. The new office is over Zieroff's grocery store, the last three rooms on the right hand side.
