An Unpleasant Visit.

Chas. E. Barclay, of Montpelier, Idaho, in company with his wife, has been visiting friends and relatives during the past week in Alsea, and while on their way they stopped for a few days visit in Portland, where Charlie had an experience that he will not soon forget.

About 11 o'clock one night he was suffering from a severe cramping in his stomach, not wishing to disturb the inmates of the hotel he decided to go to a drug store about a block away and procure some medicine to relieve his sufferings. On reaching the drug store he found it locked for the night and started to return to his apartments, on hearing a slight noise behind him he looked around and received a blow from a "sand bagger." He was found by the police about three hours later in an insensible condition. When he recovered he found his pockets wrong side out and his purse containing $270 was gone. Fortunately his wife had in her own purse a ten dollar bill, which took them to Alsea. The Modern Woodmen at that place, of which Mr. Barclay is a highly honored member, presented him with $20 in cash. They returned to Idaho Monday.

Baby Seal Caught.

At Newport a baby seal was washed ashore Wednesday and was captured by the son of the baker at Nye Creek, Mr. Bayn. The seal was less than two feet long and when it was first seen had been cast up by a wave and was crying pitifully. Several people attempted to throw the small stranger back into the seas, but the little fellow would not remain in the water and was finally taken home by the young Bayn. The seal belongs to the fur variety, and is one of the sights at Newport for the season. The owner of this strange pet feeds it by means of a bottle, the seal taking kindly to sweet milk taken through a tube. The little pet attracts all visitors at the seaside resort, many of whom have never seen an animal of that species.

Peculiar Phenomenon.

The report of a peculiar phenomenon comes from Henderson Station, two miles east of Eugene. A couple of days ago workmen were drilling for water and had reached a depth of fifty-one feet when suddenly they began to hear a deep rumbling noise coming from the bowels of the earth. The men were at a loss to account for the noise, and being considerably frightened, quit work.

The strange noise continued for several hours, and was heard by a large number of persons who visited the place for that purpose. All agree that it sounded like a huge waterfall, and one man declared that it sounded as loud as if the Willamette river was falling over a precipice a hundred feet high.

Mr. Taylor, living about 12 miles south of here, met with a very painful accident Tuesday evening that may result in the loss of hearing in one ear. He was seated on a load of wood, driving down a steep grade, he reached back to grasp the brake pole and in some way missed his hold and fell. It is not exactly known just how he struck or the cause of the accident, but one ear was badly lacerated and almost torn from his head, otherwise he was not seriously hurt.

New Foot Ball Coach for O. A. C.

Mr. A. C. Steckle, who has been secured to look after the foot ball eleven of the O. A. C. for the coming season, is considered one of the best men in his position in the country. He received his foot ball training under Yost and has for several years coached the team at the University of Nevada, turning out an eleven that last season beat Berkeley and tied Stanford.

Arrangements have just been completed to send the O. A. C. to California this fall to play the leading elevens, of that state. With the exception of one man, the O. A. C. has been held intact for next season's work, and under such a coach as Steckle they should give a good account of themselves against any eleven.

NORMAL SCHOOL, EUGENE, OREGON

This school will open June 27 and continue for a term of six weeks to August 5. The object of the school is to furnish teachers—and those preparing to teach—an opportunity to study methods and to raise their grade of scholarship. Mr. Dixon has devoted many years to the study of the needs of the grades. He has conducted three summer schools in Wisconsin and is well prepared to help teachers in just what they need in their daily work. Mr. Haroun is president of the Eugene Business College. His work there during the past year has been highly successful. Two other men have been employed to help in the work. Write to F. S. Maroun, Eugene, or W. W. Dixon, Albany, Or., for a circular. Board and tuition reasonable.
