The Corvallis Fire Department boys are becoming quite proficient in their daily drills. We very much doubt if another city of equal size can produce a better one. The challenges sent out for competitors for the 4th of July celebration have as yet not been taken up.

Fireworks, Fireworks, Fireworks, at Hodes' gun store.

During the recent picnic of the Linn county pioneers at Brownsville, the Philomath male quartette rendered valuable service. This quartette is one of the very best in the state and is composed of Messrs O. V. and Herbert White, Whitten and Carey.

Extra hand-made shoes at J. Senger.

There is to be a grand 4th of July celebration down on the lower Asea. The principal feature of the day will be a base ball game between the "cascara peelers" and the "chittim skimmers." The peelers are the old residents and the skimmers the newcomers. T. T. Vincent will make the eagle scream.

According to custom the three ladies receiving the highest number of votes in the Goddess of Liberty contest will act as Goddess of Liberty, Goddess of Peace and Goddess of Plenty, for the celebration, July 2, 3, 4. Miss Grace Huff will represent the first, Miss Elsie Dilley the second and Miss Lulu Spangler the third.

The most attractive display of fireworks is at A. Hodes.

The finest display of fireworks and the most attractive decoration made therefrom is to be found at Hodes' gun store. The window arrangement was especially designed and constructed by Mrs. Hodes from great quantities of chinese fire crackers, stacks upon stacks of sky rockets, whirligigs, Roman candles, Japanese bombs etc. Go around and take a look at it.

Senger's hand-made shoes are unsurpassed for durability and workmanship.

Wednesday evening, June 15, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hayes, of Portland, Miss Elsie Anna Bates and Raymond Wilton Simeral, two former O. A. C. students, were united in marriage. As the first strains of the bridal hymn from "Lohengrin" were played by Miss Eva McAllister, four young women entered the room, bearing an arch of white ribbons, under which the bridal procession marched, taking position under a canopy of ferns and ribbons, tied in true lovers' knots. The front parlor was embellished with ferns and rosebuds. The diningroom and hall were in red. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Sibyl Cummings. Mr. and Mrs. Simeral will reside in Salem.

Claud Gatch is carrying around a bandaged and a painful eye that has been under the care of the doctor for a day or two. It came about from handling of paper money at the Ladd & Bush bank, where Mr. Gatch is employed and has been for many years. Mr. Gatch is usually very careful in the handling of paper money, as all bank people who are acquainted with its danger. But this time he rubbed his eye after counting a package of "greenbacks" and conveyed a germ thereto which caused the soreness, requiring the attention of a physician and the bandage.—Salem Statesman.
