

THE CORVALLIS GAZETTE

TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS,

Alton B. Parker, of New York has had the honor of being nominated by the Democratic National Convention, at St. Louis, on a platform with a hole in it. Mr. Parker is a pronounced Gold Democrat, and is to stand for a party that had not the courage to announce its principles on the money question. Poor Alton, Ex-Senator Davis, of West Virginia, will go on the ticket as an "also ran."

New Masonic Lodge in Toledo.

Under instruction from the Grand Master of the state, Past Grand Master J. C. Moreland, of Portland, instituted Lincoln Lodge No 124, A. F. & A. M. in Toledo, on Saturday evening last. The lodge started in with a membership of over thirty, and with good prospects of rapid growth. The following officers were duly installed by the acting Grand Master.

- O. L. Gray, W. M.
- B. E. Gaitner, S. W.
- Henry Gaunon, J. W.
- Wm. Scarth, Treas.
- C. E. Hawkins, Sec.
- Jas. McDonald, S. D.
- Joe Gaitner, J. D.
- N. Anderson, S. S.
- Geo. Hall, J. S.
- Jos. Hall, Tyler.

The impressive ceremonies of the order were performed in the masterly manner customary to our distinguished brother Moreland. A nice lunch was served and some good speeches closed an enjoyable evening.

The new master, G. L. Gray, is Custodian of the work, of the Grand Lodge, and one of the best posted Masons in the State.

At the close of the meeting Grand Master Moreland, A. G. Weatherford and J. R. Wyatt, boarded a gasoline launch for a quick trip to Newport, where they proposed to spend the night and enjoy an early breakfast at Mrs. Abbey's bountiful table.

But the best laid plans of mice and men do not always work out as planned. Brother Weatherford's ability as a pilot on Yaquina Bay had been over estimated. A meandering mud bank thrust itself under the launch and in a few moments she lay high and dry on top of fourteen feet of moist mud, with plenty of water in the dim distances in every direction, and the tide going out. There they lay and counted the hours till after ten the next morning, when the rising tide mercifully lifted the boat from the bank. The spot can be located for several days yet by a dense and impenetrable blue cloud which hovers over it.

Cold, weary and ravenously hungry the party reached Newport on Sunday morning, too late for breakfast, with a whole day before them to view the splendid scenery of that delightful seaside resort. But for this party Yaquina Bay had lost its beauty. Bathism on that subject was no longer possible. But one thing is certain, the next time they have a midnight trip to make from Toledo to Newport, everybody will walk.

Good Roads for Benton.

We feel assured that practical results will be accomplished before the rainy season sets in, in the matter of good county roads. While in many places good material can not be had for construction and foundation work, yet commendable work is being done with such material as is at hand. In places where stone and gravel can be secured the supervisors are doing excellent work. It often happens, however, that fir bush and poles are the only material to be had and the leveling of last winter's ruts is all that can be done.

We feel sure with the material at hand and the difficulties encountered and the limited amount of money with which to meet them, the present corps of county road supervisors will be second to none in industry and intelligence.

The following is the list: No 1 Albert Wilson, No 2 H M Fleming, No 3 Dick Kiger, No 4 Harley Hall, No 5 Lewis Wentz

No 6 E M Dodele, No 7 John Price, No 8 Chas Skaggs, No 9 G A Cadwalader, No 10 C R Ballard, No 11 J R Fehler, No 12 G R Taylor, No 13 J E Banton, No 14 E N Starr, No 15 D B Farley, No 16 J M Herron, No 17 Duke Gray, No 18 C E Banton, No 19 H Hector, No 20 B W Harris, No 21 J O Wilson.

County Court Notes.

The county court convened in regular session Wednesday, July 6. One change was made in the regular list of officers, R. S. Irwin, commissioner, retiring by the election of Peter Rickard. The county officers whose terms began in July, filed their bonds and assumed the role of office, Wednesday, July 6. Sheriff M. P. Burnett gave bond for $10,000, Clerk V. P. Moses, $10,000, Treasurer Buchanan, $20,000, Recorder Vincent, $5000 and S. N. Wilkins, $1000. The bonds were all approved by the county court and ordered filed for record.

The offer of J. H. Wilson to audit the books of the Sheriff, Recorder, Treasurer and School Superintendent for the period from July 7, 1902 to July 5, 1904 for the sum of $150 was accepted and Mr. Wilson ordered to proceed with the examination and report his findings in writing to the court, at its regular session in September.

DeBois and Song to Trial.

Mr. DeBois and son, who are accused of burglarizing seaside cottages and who were brought for safe keeping to Corvallis because the Lincoln county jail was deemed unsafe, were taken to Toledo, Saturday, to appear there in the July term of the Circuit Court on the above named charge.

Mr. DeBois especially has been very impatient during confinement, owing probably to the fact that he has a wife and several small children who are deprived of their main support by his confinement. There is strong evidence against him, but he seems to have been driven to his deed by dire necessity. The articles stolen consist of sheets, pillow cases and blankets and a suit of clothes. These things he put into a box and buried it in his front yard. When the authorities came to search the premises they found a garden growing over the spot where he had planted the box.

It seems a very unfortunate case indeed as the previous record has been an exemplary one. It is said that he was at one time a minister, which would make the case all the more sad. There seems to be no doubt of the father's guilt. The mercy of the court, which under the circumstances would seem well bestowed may probably be the only thing that will save him from serving a sentence.

A. L. McFadden sues Tillotson.

A. L. McFadden, formerly an attorney of this place, who was sued some time ago by J. B. Tillotson, of Portland, on the charge of the unlawful securing of money and was acquitted in the recent term of the State Circuit Court, has now brought suit against Tillotson for damages amounting to $10,000. Mr. McFadden was formerly employed by Tillotson as a bookkeeper. Tillotson is a prominent contractor of Portland.

In his complaint McFadden alleges that on January 13, 1904, he was arrested at Chitwood, at the instigation of Tillotson, on a charge of forging and unlawfully indorsing a bank check. He was brought to Portland and confined in the city jail, and was released on $1000 bonds. He avers that his arrest was due to malice and with intent to injure him, and says there was no probable cause for the preferment of a charge against him. Besides the $10,000 damages asked, McFadden seeks to recover the sum of $438, the cost of his trial and attorneys and witness fees.
